To Portland—Martha Harbin, special agent for the Northern Life Insurance company, and James Patterson, district manager, and qualified for the Irving Morgan campaign as vice president of the Northern Life Insurance company will attend a banquet in Portland on August 6. Mrs. Harbin is on the program and will give one of her readings.

Visiting—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Barber have been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Conroy of Orchard avenue, and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Barber of Bend. They left on Thursday morning, Mrs. Barber for her home in Bakersfield, Calif., and Barber for Yuma, Ariz., where he is in the air corps.

Tag Day—Klamath Falls people are reminded that Molly Pitcher tag day will be held on Saturday by the American Legion as a part of a nationwide bond campaign. Members of the auxiliary will appear on the streets with paper sunbonnets and will be selling war stamps all day Saturday.

Returns Home—Jane LaLonde returned home from Tacoma, Wash., on Wednesday morning where she has finished three years' training at the St. Joseph's school of nursing. She is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. LaLonde, of 623 Upham street.

On Business—Ted Marble, an employe of the Herald and News for a number of years, was in town today on business. He planned to leave this evening to return to his shipyard work in the bay area where he has been located since his release from the army several months ago.

To Ashland—Mrs. William J. Miller of Klamath Falls went to Ashland Tuesday to visit friends and relatives.

In Hospital—S. V. Pickett is in Hillside hospital, where he went to recover from a leg infection. He is able to have visitors.

Recovering—Mrs. Dave Liskey, 1945 Auburn street, returned home Thursday morning from Portland where she underwent a major operation five weeks ago in St. Vincent's hospital. Mrs. Liskey is to remain quiet for another month.

Visitor in Klamath—Ed Cliff, supervisor of the Fremont national forest, was a Klamath Falls visitor Thursday. Cliff came here to attend the tree farm dedication ceremonies. He was registered at the Willard hotel.

Visiting in Salem—Mrs. Ted Russell left Wednesday for Salem to visit with her mother. She was accompanied by her three children and her sister, Wilma Stevens.

Graduate Nurses—All active or inactive graduate nurses are asked to attend the general mobilization of civilian defense at Mills school at 7:30 o'clock Friday night.

Returns—Mrs. Johnny Geddes returned Friday morning from Portland, where she spent a few days of her vacation. Mrs. Geddes is employed in the Safeway offices.

Visit Here—Captain and Mrs. Fred Olin are in Klamath Falls for a short visit. Captain Olin is now stationed in southern California and was a former member of the city police force.

House Guests—Mrs. C. L. Colegrove and her son Lee are houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hilton. The Colegroves arrived Thursday from Prineville and will return Sunday.

Visitor—Harry R. Boyd of Huntington Park, Calif., formerly of Midland, is a visitor here for a few days while on business.

DIAPER RASH
One of nature's greatest aids to baby health, is sleep. Aid rest and sleep by soothing and relieving diaper rash with Mexsana, formerly Mexican Heat Powder. Relieves itching and cools burning of torturing irritation. A favorite for over forty years. Costs little. Big savings in the larger sizes. Be sure you demand Mexsana.

STORE DEFENDANT IN DAMAGE SUIT

Stones Food Stores Inc., is the defendant in a $5000 damage suit filed against them this week by Mildred B. Smith. The plaintiff suffered a permanent foot injury a few months ago while working in the butcher shop of one of the Stone stores here. A meat cleaver, which, according to the complaint had been carelessly laid on top of a pile of lunch meat, fell and struck her foot causing permanent injuries.

Merryman and Napier and U. S. Balentine are attorneys for the plaintiff.

DISABILITY AWARD ASKED OF STATE

In a complaint filed in circuit court against the State Industrial Accident commission, H. B. Groselock asks an award allowing him permanent disability to the extent of 75% loss of function of leg. Previously the commission had awarded him a smaller disability allowance for his leg injury. The suit shows the plaintiff's dissatisfaction with the last order and asks for the larger allowance. William P. Lord and Ben Anderson of Portland are attorneys for plaintiff.

Police Court—In police court Friday morning there were four drunks, one vag, and seven traffic tickets.

Stove Certificates Must Be Used Soon

People who have made applications for coal or oil heating stoves and who have received their certificates must use them before August 23, the war price rationing board said today.

Because new regulations will soon supercede those now in effect, the certificates must be used before the expiration date. The marine corps has had glider training in force for its personnel since the summer of 1941 at the Parris Island, S. C., marine base.
