Haegg Fools Around Four Minute Mile

Gunder Turns in 4:05.3 at Harvard Sunday; Pacing Machine May Do Trick

By TED MEIER NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—Gunder Haegg, who set an American outdoor record for the mile of 4:05.3 at Harvard stadium Saturday, could turn in that much-discussed four-minute mile if he ran with a pacing machine.

That is the considered opinion of Lawson Robertson, famous University of Pennsylvania and Olympic team track coach. A pacing machine is similar to the rabbit that runs at dog tracks. It is a mechanical with a clock arrangement and the dummy of a man revolving around the curb of the track.

"I saw a picture of one in England," explained Robbie. "You could simply set the clock for a four-minute mile and I believe a man of Haegg's speed and strength could keep up with it. I think he could do it at Franklin field where the Penn relays are run."

In their prime Robertson thinks that Glenn Cunningham, whose mile record Haegg shattered, and Ben Eastman, of Stanford, could have run a four-minute mile with proper pacing. Eastman, a great half and quarter mile 10 years ago, could have "flashed across the line in four minutes or less if he had seriously trained for the event," Robbie asserted. "He had great speed and worlds of endurance."

Sacramento Ball Team Safe Until After War's End

SPOKANE, July 26 (AP)—No change in the status of the Pacific Coast league franchise now held at Sacramento is contemplated until after the war, Sam Bredon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, owners of the franchise, has written Spokane sports writers.

There has been much discussion here and at Tacoma of moving the franchise to one of those cities in anticipation of bigger crowds.

"We have been very much disappointed in the attendance at Sacramento since we have been there," Bredon wrote. "We have operated in Sacramento for eight years and in only two of those was the attendance anything like what an AA club should draw."

"Last year we won the Pacific Coast league pennant and lost a good deal of money," Bredon said. The Cardinals would continue to have a contending club in the Coast circuit.

$100,000,000 IN BETS

NEW YORK—Mutual betting at New York tracks passed the $100,000,000 mark at the Empire meeting at Jamaica, 31 days earlier than last year.

Over in the American league, meantime, the Yankees hoisted their lead to seven full games by splitting with the Chicago White Sox. The Sox squeaked through in the opener 2-1 on Thurman Tucker's ninth inning homer, while the Bombers hit the jackpot 6-3 in the afterpiece, in which they handed Orval Grove his first defeat of the year.

The second place Detroit Tigers dumped Philadelphia 5-0 in their first game, behind Dizzy Trout's five-hit flinging, but the Athletics came back for a 3-1 edge in the second tussle, although held to two hits by Johnny Gorsica. The Boston Red Sox belted the Brownies twice—7-0, as Tex Hughson turned in win No. 12 with a three-hitter, and 6-4 as Bobby Doerr hit his fourth homer in four playing days. Vernon Kennedy's seven-hitter gave Cleveland an 8-2 win over the Washington Senators in their curtain-raiser, but the Nats went on a four-run fourth inning spree to take the nightcap 7-2.

The New York Giants' losing run reached seven straight as the Chicago Cubs clouted the Coogan Bluffers twice by 2-0.

David M. Hoffman, OPA mileage attorney, told Hunt the Maharajah had been granted a C ration book for "official business within the city of Los Angeles," but used the car for his Reno trip.

Pelicans Shellacked by Medford Nine, 26 to 8

Lack of Pitching Strength May Force Local Club to Disband for Season

By PETE LESMEISTER The trek of the Pelican ball club to Medford Sunday was anything but profitable, in fact the locals were handed one of the most thorough shellackings on record. The Craters, bolstered by some army talent, laced out 27 hits good for 26 runs while the Pelicans scored eight times on 14 hits.

The old story that good pitching is about 75 per cent of a baseball team was never more true. Jim Snider, left-hander on whom the locals had pinned their hopes, left town to accept a job in the state of Washington and Virgil Haynes was unable to make the trip. Hi Hatfield, despite a leg injury, volunteered for mound duty but four Crater hits and an equal number of bases on balls which turned into seven runs in the first inning, forced Manager Ramsey to call on Aldo Bellotti who stayed in the box with varied results through part of the seventh. Third Baseman Cox, MP from Camp Newell, finished the game.

Meanwhile Hank Neumann was pitching effective ball for the Craters and turning back the Pelicans with monotonous regularity. "Old Man" Steve Crippen essayed to lumber up his creaking arm in the first of the 8th and had five hits and five runs charged against him.

Lack of pitching strength and inability to book sufficient games may force the club to disband for the season.
