YOUNG PEOPLE GO TO PILGRIM LEADERS MEET

Twelve young people, along with their minister, will leave Sunday immediately after the morning service to attend the Pilgrim Conference Leadership Training school at Camp Adams near Molalla, Ore. The state Congregational conference owns a beautiful camp site of 260 acres of wooded hillsides and pasture land in this area. Since its purchase six years ago many buildings have been erected on the property so that today it is one of the best equipped young people camps in the state.

This year the young people of the Evangelical-Reformed churches of Washington, Oregon and Idaho will join the young people from the Congregational churches of Oregon for this camp. These churches in their national bodies are looking toward a merger in the near future.

Camp begins on Monday, July 26, and closes on Sunday, August 1.

Following is a list of the young people who will attend from Klamath Falls:

Juanita Shinn, Karen Hardin, Marcellyn Wiggins, Sharon Willis, Edna Renner, and Maxine Hardin as a counselor.

John Stone, Jack Lust, Gene Stivers, Al King, Leonard Harvey and Harry Tindall.

First Christian Church

The Bible school under the leadership of Stanley Kendall as superintendent meets at the hour of 9:45 a. m. There are individual class rooms with competent teachers for each class. You will find here a pleasant and profitable hour of Bible study. New members are always most cordially welcomed.

The worship hour is at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Gerald Wickersham is the organist. The service opens with the organ prelude and the congregation singing, "Gloria Patri." The invocation and the choir response, Hymn, "Come, Thou Almighty King." Scripture lesson by the minister. Communion hymn, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" followed by the observance of the Lord's Supper. Prayer of dedication for the tithes and offerings by one of the elders. Hymn, "Yield Not to Temptation." Sermon, "At the Cross Roads" or "Which Way Shall We Take?" Opportunity is always given for people to become members of the church either by confession and baptism or by transfer of membership. The service closes with the invitation hymn, "When We Walk with the Lord," and the benediction followed by "God Be With You." Postlude by the organist.

The evening services begin with the Christian Endeavor meetings, junior and high school. Young people of these ages are cordially invited. The evangelistic service is at 8 o'clock. Begins with the song service. An evening communion for those unable to attend the morning worship hour. Another one of those services where the audience will participate, "The American Attitude Toward Other Nations" will be the main topic for discussion.

You are most cordially invited to worship with us.

Modoc Point Baptist Mission

Sunday school, 10 a. m. Morning service, 11:15 a. m.

Sunday school is getting more interesting in the opening exercise from week to week, and Mrs. Zell will have another one of those very interesting illustrated stories for the opening this morning. The studies in the different classes are getting more interesting as we go along. The different classes are growing each day.

During the worship service the topic will be "What is Heaven, and Who is Going There." There are three different heavens in the Bible, which is the true Heaven? Who is going there? And what will they see when they get there? These different questions will be answered this morning.

Last Sunday we said that we would tell where it was, but that is almost impossible to do, but we will try to do the best that we can.

Everybody is cordially invited and we will be looking for you in the schoolhouse. Will you be there?

First Church of Christ Scientist

Tenth and Washington streets. This church, a branch of The Mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Mass., holds services each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

"Truth will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 25.

The Golden Text will be "It is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth" (1 John 5:8).

Among the citations which will comprise the Lesson-Sermon will be the following from the Bible: "Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered" (Ps. 40:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also will include the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To seek Truth through belief in a human doctrine is not to understand the infinite. We must not seek the immutable and immortal through the finite, mutable, and mortal and so depend upon belief instead of demonstration, for this is fatal to a knowledge of Science. The understanding of Truth gives full faith in Truth, and spiritual understanding is better than all burnt offerings" (p. 286).

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. A meeting which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing is held every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A free Christian Science reading room is located at 1023 Main street, where the Bible, writings by Mary Baker Eddy, and authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.
