Seattle Men Go Upward; So Do Seals

Rainiers Take Stars 5-3; San Francisco Ball Squad Notches Fourth Straight

The Seattle Rainiers continued their victory march yesterday, defeating Hollywood 5-3 for their fourth straight triumph and their 12th in 13 starts.

The string served to keep Bill Skiff's team firmly cemented in third place in the Pacific Coast loop, but didn't cut the distance to second place a bit, as the San Francisco Seals are putting on a bit of a spurt themselves. Yesterday they defeated San Diego 2-0 to notch their fourth straight victory.

Seattle won after Russell Messery, pitching his first game for the Stars, filled the bases on walks in the seventh inning. He was removed at that point in favor of Pat McLaughlin and Dick Gyselman slapped out a single to bring in Ford Mullen and Joe Dobbins, with the Rainiers' third and fourth runs.

The Portland Beavers evened their series with Oakland, scoring a 5-1 victory behind Ad Liska's six-hit pitching. The Beavers broke loose in the fifth inning after Vince Dibiasi had held them scoreless up to that point.

And perhaps the biggest news in the loop yesterday was that Sacramento finally won a game after eight straight defeats. The Solons won the second half of a doubleheader with Los Angeles, 3-1, after the league leaders had taken the opener, 5-1.

Today's Guest Star

Pat Purcell, Minneapolis Times; Tony Stecher is taking over boxing in Minneapolis and has pledged the fans honest fights. How about using Bucky Harris with William D. Cox, three rounds, no holds or punches barred.

Doing It With Mirrors

Walter Hagen had some of the golf bugs popping their eyes when he got his game hot again with only a couple of practice rounds. . . . But here's the tip-off: The Haig has two wall-sized mirrors in his room and has been practicing in front of them by the hour for months. Told pals he must have tried ten thousand shots that way in the last year or so. . . . Probably stepped up, assumed his stance, and said, "here's looking at you, Walter."

Bouncing Around

National league prexy Ford Frick says Branch Rickey has a "moral if not a technical" obligation to the Giants since Dolph Camilli retired immediately after the Dodgers traded him. . . . Joe Donovan, the ex-Newark sports ed, checks with the educational tid-bit that in a recent Athens (Ga.) navy pre-flight boxing bout, Cadet Wisdom tangled with Cadet Strength—and Cadet Law was the referee.

Mail-Man Special

Letter from North Africa reports Al (Warner) Weissberger, one-time California promoter, and Gil Bensiam, who managed Pedro Montanez and Georges Carpenter for a while, are doing a honey of a job putting on service men's boxing shows for the boys in Casablanca and thereabouts. . . . Beniam was discharged from the army after being injured in the battle for Tunis but pleaded for a chance to stay around. . . . Weissberger still is in khaki.

Accept Invitations

CHICAGO, Aug. 7 (AP)—Lt. Lawson Little, Craig Wood and Gene Sarazen, as well as most other professional golf stars competing in the Ryder cup matches at Detroit today and tomorrow, have accepted invitations for the closed Chicago victory open championship August 19-21.

Wounded Vets to See Armstrong, Silva Battle

SPOKANE, Aug. 7 (AP)—One hundred wounded veterans who slugged it out with the Japanese in the taking of Attu will watch Henry Armstrong and Joe Silva trade punches on a fight card here August 14, Orion Gross, president of the Victory Boxing club which will sponsor the fight, said yesterday.

Wounded Vets to See Armstrong, Silva Battle

A block of seats for 100 have been set aside at the ringside for soldiers now convalescing at the army's Baxter hospital, Gross said. More seats will be provided if necessary.

Armstrong has informed Gross he will not arrive here until next Wednesday.

Falkenburg, Flam Favored In Net Tilts

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 7 (AP)—A major producer of tennis talent, California has a pair of post-war Davis cup prospects in lanky Bob Falkenburg and little Herbie Flam who are overwhelming favorites to seize the National junior and boys' singles championships today.

Top-seeded, Falkenburg and Flam have swept through the week-long tournament in straight sets and with a negligible loss of games. Falkenburg's opponent in the junior finals is second seeded James Brink of Seattle, while Flam's boy rival is sixth seeded Edwin Davis of Baton Rouge, La.

The 17-year-old Falkenburg, six-foot, two-inch brother of film star Jinx Falkenburg, blazed into the finals yesterday by beating a home-state challenger, fourth ranking Eugene Garrett of Los Angeles, 6-2, 6-4. Falkenburg is from Hollywood.

Flam, representing Beverly Hills, likewise pushed out a Californian while beating unseeded Gilbert Shea of Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-2. Davis produced an upset by knocking off second seeded Bob Galloway of Due West, S. C., 6-0, 6-1. Both Flam and Davis are 14.

Gunder May Crack His Own Record

CINCINNATI, Aug. 7 (AP)—Gunder Haegg, the Swedish gazelle, may crack his own world record of 8:47.8 for two miles today even if he fails to cross the finish line ahead of all competitors.

Although there are four men in the race, only Haegg and Gil Dodds, Boston divinity student, are starting from scratch at the Withrow high school stadium.

The other two, Bill Hulise, New York university graduate student who bettered the American record for the outdoor mile in Cleveland last week, and Bob Berger of Bay Village, O., will start the race from 'way up front.

Hulise will toe the mark 300 yards in front of the starting line and Berger will begin his cinder pounding 660 yards ahead of the starter's gun.

Running at a "pace speed" Berger will have a 50-second advantage on Dodds and Haegg.

Albina Clashes With Woodburn in Baseball Tourney

WOODBURN, Aug. 7 (AP)—Albina of Portland and Woodburn clashed today in the opening State American Legion junior baseball tournament game.

WISCO of Portland and Albina, the defending champion, were to meet in a second seven-inning contest.

Winners will play tomorrow for the championship and the right to go to regional playoffs in Montana.

Jerry Ambler Leads Field in Portland Stampede Rodeo

PORTLAND, Aug. 7 (AP)—With two days to go Jerry Ambler, Calgary top-hand, led the field in the second annual Portland stampede rodeo today.

Ambler was high in bronco-riding with 334 points, and tied with Jack Wade, Laramie, Wyo., in bareback riding with 327 points.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7 (AP) Bert Willis is in the U. S. maritime service, in the engine room of a ship that has been dodging submarines in the Pacific and Benny Wagner, another old time arbiter who left the ranks, is secretary-treasurer of a union organization in Pittsburgh, Calif.

The report that Charley Hunter, track and field coach of the San Francisco Olympic club who turned out so many national AAU championship winning teams, had resigned was incorrect. . . . Hunter merely has been given a leave of absence to take over the athletic directorship of a bay shipyard's personnel and after the war he will be back at the club post he held for 22 years.

Veteran Sports Editor L. H. Gregory of Portland notes that Portland Catcher Eddie Adams picked off five of six Oakland players who tried to steal second on him in a recent baseball series in the north adding "after a while, those fellows (Oak) will be convinced". . . . Gregory probably forgot why the Oaks tried to take such liberties with Adams' arm. . . . In one game when the two clubs played a series in Oakland last June Adams twice threw the ball into centerfield and once got off a wild heave to third base.

Gridiron's All Stars Limber Up

Seventy Players Practice Today Amidst Difficulties; Improvised Quarters Made

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 7 (AP)

The bulk of an all-star squad numbering some 70 players hit town today to start practicing for the football game with the Washington Redskins and found that they will bunk in improvised quarters established in the alcoves of Northwestern's Dyche stadium.

The university's fraternity buildings and dorms, which in previous years housed the all-stars, have become war casualties, being filled to the rafters with marine and navy students.

Tacking up a notice that there will be double drills daily starting tomorrow, Head Coach Harry Stuhldreher promptly huddled with his staff—Wally Butts of Georgia, Babe Horrell of UCLA, Lt. Tony Hinkle of Great Lakes and Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern. Frank Leahy will not report until summer workouts are completed at Notre Dame.

It's up to this impressive group of football brains to map a strategy of pass defense which will ensure the tosses of the feared Redskins, Sammy Baugh. For the all stars are determined to beat the professional champions for the first time since 1938, when Washington was the loser. The record now stands at five victories for the pro teams and two for the all-stars. Two of the games ended in ties.

Newest squad members are three Washington State players now stationed at Fort George Wright, Wash.—Center Bill Remington, End Nick Susoeff and Halfback Bob Kennedy.

Golf's World Series Opens Two-Day Go

DETROIT, Aug. 7 (AP)—Golf's world series, the Ryder cup matches, opened a two-day stand today at the rolling Plum Hollow course over the protest of one of the game's greatest concerning the make-up of Craig Wood's cup team.

At Philadelphia the voice of Leo Diegel, Detroit-born pro, was raised against the selection of Al Watrous and Frank Walsh of Detroit, to coveted places on the Ryder squad that is out to make it two straight over Walter Hagen's challenges. Four 18-hole best ball matches today will clear the way for eight 36-hole singles battles tomorrow.

"Walsh and Watrous probably will be good drawing cards in Detroit," said Diegel, four-time member of the American cup team against the British, "but I think there are many others better qualified."

Diegel was promptly hooted down by Hagen, who captained America's six Ryder squads in international competition but now is directing the challengers.

"Sam Snead, Horton Smith and Ben Hogan of the cup squad are in the service and can't play," Hagen declared. "Wood picked Watrous and Walsh in an emergency to fill the No. 8 spot on the squad. President Ed Dudley and all other high PGA officials have approved. I guess that ought to settle it."

Henry Belts Out Decision Over Jimmy

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 7 (AP) Durable Henry Armstrong, who apparently improves with age, was past the 25th milestone today in his ring comeback attempt.

He belted out a clean-cut 10-round decision over Jimmy Garrison, 148, Kansas City, last night in his 25th fight in the current title campaign. It was victory No. 22.

Armstrong, 140, looked good all the way against Garrison, a fast, cagy and muscular welterweight. He felled the Kansas City fighter twice in the seventh round, knocked his pins spinning another time and was beating a resounding tattoo on Garrison's puffed face at the finish.

Garrison, who outfought the former triple title-holder as late as the ninth round, was no set-up. Armstrong forced him to back-pedal only rarely and at the end Garrison was flailing back at him so hard that neither man heard the bell.

Armstrong punched harder and faster than last year when he stopped Lew Jenkins here. He was given six rounds on the Associated Press score card. Two went to Garrison and two were even.

Other results: Speedy Cannon, 151, San Francisco, outpointed Spider McCallum, 149, Missoula, Mont.; Mel Roberts, 138, Portland, drew with Leo McCormick, 140, Portland; Jack Biddle, 157, Seattle, drew with Joe Albina, 161, Portland; Joe Polinsky, 145, Portland, decisioned Billy Roberts, 138, Pocatello, Idaho.

Money Apportioned For Improvement of Wildlife Conditions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7 (AP)—The apportionment of $910,000 to various states for the improvement of wildlife conditions was announced yesterday by Interior Secretary Ickes. States are required to put up 25 per cent additional to obtain the federal grants.

Allotments include: Idaho, $18,416; Montana, $27,474; Oregon, $20,667, and Washington, $22,792.

It took 12,000 men to build the 1671-mile-long Alcan highway.

Spokane Army Airmen Replace Montana on Grid

PULLMAN, Aug. 7 (AP)—The new Spokane army air field football team will replace Montana State university on the Washington State college grid schedule November 6. Graduate Manager Earl V. Foster announced.

The withdrawal of the Montana school from the Pacific Coast conference for the coming season also left the University of Washington with an open date, on October 30. At Seattle Athletic Director Roland Belshaw said an effort would be made to find a substitute opponent for a game in the Huskies' stadium.

Mulloy Finds Way To Get in Shape For Tennis Match

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 7 (AP)—Even though on patrol duty in the Atlantic, Lieut. Gardner Mulloy, U. S. navy reserve, has found a way to get in shape for a try at the national tennis title next month.

Commander of a fighting ship, the nation's third-ranking player has rigged up a backboard on deck and bangs away with a tennis ball in an atmosphere of depth charges and anti-aircraft guns.

"It's fine on calm days and when we are tied up in port," he explained during a few hours' leave here.

Liquor Initiative Filed in Salem

SALEM, Aug. 7 (AP)—An initiative petition proposing to transfer the sale of liquor from state-owned to private stores was on file today.

The initiative would set up a new state liquor commission, which would license private stores for sales. The petition needs 15,052 signatures to go on the next ballot.

It is sponsored by Mel P. Brown, Portland, who sponsored a similar measure, voted down, in 1940.

Indian Giver

GETTYSBURG, Pa., (AP)—A sweater and muffler Roy Enoch wore through World War One are back in service—for the last time, he hopes.

The garments were given Enoch by the Red Cross back in 1917 and he recently turned them over to the local chapter for re-use. They are now keeping a chaplain warm in the Northwest Pacific.

Franklin, Ind., (P)

Raymond Bess, 36-year-old Indianapolis painter, sentenced to jail here for two weeks on a charge of intoxication asked Sheriff Russell W. Cochrane, "please let me take my dog with me."

Brownie now is helping his master even the score with society.
