Tam O'Shanter Golf Circus Has Everything — Joe Louis, Three Tourneys War Stamps, Prizes

By CHARLES DUNKLEY

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—The super-duper golfing triple-header at Tam O'Shanter is on the way of setting fabulous records.

The spectacle is attracting the biggest assemblage of spectators in the history of the ancient Scottish game, and also figures to result in the greatest war-stamp selling drive credited to any sport.

To date more than $400,000 in war bonds have been sold, with three more days to go. The goal is $1,000,000 in bonds and $100,000 in war stamps.

Admission to this amazing carnival is $1 or more in war stamps — which the purchaser retains. The total attendance may reach 75,000 to 100,000.

This circus-like event is gold on a stupendous scale. It is three tournaments in one, lasting a full week, where the best amateurs, professional and women players now available can be seen at one and the same time, and on the same course, in competition for $12,000 in cash and bonds.

Thrown in for good measure is the world's heavyweight boxing champion, Sgt. Joe Louis, playing as a legitimate entrant and not as a sideshow attraction. Everything is all-American—the all-American open, amateur and women's.

Here's how the top leaders stood today at tee-off time:

All-American open (start of second round).

70—Willie Goggin, White Plains, N. Y.; Terl Johnson, Norristown, Pa., and Bob Hamilton, Evansville, Ind.

All-American Amateur (36-hole semi-final matches):

John Donohue, Jr., Sioux City, Ia., vs. Frank Kovack, Chicago; Bob Cochran, St. Louis, Mo., vs. Dale Morey, Indianapolis, Ind.

All-American Women's (start of second round):

77—Patty Berg, Minneapolis, Minn.

79—Betty Hicks, Long Beach, Calif., and Kay Byrne, Rye, N.Y.

81—Jeanne Cline, Bloomington, Ill.

Illini Silenced On Army Trainee Grid Playing

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., July 23 (AP) Once and for all they've silenced that moaning on the University of Illinois campus about "What a football team we'd have if only the army would let its trainees here play on the team." The university physical education department queried all 1750 of the army boys and found—only five had ever played college football.

P. S.—One of the five is Bob Shaw, Ohio State's great end last year.

Paul Blugard Enters Net Semi-Finals

Only Out of Town Entrant In Washington Tennis Go Meets Loquvam of Seattle

SEATTLE, July 23 (AP)—Paul Blugard of Portland, only out-of-town entrant remaining in the men's singles division of the Washington state tennis tournament, will meet Henry Loquvam of Seattle in the semi-final round.

Blugard, Oregon state champion, yesterday eliminated John Shea of Los Angeles, 6-0, 4-6, 6-3, while Loquvam defeated Fred Fischer, Seattle, 6 2, 6-3.

In junior singles, Bill Drummond, Portland, defeated Jay Rutledge, Oakland, 6-2, 7-5, to go into the semi-finals against Fisher, who beat Wally Bostick, Seattle, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2.

Ken Clegg moved into the men's semi-finals by defeating Jack Lowe, Seattle, 6-2, 6-3.

The veteran Mel Dranga is slated to play Lieut. Tom Todd today for the other semi-finals spot.

Women's quarter final results included:

Lorraine Rhoades, Portland, defeated Martha Slade, Seattle, 8-6, 6-3.

Marie Chartrand, Seattle, defeated Antoinette Guhlke, Portland, 6-8, 7-5, 6-4.

In boys' singles, Gil Shea, Los Angeles, moved into the finals with a 6-4, 6-1 victory over John Sword, Seattle.

Armstrong, Silva To Complete Bout Training in Spokane

SPOKANE, July 23 (AP)—Henry Armstrong and Joey Silva, of Mexico, will arrive here August 11 to complete training for their boxing bout August 14.

Silva, who started fighting in 1938, has battled such outstanding ring performers as Lou Ambers, Joey Archibald, Chalky Wright, Beau Jack and Willie Pep.

NEW YORK, July 23 (AP) — Proving both that he is literate and that he knows a good idea when he sees one, Willie Gilzenberg, Tony Galento's manager, comes through with a letter just like the ones Jimmy Johnston writes. . . . Willie takes this way of accepting a challenge from Jimmy's heavyweight, Freddie Fiducia, so there's ground for suspicion that Johnston helped write the letter. . . . "Everyone challenges Galento, even wrestlers," moans Gilzenberg's typewriter. . . . "Yet few fight him, or agree to do so. They ought to leave the poor fellow alone. He's obese, he's squeaking, he can't lift his hands and he can't move." . . . Agreeing with all those statements, we're perfectly willing to leave Tony alone, but for one fact that Willie points out: "T. G. does all right—to the extent of a grand note a week—as a master exhibitionist."

OFF HIS BASE

During the Cubs' recent eastern swing Lou Novikoff swung at a bad pitch, somewhere around his right ear, and drove it to the outfield for a single. . . . As he stopped at first, one of the umps told him: "Don't ever yell at me the next time I call that kind of a pitch a high strike on you or I'll chase you out of the game."

Boston Braves May All Be Cripples Before St. Louis

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Manager Casey Stengel of the Boston Braves will have company in his crutches-walking tours when he takes his team to St. Louis tomorrow. For his first baseman, John McCarthy, suffered an "incomplete fracture" of his right ankle bone in yesterday's first game against the Chicago Cubs.

Stengel suffered a broken leg early this season when hit by an automobile.

Red Birds Chirp Over Bad Pitching Injuries

No Sympathy for Champs Now Leading Nationals by Margin of Five Games

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Some plaintive chirping has been coming from the nest of the St. Louis Cardinals in recent days because of their stricken pitching staff, which has been badly maimed by injuries and calls to the service.

But their National league rivals probably will be slow to show any sympathy for the world champions, who have just won four games in a row and increased their first place margin to 5½ games.

The Cardinals came up with another victory over the New York Giants last night 6-2 with big Mort Cooper acquiring his 13th victory against five defeats by pitching eight-hit ball and holding the Giants scoreless after the first inning.

George (Whitey) Kurowski hit a homer with two aboard in the first and Ray Sanders added another round-tripper in the sixth.

The cause of the Cardinals was helped at Cincinnati as Bucky Walters shut out the Brooklyn Dodgers 5-0 on three hits to get his fifth victory, a prize he has been seeking since June 11.

The Dodgers' grip on second place was left unshaken, however, because the Philadelphia Phillies bounced off the floor to wallop the third-place Pittsburgh Pirates 3-0 and 9-6 in a doubleheader.

The Boston Braves, who had not beat the Chicago Cubs all season, also turned the tables with a double victory 8-6 and 3-2.

In the American league the New York Yankees out-walloped the St. Louis Browns to win 9-5 with Charley (King Kong) Keller hitting his 12th homer with two on for the Yanks and Vern Stephens getting his 14th with one on for the Browns.

Detroit downed the Washington Senators twice in a twilight-night doubleheader 7-5 and 1-0. Rudy York's 13th home run and second in two nights came with two on in the sixth inning to win the first game.

Cleveland was outhit 7-5 but managed to beat the Philadelphia Athletics 2-1 by scoring twice in the fifth. Jim Bagby smothered the A's after they had scored once in the first.

Chicago at Boston was postponed.

Weekend Fishing Prospects

PORTLAND, July 23 (AP)—Fishermen should have better luck in waters of eastern and coastal Oregon than in the Willamette valley this weekend, the state game commission's weekly bulletin indicated today.

Reports by counties:

Lane— Best angling in McKenzie and Willamette river. Lakes only fair. Siuslaw salmon run has not started.

Coos—Blueback run on in Coquille river. Other streams and lakes fair.

Curry—Rogue river better for trout and salmon but fishing generally only fair.

Lincoln— Alsea, Siletz and Salmon rivers yielding bluebacks. Trout are being taken from all streams on flies.

Tillamook— Several good catches of large trout reported with flies giving best results.

Jackson— Rogue good for trout, fair for salmon.

Wasco— Deschutes yielding fair catches on flies and bait. Lower White river and Lower Badger creek best of small streams.

Klamath— Trollers report many limits from Upper Klamath and Agency lakes. Odell and Crescent lakes good for fly fishing. Sprague river yielding good catches on bait.

Grant— Limits taken from John Day, John Day South Fork and North Fork of Malheur. Other streams and lakes fair.

Lake—All streams and lakes fair.

UNHAPPY HOLE IN ONE

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., July 23 (AP)—Claude Hersch drove his tee shot 120 yards, straight into the cup on the 16th green at El Camino.

He wasn't quite happy about it, though.

He'd already driven one ball into a ravine. His hole-in-one gave him a score of three.

First Coast Teams Bow To Seconds

Rainiers Fall to Stars 3-2; Ducks Lose to Oaks 2-1; Padres Down Seals 3-2

By The Associated Press

The Coast league first division, with the exception of the Los Angeles Angels, who were idle, put on a tumbling act yesterday, Portland, Seattle and San Francisco all bowing to the bats of second division rivals. The Los Angeles-Sacramento game was postponed.

Wildness on the part of Joe Demoran cost the Rainiers their contest with the Hollywood Stars by a 3-2 score.

The Stars scored first on a homer in the fourth by John Dickshot. Seattle tied it up in the fifth on two singles and an error.

In the seventh, however, Demoran gave up two hits, hit a batter and walked in a run with the bases loaded to give the Stars two runs for the inning.

Bill Matheson's homer for Seattle in the last half of the inning couldn't close the gap.

Portland lost a 2-1 decision to Oakland when the Oaks counted twice in the last inning to spoil a two-hit shutout for Portland's Pitcher Cook.

In that inning Scarsella singled and went to third on Devincenzi's double. Bell struck out but Caufield singled home the tieing and winning runs before Portland could shut the door with a double play.

San Diego downed San Francisco 3 to 2, although the Seals had rallied for their two runs in the ninth inning and had the tieing run on base when a double play put out the fire.

Pelican Ball Machine to Wheel Again

Pro, Semi-Pro Players to Meet in Baseball Conflict Between Klamath, Medford

By VIRGIL GROSS

Led by peppery Manager Frank Ramsey, the Pelican baseball machine will again start rolling after a week's layoff, when they journey this Sunday into the valley to tackle the strong Medford Craters, a former Oregon State league member.

Both teams have many outstanding semi-pro players, and the Craters alone boast two ex-professional stars which should be a highlight in Sunday's encounter. The Pelicans will undoubtedly be seeking revenge for several last year setbacks, so a close game is expected.

Probable mound rivals will be Jim Snyder, newly acquired Pelican southpaw artist, opposing Bob Hardy of the Craters. Hardy was with the Portland Beavers of the Coast league at the start of this season, but an old arm injury prevented his playing. He was formerly a University of Oregon pitching star, and played with Beaumont of the Texas league in 1942.

Another former professional star on the Crater roster is hard hitting Jim Ball who performed for the Vancouver Capilanos of the Western International league in 1942. Ball is a catcher and should provide a majority of the stick work for the Craters.

Leading Pelican hitters in games played to date include Floyd Shipman, Romo Crespi, Hi "Schaact" Hatfield and Red Milhorn. All of these boys are in the .300 or better class, and may be counted on to supply the main Pelican offensive punch.

Ab Cox of the Camp Newell army team, having been contacted by Pelican Business Manager Pete Lesmeister, will make the trip to Medford. Cox has been playing a great brand of shortstop for the army team, and should be of great help to the Pelicans in their Sunday encounter.

Last year's pitching ace Virgil Haines, has recovered from a tonsilectomy operation and may be ready for mound duty.

Pelican Second Baseman Scotty Smith will be playing his last game before leaving for the marines. Many baseball fans from Klamath Falls are expected to see Scotty in his farewell appearance.

Game time is set for 2 p. m with the players leaving early Sunday morning from Klamath Falls.

Big Kitty in Armstrong, Joyce Battle

HOLLYWOOD, July 23 (AP)—They're predicting $75,000 will be in the kitty tomorrow when Henry Armstrong trades punches at Gilmore field with Gary, Indiana dusky ghost, weaving Willie Joyce.

That's all right with Hammerin' Hank, too. It will swell to a comfortable figure the Los Angeles negro has amassed since he hit the comeback trail about a year ago. He has been guaranteed $7500 with an option of 35 per cent of the gate, with Joyce taking 25 per cent.

More important to him is whether he can reverse the 10-round decision Joyce scored against him early this spring.

Two Coaches Eyed For Spec Keene Job at Willamette

SALEM, July 23 (AP)—Willamette university campus circulated reports today that Joe Kasberger, coach at St. Benedict's Prep school, Newark, N. J., and Bob Mathews, Portland university coach, were being considered as successors to Coach Spec Keene.

Keene, 17-year-old veteran on the Willamette campus, is entering the navy.

Mathews, who once coached football at the University of Idaho, refused to comment on the report when contacted in Portland.

Kasberger is a graduate of Oregon State college and during summers makes his home at The Dalles.

Virgil Gross, top, former Western International league catcher and at present doubling at third base and catcher's spot for the Pelicans, is one of the leading hitters, with a batting average of around .400. Gross has played with the Pelicans for two years. Hi Hatfield, lower right, Pelican centerfielder, is now hitting a steady clip of near .400. Hi led the Pelicans in homeruns last year. Red Melhorn, lower left, is a first year man with the team but tops hitting averages with .500.

Oregon Sport Notes

By FRED HAMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Without going into that threadbare subject—did Jimmy Garrison deserve a draw decision with Rudolfo Ramirez in their welterweight battle in Portland last week?—we can't get rid of a feeling that the projected bout between Garrison and Henry Armstrong is going to be considerable of an ordeal for Jimmy.

Whether Ramirez deserved to win or not, there is no disputing that he gave Garrison a fancy messing up. Garrison is susceptible to messings up. Even when he wins he takes many scars away with him.

And you know what Henry the Hammer does to guys like that.

Ramirez flatted Jimmy's already recumbent nose, split open one eyebrow, puffed his lips and severely cut the inside of his mouth principally with a sharp left hand. Old perpetual motion Henry works with both hands and very seldom calls a recess.

This is not to say that Garrison didn't put up a swell fight against Ramirez or that he won't fight like a Tropan against Armstrong. We have no doubts at all that he will. But he chops up too easily. And Henry has no parallel as a chopper.

The pitcher drawing the fattest money nowadays is not in the major leagues or even in organized baseball. Latest estimates are that Satch Paige, the long and limber negro deceiver, is taking in around $40,000 a season. At 36 Satch drew a crowd of 22,000 paid customers in New York recently.

Leo Lomski, the one-time Aberdeen assassin who once had Light-heavyweight Champion Tommy Loughran on the floor twice in one round and missed the title through over-anxiousness, has joined the merchant marine.

Fred Zimmerman of the Salem Capital Journal informally nominates Howar Maple, former assistant, as successor to Coach Spec Keene at Willamette. Keene stepped out to enter the navy. Maple is running a sporting goods store in Salem now and might not be able to shoulder all the job. If not, Zim suggests he coach football.

Angel Righthanders Lead Pacific Coast Pitchers

LOS ANGELES, July 23 (AP) Jodie Phipps and Red Lynn, Los Angeles righthanders, continue to lead the Pacific Coast pitchers, with 27 victories between them.

Phipps is the nominal leader with 12 wins and only one defeat, but Lynn had won more games than any other hurler in the circuit, 15, against four defeats.

The veteran Manager Charley Root of Hollywood and San Francisco's Tom Seats are next in line with 10 decisions and three losses.

The strikeout laurels remain with San Diego's Frankie Dasso. He has won nine and lost six but has whiffed 130 batters. Ad Liska of Portland is next in line with 84 strikeouts.
