

Son of German Field Marshal Promoted

By The Associated Press
Gen. Eberhard von Mackensen, youngest son of 93-year-old Field Marshal von Mackensen of World war fame, has been promoted to colonel general in the German army, the Berlin radio announced Wednesday in a broadcast recorded by The Associated Press.

Eberhard von Mackensen has been an army group commander since 1939. His eldest brother, Hans-Georg Viktor Mackensen, is German ambassador to Italy.

Every time we catch up with them (the Italians), they surrender. That's the main trouble.—Canadian officer in Sicily.

Wallace "Itching To Get Into Fight"

DES MOINES, Aug. 5 (AP)—Vice President Wallace urging strong opposition to corporations which, he said, seek to return after the war to a "capitalism of scarcity," declared yesterday he was "itching to get into the fight."

"There's only one program under which agriculture, labor, and in my opinion, business as well can prosper after the war, and that's all-out production," Wallace said in a speech to the Iowa State Federation of Labor convention.

A wild pitch is likely to break up any harmony, including that of a ball team.

VALUABLE NUTMEG

Nutmegs were considered so valuable in the 10th century that the wealthy Bernadotto di Nipoli devoted one-half of the writing of his will to explicit instructions as to the disposition of one nutmeg, in 987 A. D.

WHERE'S MY WIFE!

An old marriage custom takes place at a party given on the eve of the wedding in Wales. During the party, the bride runs away and hides and the groom has to hunt her out.
