

Hatchet Death, Drowning Seen as Murder, Suicide

PORTLAND, July 21 (AP)—Police wrote off today as murder and suicide the deaths of Mrs. Paulina Pavlovic, 62, and John Schmidt, 75.

They found Mrs. Pavlovic's body in her home late last night, her head crushed by a hatchet. Neighbors said they had heard violent quarreling, followed by a scream.

A search for Schmidt, who had roomed at the Pavlovic home for two months, ended with recovery of his body from the Willamette river. He was seen to jump from a downtown bridge.

A soviet expedition in the Crimea found human bones said to be 40,000 years old.

SUCH IS FAME
KENT, Conn., (AP)— Friends who telephoned Frank H. Peet to congratulate him upon his status as acting governor were unable to reach him.

The president pro tempore of the state senate, unconcerned by the fact that governor and lieutenant-governor of highly industrial Connecticut were at a republican conclave in New York, was out in his fields pitching hay.

NOT IN HIS CONTRACT
ABILENE, Tex., (AP)—A fireman ran screaming from the burning home of Police Capt. Virgil Waldrop.

The fireman said he'd been creeping through the residence on all fours, to avoid as much smoke as possible—and he ran smack into a gaping-mouthed bear.

Mrs. Waldrop is a taxidermist. Classified Ads Bring Results.
