

WHEATMEN CAN BORROW MORE ON 1943 CROP

CORVALLIS, July 23 (AP)—Oregon wheatmen can borrow an average of 10 cents more per bushel on 1943 wheat than on last year's crop, the state AAA office revealed last night.

Loan rate for barley and rye are 20 cents a bushel higher than a year ago. The schedule of loans covers 27 counties.

Loan programs on flaxseed and on 22 hay and pasture seed crops are offered for the first time, the commodity credit corporation said.

Barley, rye and hay and pasture seed crop loan values will be uniform throughout the state. The rate for farm-stored barley is 80 cents a bushel of 48 pounds for No. 1 barley, 78 cents for No. 2, 75 cents for No. 3, 72 cents for No. 4 and 65 cents for No. 5.

Rye stored on the farm and grading No. 2 or better or No. 3 solely on the factor of test weight but otherwise grading No. 2 will have a loan value of 80 cents a bushel.

Eligible hay and pasture seed crops include ladino clover at $1 a pound loan rate, common alfalfa at 30 cents and certified alfalfa at 37 cents.

Seven cents a bushel storage allowance will be advanced to growers on all farm stored wheat and flaxseed. Flaxseed loan rates will be determined by deducting freight and handling charges from Portland to the county where the flax is in storage from the Portland basic rate of $2.85 a bushel.

Wheat growers who have planted within 1943 acreage allotments or have planted up to 90 per cent of the 1943 war crop will be eligible for loans on their 1942 wheat production. Planting 90 per cent of the farm's war crop goal is the only requirement for eligibility for loans on rye, barley, flaxseed and hay and pasture seed crops.

Four classes and varieties of wheat are included in the basic loan values. Following is the schedule for No. 1 soft white and No. 1 western white containing not more than 5 per cent red and for No. 1 white club. Loan values are 4 cents a bushel less for No. 1 of white and No. 1 western white containing more than 5 per cent red and for No. 1 hard winter, No. 1 red winter and No. 1 western red. For specified No. 1 hard wheats—hard federation, white federation, Baart and bluestem grading hard wheat, and northern spring—the rates are 4 cents a bushel higher than the following schedule: (rates are given in cents per bushel):

- Deschutes—Bend, Deschutes, Redmond and Terrebonne, 119.9.
- Jackson—Ashland and Medford, 116.1; Central Point, 116.2.
- Jefferson—Gateway, 121.7; Madras and other county points, 121.1.
- Josephine—Grants Pass, 116.2.
- Klamath—Pine Ridge and Chiloquin, 116.8; Dairy, 115.6; Klamath Falls and other county points, 116.1.

Shot Seven Times Then Left for Dead, American Private Stumbles to Lines

By STEPHEN BARBER

CAIRO, July 24 (AP)—A story of how he was captured by the Italians in Sicily, shot seven times and left for dead, and yet escaped and made his way back to the American lines, was told today by Private Michael Scambulluri of Albany, N. Y., a parachute trooper who is recovering in an allied base hospital in the Middle East.

Scambulluri landed in an area alive with enemy troops and was surrounded and captured before he could join his mates.

"The Italians took me to town and stripped me of everything I had, including food," he said. "I was led to a captain's office in the troop barracks and asked a lot of questions about how many soldiers had been landed and what kind of arms we carried."

"I told them only my name, grade and serial number and refused all other information. When I spoke to the captain in Italian, asking the name of the town, he became enraged and accused me of being a spy. He ordered my hands tied behind my back and I was led out of the barracks and stood against a wall in the courtyard."

"It looked as though they were going to begin some rough stuff. I wasn't far wrong. The captain walked about 20 feet away from me, took out his revolver and fired one shot at me."

"All hell seemed to burn inside of me and I collapsed. The captain continued firing at me, pouring six more shots into me as I lay there on the ground. I was moaning and did not know what to do, but did know that I was not hurt in any vital spot."

Scambulluri said a soldier, apparently dissatisfied with his captain's work, lobbed two hand grenades in his direction, the force of which spun him around completely. He added, however, that he was still conscious when he heard the captain give orders for his burial the following morning. "I heard the group walk away," he continued, "and when it got quiet I wiggled to a tree about 20 feet away and worked myself to my feet. I don't know where I got the strength, but I managed to get out of the place and across the fields into some nearby woods."

At dawn he was found by a group of civilians, who ran to him crying, "Peace. Peace." They helped him to where the American soldiers were advancing. But that wasn't the end of Scambulluri's story. After he was placed aboard a hospital ship it was bombed and sunk at its moorings. Later another hospital ship brought him to safety.

Beauty IS YOUR DUTY

By RITA WHISENANT

"I've heard so many women remark, 'If I could just do something so I'd feel that I really had a part in the war effort. Because of the children, you know...' And there must be thousands of women here who have their hands full, and have perfectly logical reasons for not doing some extra, outside job."

NOBODY expects them to take up nursing or join the WACs, but there IS something that every single woman in Klamath can take part in right now. The Business and Professional Women and Soroptimists, who are handling the Bond drive this month, have just announced a plan for every woman to take part... and a chance to get on the Roll of Honor.

ANY woman who turns in signed applications (with check or cash) for $200 worth of E War Bonds will have her name published on the Roll of Honor. You can phone Judith Brown, 5193, at the war savings department of the chamber of commerce, for particulars.

THAT shouldn't be too hard to do, if you'll just ASK people. And it's a real patriotic duty, because we sure do need the bonds this coming week.

I'VE been saying that cosmetics build your morale—well, here's something that really builds morale, too.

SWIM, JUNIOR POLICE CAMP PROGRAM TOLD

Boys and girls who wish to attend the Junior Police camp August 8-22 are urged by Dave Bridge, recreational director, to register, pay their fee of $6.50, and turn in their food stamps as soon as possible at the recreation office in the city hall. There are some preparations and plans which cannot be made until it is known how many expect to attend. Hundreds of boys and girls have enjoyed these outings in years past and, it is hoped, many will again take advantage of the camping, fishing, swimming, hiking and boating pleasures it offers.

The swimming program continues to attract youngsters of the city and its suburbs. This week an average of 183 children a day swam at the pool. Since the opening date, July 7, 2279 fees have been paid in for swims.

We've Advised Against Hoarding!

The picture is ridiculous, of course, but that WOULD be the picture if you had started hoarding clothes a few years back.

There IS one kind of hoarding that has good results. We're talking about War Bonds. It's plain common-sense to save up now, through War Bonds, so you will have a sizeable nest-egg for the things you'll need when the war is over. And of course, the faster we get equipment for action, the sooner it WILL be over.

KEEP HOARDING WAR BONDS EVERY PAY DAY!
