Yanks Nurse Eight Game Win Streak

Bill Johnson, Rookie Third Baseman, Responsible for New Yorkers' Heat Wave

By JUDSON BAILEY Associated Press Sports Writer The New York Yankees are not the old-time bombers but they're up to their old-time tricks—trying to break the back of the American league in the middle of the season.

When they swing back into action tomorrow after the usual two-day layoff that precedes inter-sectional series in the major leagues this year they will be nursing an eight-game winning streak, the longest of the top-turkey campaign.

They now have won 12 of their last 13 games and this has been sufficient to stand off the ambitious Washington Senators, who have won five of their last six games and still lost ground.

Aside from the very creditable pitching, the biggest factor in the Yankees' mid-summer heat wave has been the slugging of Rookie Bill Johnson.

The young third baseman hit a three-run homer and four singles Sunday to climb right into the middle of contention for the runs batted in laurels in the American league.

Nick Etten, in the best first-base tradition of the Yankees, has been at or near the top in run production all along and now is leading with 58. By batting in four Sunday, Johnson bounced into second place with 57 and may be the first rookie to drive in over 100 runs since Ted Williams broke in with 145 in 1939.

Yesterday was an off-day in the major leagues, but in an exhibition game at Cooperstown, N. Y., the cradle of baseball, the Brooklyn Dodgers defeated the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 5.

Joe Louis Lacks Punch in Golf But Draws Prize Gallery Crowd At First Round in Tam O'Shanter

By CHARLES DUNKLEY CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Sgt. Joe Louis of the United States army does not pack the dynamite at golf that he does in the prize ring, but he's the world champion at drawing the galleries.

Louis, playing his first major golf in the opening round of the Tam O'Shanter All-American amateur tournament yesterday, carried all of the spectators with him when he teed off in a three-tee with two of his white brethren. The champion was attired in a pair of khaki pants, white undershirt, and a dilapidated straw hat, the brim of which flopped with every step Louis took.

Whether it was the crowd or just an off day, Louis carded a 44-43-87. The Brown Bomber ran into immediate trouble to the surprise of a crowd of 300 that trailed him, getting a seven on the par-four first hole, and a five on the par-three third. This upset him, but he managed to finish playing no worse than many of the touted amateurs, including favored Wilford Wehrle, of Racine, Wis., who had trouble finding the course' par level.

Only one in the 262-man field managed to play par golf. He was Richard McCreary Jr., of Indianapolis, the Hoosier state champion in 1937. The margin of McCreary's advantage was as small as possible, for only one stroke behind him, tied at 73, were three youthful challengers all from the same nearby Waukegan, Ill., golf club, and another from St. Louis, Bob Cochran, St. Louis district open champion and one of the ablest amateur swingers in the country.

The others just a stroke off the par pace were Frank Perlich, Frank Kovach, and William chambers.

KLAMATH SPORT NOTES

By VIRGIL GROSS The Pelican baseball team will go into action after a week's layoff with a game this Sunday against the strong Medford Craters at Medford. The Craters should be plenty tough opposition on the strength of Pitcher Bob Hardy, former University of Oregon and Portland Beaver hurler, and a former Vancouver War Industries league catcher, Jim Ball.

Visiting in town this week on furlough from the navy is Al Dollarhide. Al was treasurer of the 1941 Pelican baseball team. He has been on ship and land base duty in the Aleutians for the past several months.

Ab Cox of the Camp Newell army team, and a classy little shortstop in any league, is expected to sign with the Pelicans before the end of the week and may see action in the Medford game.

"Scotty" Smith, sensational fielding Pelican second baseman, is leaving the latter part of the month for duty in the marines. He was a former University of Oregon student and played for the Silverton Red Sox, Oregon semi-pro champs who made the trip to Wichita, Kansas in 1938.

"Scotty" will be sadly missed as his line of chatter and competitive spirit provided the spark for a fighting Pelican baseball team.

Former KUHS football star, Ken Wilson has received his diploma from the training center at Corpus Christi, and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. marine corps reserve.

Wilson attended Oregon State college upon entering the armed services.

Marshall Evestone, a former Klamath resident and Pelican baseball star for the past three years, is now in Portland employed by a shipyard. He is not playing baseball.

Post War Track Titles May Be Taken by Swedes

Gunder, Gil Dodds Arrive in Boston; Swedish Army Training Makes Runners

By DEAK MORSE BOSTON, July 20 (AP)—The reporters were lounging about the airport and the talk was mingled with soft Swedish accents and the voices of the news men. It was a big day for local Swedish-Americans, for Gunder Haegg, the racing marvel, was Boston-bound with Gil Dodds. Saturday the pair would run in the Harvard stadium and Haegg's countrymen were as proud as a kid with a new drum.

"We'll have the best runners in the world after the war is over," one of the Swedes said with assurance as he revealed why his countrymen have come to the fore in distance racing. "Gunder, like every Swede over 16 years old, has been in the army 18 months," the spokesman said, "and do you know the requirements for every soldier? Why, he has to run five miles each and every day of those 18 months."

The conversation was interrupted as the plane glided into port and in a moment bedlam broke loose as the photographers blazed away and the reporters started firing questions.

In many ways the racing kings are much alike for each continued the caution they have shown right along about predictions of breaking records or who would beat who or anything of that sort.

Haegg was emphatic, however, when he said that he liked America and Americans very much and he considers Gilbert Dodds just about "tops."

Swedish-American relations aren't being done a bit of harm by this pair, for Dodds showed even more clearly than he could put into words that his feeling for Gunder Haegg is every bit as deep.

Ramirez to Return To Portland for Bout With Zivic

PORTLAND, July 20 (AP)—Rodolfo Ramirez, the Mexican who stole the show in a bout here July 12 with Jimmy Garrison, will return to Portland on August 20 for a fight, possibly against Fritzie Zivic.

Matchmaker Joe Waterman said he also planned to rematch the Mexican welterweight with Garrison in September. Garrison was awarded an unpopular draw in the last meeting. A Ramirez-Jimmy McDaniel's bout will follow, Waterman said.

Residence Required Before Applying for Oregon Fish License

PORTLAND, July 20 (AP)—Newcomers in Oregon must establish residence six months before applying for a resident hunting or fishing license, the state game commission warned today. Members of the armed forces, however, may obtain resident licenses at regular fees regardless of their length of time in the state.

Hutchinson Flattened By Beau Jack

By SID FEDER PHILADELPHIA, July 20 (AP) Beau the Jumping Jack has a lot of his old bounce back, as indicated by his six-round job flattening Johnny Hutchinson, but now he wants to make sure it's the real thing.

So, after he put "Trial Horse" Hutchinson away last night in Shibe park, the jumping jack didn't start any immediate howl for a return rattle with Bob Montgomery and the lightweight, title Bob took away from him two months ago.

Instead, and just to prove that he's as good as new—as well as to pick up an odd buck or two—Bouncing Beau announced flatly he'd like to tangle with Swarthy Sammy Angott, who used to be the 135-pound boss.

But the Beau's idea offers some bewildering beak-busting possibilities, especially since Bobcat Bob, himself, is slated for a fuss with fearless Fritzie Zivic here August 23—provided Promoter Taylor can iron out a few wrinkles.

Ducks Play Oaks; Seals Meet Padres

By The Associated Press Portland will face Oakland on the Beavers' field today in one of the two games on the Coast league roster. San Diego will take on San Francisco in Seal stadium in the other.

The Oaks, who have been bumped down the ladder considerably in the last month, can be counted on for a spirited attempt to regain a first division berth as they open their series against the third place Beavers.

Seattle's Rainiers will go into action on their home lot tomorrow against the Hollywood Stars. The probable starting pitchers are the veteran left hander, Carl Fischer for Seattle and Ray Joiner for Hollywood.

The league's tail enders, the Sacramento Solons, will meet the leaders, the Los Angeles Angels, in a series which also opens tomorrow.

Pacific Golf Fans Hope For Didrikson-Berg Match

SEATTLE, July 20 (AP)—Pacific northwest golf fans today were hopeful that the war benefit exhibition golf match here between Patty Berg and Mrs. Bebe Didrikson Zaharias may yet be played.

Mrs. Zaharias announced cancellation of the event earlier this month when the U. S. Golf association indicated her amateur status would be open to question if she made the tour with Miss Berg.

The Post-Intelligencer said today that the hard hitting Babe had wired the paper's sports editor, Royal Brougham, chairman of the northwest camp and hospital council, that she would be glad to donate her services and pay her own expenses as well if the northwest tour were permitted.

All receipts from the exhibition would go to the council, a Red Cross auxiliary organized to coordinate services for men of the armed forces in the northwest.

Earlier plans called for Mrs. Zaharias to receive expenses for the tour. J. H. Ballinger, northwest USGA representative, asserted after hearing of the offer to Brougham that he "strongly endorsed" the tour and would wire eastern golf officials urging that objections be withdrawn.

Sports Briefs By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, July 20 (AP)—Senior Don Forrest Cox—better known as Frosty Cox, Colorado U. basketball coach—recently received this letter, written "with some interpidation" by Jaime Muriel, a recreational director in Barcelona, Spain: "I should be very happy if you could find time to send me any magazine, periodical, or rule book which, in your esteemed judgment, might help me in my work of attempting to popularize basketball, of which I am a fervent admirer; thus I should be able to develop my technical ability as a recreational director and to increase the number of volumes dealing with my favorite sport which I possess in my private library." . . . This proves only that Don Jaime's ideas of sports are better than his command of English, but if he'd listen when the wind is right, he'd likely hear some doughboys in Sicily arguing about basketball . . . or Phog Allen sounding off on the same subject from Kansas.

STARK MADNESS

It wasn't in Brooklyn but in Charleston, S. C., where a 14-year-old batboy set a record of some sort recently by getting himself bounced from the ball park a-la Leo Durocher . . . Prexy Nolly Sams of the Charleston Municipal league reports that Batboy "Nellie" Strong of the Stark hospital team became so peeved at a decision that he rushed the pump, pounded his chest protector with his fists and then backed off and challenged the arbiter to come on and fight . . . The ump prudently backedone a cop to take the kid out of the park still shouting "robber," and "Nellie" spent the rest of the game chasing four balls that came over the fence.

White Sox Outfielder Leads American Batting Averages

NEW YORK, July 20 (AP)—The merry-go-round for the batting leadership in the American league hasn't broken down.

Guy Curtright, the rookie outfielder of the Chicago White Sox who grabbed the brass ring away from Vern Stephens of the St. Louis Browns a few weeks ago and then gave it back to him last week, has regained the league lead with a .333 mark. Stephens' average slipped nine points and dropped him back to second place.

In the National league Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals succeeded in stabilizing the batting problem by increasing his pace seven points to .338 and continuing in first place with Billy Herman of the Brooklyn Dodgers also boosting his mark four points to .332 and remaining in second.

Babe Dahlgren of the Phillies, who was the front-running star of the senior circuit for many weeks, still was bogged in a batting slump and dropped to fourth with .317, thirteen points behind

Paul Waner Best Golfer Among Bums

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., July 20 (AP)—There isn't any question about who is the best golfer among the Brooklyn Dodgers. He is Paul Waner and he could whip the others with one hand tied behind his back—if it were his right hand.

Waner equipped himself with the only two lefthanded clubs to be found in Cooperstown yesterday, a No. 9 iron and a putter, and proceeded to shoot a 47 for nine holes, low score among a group of five who were willing away the time before an exhibition baseball game between the Dodgers and Chicago White Sox. The Dodgers won that 7-5.
