Daughters Hold Meet

Catholic Women Plan For Summer Meetings and Installation

On Monday evening, July the twelfth, the Catholic Daughters of America held their regular monthly business meeting. During the summer months the social and business meetings will be combined, so the next regular meeting will be held on August the ninth, at which time plans will be made for the annual summer picnic.

It was announced at this time that installation of officers will be held at the first meeting in September. Mrs. Ann McDonald and Mrs. Florence Pickett were reported to be improving from their recent illnesses. The budget committee, composed of Mrs. Violet Pieser, Mrs. Theresa Doveri, Mrs. Agnes LaLonde and Mrs. Mildred Smith presented the budget for the coming year and it was approved by the court. A welcome visitor to the meeting was Father Peter Duignan.

After the business meeting refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Nora O'Connor, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Violet O'Connor, Mrs. Katherine Bruner and Mrs. Freda Newman. Mrs. Rose Poole of the Red Cross spoke about the bond drive to be sponsored jointly by the Catholic Daughters and the Sojourner's club.

On Monday evening a half-hour of music and short talks was given over the radio in behalf of the bond drive. Fort Klamath court of the Catholic Daughters of America wishes to thank the following members who put over the drive and all those who helped in any way: Mrs. Mildred Smith, who was in charge of the radio program, assisted by Mary O'Connor, Mrs. Laurette Bryant, who spoke, and Mrs. Azita Kennedy; Mrs. Gwendolyn Miller, Mrs. Rose Igl, Mrs. Wilma Rutledge, Mrs. Agnes LaLonde and Mrs. Ellen Ely who served on the pledge committee.

This drive was considered one of the most successful this month and was made possible by the full cooperation of all the members of the court and their friends who helped so generously.

Shirley Overson To Wed in August

Informal Shower Given for Bride-Elect by Friends On Monday, July 12

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Overson of 1520 Dayton street recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Shirley, to Mr. William M. Hairell Jr. of this city. The ceremony will be read on August the eighth at the home of the bride-elect.

Miss Overson is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1941.

On Monday evening, July the twelfth, the bride-elect was honored at an unusual shower given by Mrs. Charles Ringette and Mrs. Orris Willard in the stockroom of the Lee Hendricks drug store, where Miss Overson is employed.

A section of shelves had been cleared of merchandise and decorated to resemble a kitchen window with tie-back curtains of ruffled white crepe paper.

Two flower shelves in the "window", covered with fluted white shelf paper, displayed the gifts, while on the wide lower shelf, a red and white peasant cloth was the background for the refreshments, which were arranged about the crystal punch bowl. Red leather and chrome chairs were placed in an informal semicircle about the "window" to seat the guests.

Those who honored Miss Overson were Mrs. Anna Ables, Mrs. Marie Wallan, Mrs. Gladys Herriot, Mrs. Ralph Benoit, Mrs. Earl Klawitter, Barbara Buchanan, Anna Hyde, Geraldine Won-
