

TULE ROTARY WILL ASSIST COMMANDOS

TULELAKE — Tulelake Rotarians have a weighty civic program up their sleeves that will be developed in the next few months. Discussion at this week's meeting set the ball rolling to assist the Klamath Falls Commandos in bringing wounded service men to the Klamath basin for a few days recreation.

Included also among the projects is erection of a plaque upon which will be placed the names of all service men from the Tulelake community and the probable sponsoring of a drive for purchase of a fighter plane early in the fall.

The club will be host next Monday, July 26, to 12 service men guests of the Commandos. The entertainment will include a fried chicken dinner in the Lava Beds monument. A number of the Commandos and their Commando mother, Mrs. Louis Serruys, will also be guests. The guests will be taken on a tour of the Tulelake country. Don Fisher, superintendent of the monument, has been asked to serve as chairman for the entertainment of the men with Clark W. Fensler to be responsible for transportation. Fensler will take one of his school buses to Klamath Falls. Assisting also will be Mayor A. A. Rodenberger, Karl Gentry and R. M. Prior.

Gentry, Rodenberger and Ralph Faucett were appointed by President Fred E. McMurphy to survey a possible site for the plaque and Louis Booth will head the committee on the drive for the fighter plane.

McMurphy appointed standing committees this week as follows:

Community service — Karl Gentry, chairman, A. A. Rodenberger, Ralph Faucett.

Attendance and membership — Earl Ager, chairman, Otis Roper, R. M. Prior.

Youth — Fred Engle, chairman, Don Fisher, E. Webb Staunton.

Public information — Verne Hemstreet, chairman, Charles K. Weise, Howard Dayton.

Entertainment — Floyd A. Boyd, chairman, O. A. Schultz, W. H. Anderson.

Hemstreet will also serve as secretary succeeding Jerome Keefer who resigned before leaving for the south to make his home. George Fisher will serve as sergeant-at-arms and Jerry Gresham as pianist.

The club has under discussions also the building of a shelter on the highway at Tulelake for a service men's shelter where enlisted men may stop who seek rides to Klamath Falls or other valley points. The building will be lighted at night and a banner will read "Give the boys a ride." P. C. Bergman, retiring president of the club, will supervise plans for it.

Arnold Gralapp, superintendent of Klamath Falls city schools was the guest speaker Wednesday. He was introduced by Rev. Hugh L. Bronson, program chairman. Mr. Gralapp spoke on the training program planned for high school boys of the future and on post-war readjustment of some 20 million people who must be absorbed into normal channels of living.

Police Search for "Best Man" in Jewel Robbery

PORTLAND, July 24 (AP) — Portland police searched today for a young man who scammed out of a jewelry store with a $200 diamond ring.

The proprietor said the young man and a companion had asked to see rings, introducing themselves as a "prospective bridegroom and the best man."

The "prospective bridegroom" is booked at the city jail as Edward Neerman, 22.

Our contention is that a man shouldn't wear a cane till he's 70 and spats till he's twice that old.
