

EXTENSION COMMITTEE HAS PICNIC

The Klamath county home extension committee held a picnic meeting at the country home of Mrs. A. R. Dickson Friday noon. Officers who were elected for the 1943-4 year were chairman, Mrs. W. S. Metler, Altamont; vice-chairman, Mrs. S. A. Barnum, Bonanza, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Earl Mack, Henley.

A state council meeting, which was held in Corvallis early in June, was reported by Mrs. A. R. Dickson, Mrs. S. A. Barnum and Mrs. W. B. Bickers. The state council research committee is requesting suggested topics for research in human nutrition which are problems in various counties in Oregon. The Klamath county committee is requesting research on calcium and other mineral content of vegetables and milk in Klamath county, best method of canning for retention of vitamin C in tomatoes and strawberries; vitamin A value and vitamin C value of dried peas, beans, spinach and corn and the best program for adequate consumption of vitamin C in Klamath county where tomatoes are not too plentiful.

Standard unit requirements have been changed for this year and will be announced at the officers' training meeting, which will be held on September 3 in the First Methodist church parlors.

The following program, which was selected by representatives of the county home extension units at the program planning day in May was outlined by Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent.

Rally meetings will be held in September, and the October meeting will be "Women and the Law," a discussion led by local lawyers in all of the extension units. Other meetings to be held this year are "Fresh Vegetable Cookery to Save Blue Points;" "The Use of Milk, Eggs and Cheese on the Farm;" "Dress Pattern Alteration;" "Mending Tips;" "Outlook On Life;" and "Simple Furniture Repair."

Any homemaker is eligible for membership in the home extension units and is cordially invited to participate. At present there are extension units organized in the following communities: Altamont, Bly, Bonanza, Chiloquin, Fairhaven, Henley, Shasta, Malin, Merrill, Modoc Point, Poe Valley-Olene, and Weyerhaeuser camp 4.

The present county committee members who attended the picnic meeting were Mrs. Earl Mack, Henley; Mrs. W. S. Metler, Altamont; Mrs. S. A. Barnum, Bonanza; Mrs. Rex High, Poe Valley; Mrs. James Dixon, Bly; Mrs. W. B. Bickers, Modoc Point.

The past committee members who were present are Mrs. Robert Allen, Chiloquin; Mrs. Lee Holliday, Fairhaven; Mrs. A. R. Dickson, Shasta; Mrs. Bert Schultz, Altamont, and Mrs. Fred Fletcher, Klamath Falls.

Others in attendance were Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent, and Mrs. Bess Keil.

Extinct Nylon Hose Bring Big Auction Price

PORTLAND, Ore., July 27 (AP)—A pair of the almost extinct nylon hose brought $5000 at a merchandise war bonds and stamps auction sponsored here yesterday by the Portland retail trade bureau.

The stockings and accompanying $5000 war bond went to Nancy Finkelstein, University of Washington (Seattle) student, as gifts from Papa David F. Finkelstein on her 19th birthday.

Women started the bidding for the rare articles at $3 a pair but men took over at the $12 mark.

A cigarette lighter sold for $4,000 in bonds; an electric kettle for $750; an alarm clock for $500, and a dozen of the Rose City's famous roses for $25.

Pvt. Louis Strauch, Memphis, Tenn., stationed at Camp Adair, Ore., was high bidder at $50 for a pair of rationed shoes.

FSA Officers Visit Klamath to Discuss New Farm Programs

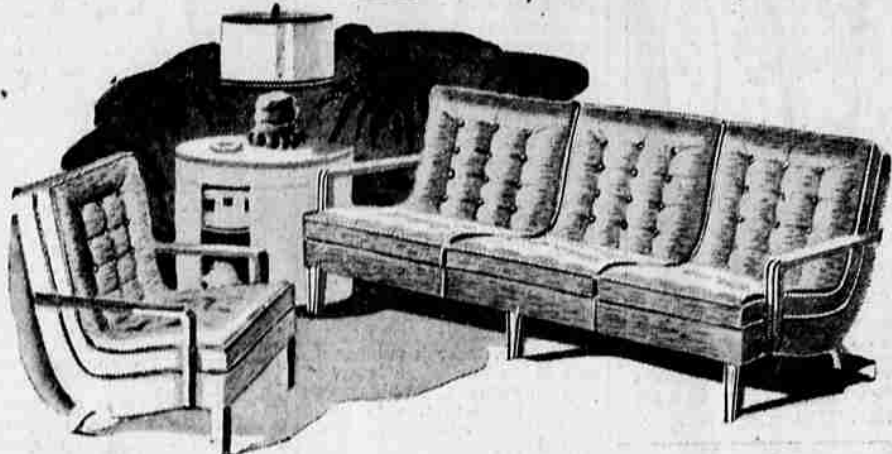

Associate state farm security director, Mrs. Clara Thompson, of Portland, and Phillip W. Farrell, district FSA supervisor from Redmond, were in Klamath Falls last week to discuss new phases in the farm security program for this year, with local officials of FSA.

Earl Gardner is FSA supervisor here, and Marjorie Brinsden is associate supervisor.
