NEW YORK, July 29 (AP)—First reaction here to the Dodgers' announcement that the Phillies had a new manager was that it supported the rumors rampant in Philadelphia that Branch Rickey really is the guy behind the Phils...

Seattleites, Portlanders Grab 'Holts'

Rainiers Beat Oaks 6-5; Ducks Shutout Hollywood On Ad Liska's Pitching
By The Associated Press
Portland and Seattle tightened their holds on third and fourth places yesterday in victories over second division challengers from the southern section of the Coast League.

Seattle's Ed Carnett, in his second appearance since recovering from an injury, cracked out two doubles and two singles in four times up.
At Portland, Ad Liska kept five Hollywood hits well scattered and registered a 2-0 shut-out. The Beavers were able to collect but five blows off two star pitchers, but they bunched them neatly in the first and third innings.

The Los Angeles Angels went 13 1/2 games out in front, splitting a doubleheader with San Diego, 5-0 and 6-7, as Sacramento downed San Francisco 3 to 2.

Da Babe Has Managerial Headaches

Ruth's Combined New York Yankee-Cleveland Indian Squad Loses 11-5 Decision
By CHIP ROYAL
NEW YORK, July 29 (AP)—Babe Ruth came back to Yankee stadium yesterday afternoon, gave the familiar cry of "hi-ya, Keed," and proceeded to become a baseball manager. But after little more than six innings he was a tired ex-athlete looking for an aspirin.

Before the game Ruth actually was nervous and interrupted his locker room visit with Ted Williams, once on the Boston Red Sox but now of the Cloudbusters, by pacing up and down and making numerous checks to see that his famous No. 3 uniform was available.

But with Tommy Byrne's first pitch he was as cool as a dime ice cream cone.
He kept that composure until the sixth when he trundled up to the plate as a pinch-hitter for Pitcher Roy Poat and worked Johnny Sain, former Boston Braves hurler, for a walk after lashing a vicious foul into the stands.

Shaking his head vigorously in opposition to the suggestion that he use a pinch runner, he puffed to second for Oris Hockett's single. There he saw the wisdom of the suggestion and motioned Tuck Stainback from the bench to carry the tally home.

The uprising netted four scores and sent the Yanklands into a temporary 5 to 4 advantage that lasted only until the first half of the seventh when the Flyers landed on Jim Turner for six hits and seven runs.

It was during this debacle that he waddled down the dug-out steps, murmuring "It's time for a shower. Another day, another game and all I got out of this is a headache."

Copycat Phillies Strike for Harris' Honor, Then Clip Red Bird's Wings for Fitz

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer
This is a plea to William D. Cox and his phoolish Phillies to please leave Brooklyn with its Brooklyn accent.
Last night, the Phils even borrowed the Bums' idea of a player-strike.

would strike unless Cox reinstated Harris as manager and gave him a chance to resign.
The Phils gave Harris the heave-o the night before, although Bucky has won 39 games in slightly more than half this season with a club that managed to take only 42 all of last summer.
Faced with a walk-out of practically all his able-bodied hired hands, Cox apologized to Harris before the entire club. He told Bucky the dismissal "is not intended to reflect in any way on your ability as a baseball manager"—which left you wondering just what Bucky was fired for, then.

No Ammunition for Sport, But Plenty for "Pest Control"

WASHINGTON, July 29 (AP)—Standard equipment for hunting this fall should include one conscience.
Blasting away at game just for the heck of it, will be considered unpatriotic. What's more, if that's your idea when you buy shells, keep it to yourself or the hardware clerk is entitled to ring up "no sale."

Baseball at Bullseye Set In War Relief

Half-Million-Dollar Mark Predicted by Landis Now Within Shouting Distance
NEW YORK, July 29 (AP)—Topped off by its biggest jackpot yet, baseball has come within shouting distance of the half-million-dollar war relief bullseye Commissioner K. M. Landis predicted it would hit.

Today, however, some authorities in the war production board (WPB) showed an inclination to qualify that in this way:
Hunters probably will get "limited quantities" of ammunition but not for sport purposes, purely.
They must sternly repress any pleasure and remember they are out to prevent crop damage from too-plentiful numbers of game.

Farmers and ranchers get ammunition at present for "pest control," and just plain hunters probably will be allowed to shoot for somewhat the same reason.
Although huge quantities of hunting-size ammunition is being manufactured, it is absorbed by the army air force and other branches of the military for training gunners.
The WPB is working out a plan so that ammunition can be released for areas where crop damage is impending or existing. A "definite statement" will be made within a week, WPB men promised.

Football Merry-Go-Round Leaves Coaches Unsettled

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, July 29 (AP)—Some 60 football coaches and athletic directors have spent 24 hours listening to speeches on the wartime fate of the gridiron sport—and wound up dizzier than a freshman running through his first T-formation assignments.

State High School Athletic Association Welcomes Portland

PORTLAND, July 29 (AP)—The Oregon State High School Athletic association welcomed Portland's high schools back to its fold today. An appropriation of $750 for annual dues was voted by the Portland school board last night. Portland dropped out when dues were raised from $250 last year.

THE DAY'S SLIPS

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Dolly Briggs told police she pinned $4500 in cash to her slip and laid it on a chair while she bathed. Slip and $4500 were gone when she returned.
Grocer B. A. Dinsmore, in Hollywood, placed a bright half-dollar in his cash register as a decoy—then hid $2335 beneath packages on his shelves. Thieves took the $2335—but left the decoy.

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—Archie Moore, 157, San Diego, knocked out Eddie Cerda, 147, Mexico City (3).

Anticipating another visit to Berlin, where he broke Olympic record in 1936, Capt. Forrest (Spec) Towns hurdles army jeep in North Africa showing how our boys spring at 'em in drive to victory. Former Georgia star holds world 110-meter high hurdle record.

Rodeo Game Rough Life, Says Turk

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 29 (AP)—If it's a rough life that appeals, join the rodeo game.
So observed Turk Greenough of Red Lodge, Mont., husband of Sally Rand and recently of the army. He and other top bronco riders are competing in the rough and tumble Cheyenne Frontier Days.
Greenough, bronco riding king at Cheyenne three times and hoping by Saturday to regain his laurels, said he believed the rodeo game is tougher than army life in this country but not to be compared with overseas warfare.
Rodeo performing may be the country's most battering occupation, but Greenough was emphatic in saying it wouldn't stand up to "what they're doing overseas."
