King Broncs Near End of Rodeo Trail

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 30 (AP)—Champions in any game must fade at last, and it looks like the sundown trail is approaching for little "Five Minutes to Midnight," King bronc of many a rodeo year.

There is no word from his owner that Five Minutes may be retired, but riders at the Cheyenne Frontier Days celebration say there is little doubt but that the sultan of the buck is weakening.

None of them still relish the prospect of a ride on the 20-year-old equine dynamite in the two remaining days of the Cheyenne show, but they think he'll be outshined by at least a couple of newcomers.

His owner, Verne Elliott of Johnstown, Colo., dismisses the retirement reports by saying Five Minutes will be turned out to grass only when it is necessary.

Elliott says he's the greatest bucking horse that ever lived—greater than Midnight, who weighed 1320 pounds, and was champion until he died in 1936. Five To weighs 1060.

Frontier Days performances started their fourth day of the show with $5842 in their jeans to make up for aches and pains. It was money distributed last night, $1820 going to steer ropers; $1395 to calf ropers; $720 to bronc riders, and $687 to riders of Brahma bulls.

Money winners included Jackie Cooper, Newhall, Calif., first in professional bucking, Andy Jaurequi, Newhall, Calif., first in calf roping.

Lou Nova Works Out For Bout With Savold in August

CHICAGO, July 30 (AP)—Lou Nova, the Van Nuys, Calif., heavyweight, resumed workouts today for his 10-round bout with Lee Savold of Paterson, N. J., on August 9, after laying off a day to allow a black eye to heal.

Nova said he got the shiner in a workout Wednesday, but added that "I don't know who was responsible for it."

Sgt. Joe Louis, who is scheduled to return to duty at Fort Riley, Kas., Monday, planned to watch Nova drill today. He has not seen Lou since he knocked out the Yogi man two years ago.

ROY BOUGHT BY SACS

SACRAMENTO, July 30 (AP)—The Sacramento baseball club announced here today it had purchased Jean P. Roy, right-handed pitcher, from Rochester of the International league. He has won two and lost eight with Rochester this season.

FORT BALLMEN WIN

SPOKANE, July 29 (AP)—The Fort George Wright baseball team defeated the Walla Walla air base club 10 to 6 here last night in a seven inning tilt in which the Walla Wallans used four pitchers.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Thirty citizens of Santa Cruz, Calif., have purchased the Pasatiempo golf course for use by convalescents at a nearby naval hospital. . . . Cornell's Bob Kane figures that spectator sports should be the last ones for the colleges to abandon—because students and trainees can get plenty of exercise in intra-mural sports but only football, baseball, etc., can provide entertainment for outsiders. . . . Incidentally, Bob figures that Mal Stevens will have a task lining up a football schedule for his Sampson naval training station team since the upstate colleges have seen the station's all-pro baseball team perform.

Check the wheel alignment on your automobile every six months. Misalignment causes scuffing and uneven tire wear.

Oaks Bow Third Time To Seattle

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Miss Secretary, isn't it about time we got off that early letter to James Joseph Dykes? Why?—Well, James Joseph and his White Sox are in second place in the American league this morning, and somebody'd better get him down out of the clouds. Start cooking, Miss Secretary: Dear Jimmy:

Here's your annual pat on the back. We see by the papers where your White Sox are in second place in the American league this morning.

All we wanted to say, Jimmy, was that we're still glad you're around. Because if you weren't on tap, the Yankees would get the idea no one wanted to be in the American league's first division with them. As long as you've got the gas lit on the front burner, they'll have to keep the stew on the fire. Right now, it looks like you're going to wind up with your sixth first division White Sox club in the nine years you've been steering the southsiders. And don't let anybody kid you about that—it's par for the course. Especially since you're doing it, as usual, with a bunch of guys named Joe—as far as paying fancy figures for your talent is concerned.

For instance, you've been saying all along that Gordon Maltzberger is a handy guy to have around—and you proved it last night. He'd won only two games, but last night you asked Gordon the question with the tying run on third and the winning run on second. And Gordon had the answer. He fanned Bob Johnson to give you a 3-4 decision over the Washington Senators.

Going into yesterday's sandwich dispensing, you and the Cleveland Indians and the Detroit Tigers were all tied up. The Indians got the usual Yankee lumps yesterday. Lefty Marius Russo handcuffed them with a two-hitter and beat them 11-1.

That was the only run in your league yesterday and last night, since Detroit and the St. Louis Browns wound up on the short end in a couple of rashes with old man weather in Boston and Philadelphia.

But over in the National league, the phoolish Phillies' new manager, fat Freddie Fitzsimmons, found out the score in a hurry. His Phils chalked up two runs for a 2-1 decision over St. Louis in a playoff of their protested game continued from June 5. Then the Cardinals got peeved and what with a nine-run fourth inning; they pegged it on fat Freddy's Phantastics 13-5.

The only other game saw Johnny Vander Meer fan 14 and walk nine to bell-cow the Cincinnati Reds to a 4-3 decision over the Boston Braves.

Beavers-Hollywood Game Called at End of Ninth As Stars Fall Out Tie

By The Associated Press

The Seattle Rainiers of the Coast league hung their third straight defeat on Oakland yesterday, winning 2 to 1 in a game which young Earl Jones, starting his first game as an Oak pitcher, lost the hard way.

The youngster allowed the Rainiers but four hits, but they came at the wrong time. Two of them were fourth inning singles which followed a base on balls to give the Rainiers their winning margin. Joe Demoran allowed the Oaks six hits.

The Hollywood Stars slipped across three runs in the ninth inning to gain a 5-5 tie with the Portland Beavers in a twilight game called at the end of the ninth because of darkness.

Forrest Orrell, who goes to the Detroit Tigers August 4, had his game all but won until he blew up in the ninth. At that point a burst of hits started off by Joe Dickshot sent him to the showers. The game will be played off Saturday afternoon in a doubleheader.

Los Angeles defeated San Diego 4 to 2 as Jodie Phipps edged Rex Dillebeck in a pitching duel. The game enabled the Angels to maintain their 13 1/2 game league lead over the San Francisco Seals who defeated Sacramento 4 to 3.

The short scores:

Portland firemen nosed out reliable shoemen, 1-0, in a 10-inning city league game.

Oregon Sport Notes

By FRED HAMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

The good-natured fun that L. H. Gregory poked at Manager Shea and Pitcher Ad Liska of the Portland Beavers for their double steal in a recent Sacramento series brings to mind what another Oregon sports writer had to say after watching the Beavers take one of their one-run defeats.

Al Lightner of the Salem Statesman, a veteran of several seasons of minor league ball, thinks the Portland Coast leaguers try for more base path, fancy work than their speed, or lack of it, warrants. He thinks they lose games trying to sacrifice, since its hardly a 50-50 gamble that the guy on first will reach second even if the bunt is a good one.

Tell 'em to hit and keep hitting, advises Lightner. Might as well risk a double play as a succession of force outs at second. He holds that nobody can consistently bunt the Beaver team into scoring position and they ought to quit trying.

Trainees Athletes Present College's Difficult Problem

NEW YORK, July 30 (AP)—College athletic directors, especially those at "army" colleges, generally agree that it would be a fine thing to have army specialized training program trainees on their athletic teams. How it could be arranged, even if permission were granted, is another difficult problem.

After hearing Rep. Samuel A. Weiss of Pennsylvania outline his efforts to obtain approval of intercollegiate competition for the campus soldiers and describe the picture as "gloomy but not hopeless," the college leaders gathered at yesterday's central office for eastern intercollegiate athletics convention, delved into the question of time.

Army A-12 students are requested to take six hours of physical training weekly, in addition to 24 hours of classes, 24 hours of supervised study and six hours of military drill.

The question, the athletic directors agreed, would be how to form a general plan based on varying schedules.

They nearly had a chance to try, Weiss revealed. Last June Weiss took up the question of

Yanks Prize Ball Farm Now Weeds

KANSAS CITY, July 30 (AP)—Weeds are beginning to grow on the Yankees' prize farm.

That's the news because this is the baseball farm that produced three champions, one runnerup and a third place finisher in five years of American association competition.

The crops during that period were excellent, yielding such choice tidbits as Eddie Miller, Eddie Joost, Ernie Bonham, Phil Rizzuto, Vince DiMaggio, Jerry Priddy, Johnny Sturm and Charley Wenstorf.

But today the farm is run down—clear down into last place. Furthermore, if the Blues finish in the second division this year, they will be the first Yankee class AA club to do it.

The situation is a product of the war, and Secretary Roy Hamey and Manager Johnny Neun, accepting it as such, are plowing along.

That master farmer, George Weiss, boss of the Yankee empire, doesn't have the hundred or more ball players at his disposal as in pre-war days, and can't answer the cries of help with slugging outfielders and top-notch hurlers.

That fact was emphasized when the Blues recently bought Bill Rabe, outfielder, from Baltimore.

"That's the first time we've purchased an experienced ball player for the Blues," Hamey remarked.

Only two infielders, a utility man and two pitchers are left from last year's pennant-winning team.

NO-HIT HOME RUN

ABERDEEN, Wash., July 30 (AP)—Catcher Art Cutts of the Aberdeen Eagles got a home run without hitting the ball.

Cutts whiffed the third strike but the Copalis coast guard catcher dropped the ball. Cutts made first, went on to second—and the Copalis catcher's overthrow to that base let him score.

The run gave the Eagles a 2-1 victory.

MEL OTT BENCHED

PITTSBURGH, July 30 (AP)—Manager Mel Ott, disappointed with his own showing as well as that of his team, said he would bench himself and send Buster Maynard to right field when the New York Giants take the field against the Pittsburgh Pirates today.
