

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

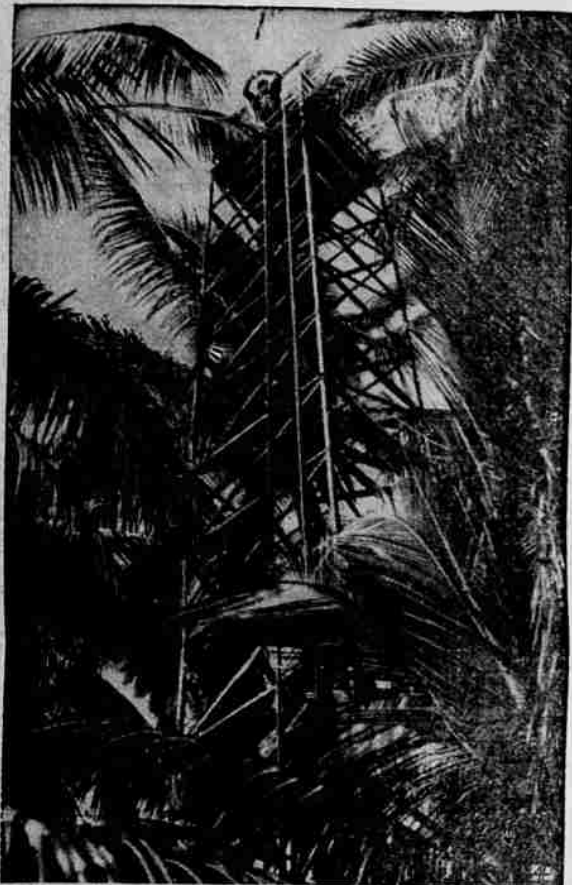

THE GENERAL VISITS HIS SON—During a brief visit to England, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery (above) visits his son, David (right), at the boy's school.

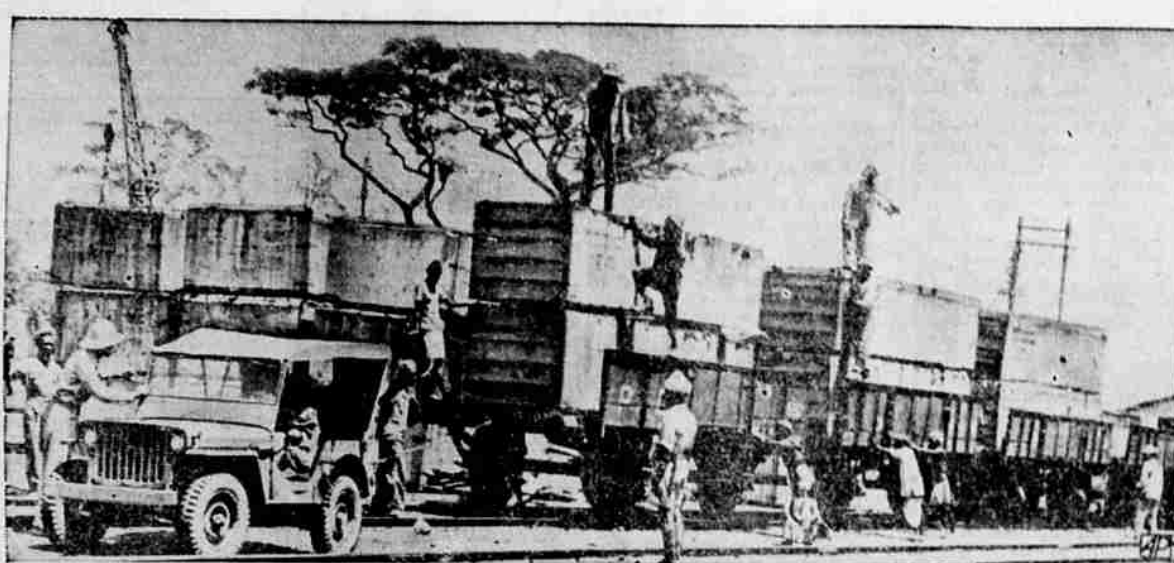

REFRESHMENT FOR WENDY—A year old cocker spaniel mascot named Wendy is given a cool drink at Randolph Field, Tex., after logging her 200th hour in the air. She first flew when she was six weeks old.

THE GERMAN CAPITAL—This airview shows the sprawling metropolis of Berlin, capital of Germany. This largest city of the Reich has already been raided many times by Allied planes but fears of even greater raids have led the government to order the evacuation of civilians whose presence in the capital is not mandatory, reports from Sweden say.

JUNGLE LOOKOUT—A Marine officer scans the surrounding area from atop a lookout tower on Guadalcanal Island.

GIANT WORK FOR A JEEP—An American jeep weighing less than a ton pulls freight cars weighing many tons each as the United States Army handles supplies on a railroad siding in India. This is an official OWI photograph.

ANXIOUS MOMENTS—Gen. Sir Harold Alexander (left), deputy commander-in-chief of Allied forces, and Rear Admiral Alan Kirk, U. S. Navy, watch a rehearsal for the invasion of Sicily. This is an official U. S. Navy photo.

SOUVENIRS FROM SICILY—Lt. Blair Walliser shows SPAR Jessie Frye of Medford, Mass., German and Italian helmets and bayonets which were captured during the invasion of Sicily. Miss Frye wears a German helmet. Walliser is from Chicago.

BEACH IDEA—Esther Williams, former swimming star now in the movies, models a one-piece swim suit in this sea-side photo. The outfit combines two shades of blue.

JUST FIDDLIN'—John Charles Thomas, famous baritone, spends a few minutes with a cello under the direction of Cellist Jane Baylis who plays in an orchestra on the same radio program on which Thomas sings.

LEADS ITALIANS—Following the resignation of Benito Mussolini Marshal Pietro Badoglio (above) was named premier.

ALL SET—Second Lt. Paul Smith (above), former editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, wears his new gold bars after completing Marine "boot" and officers' training.

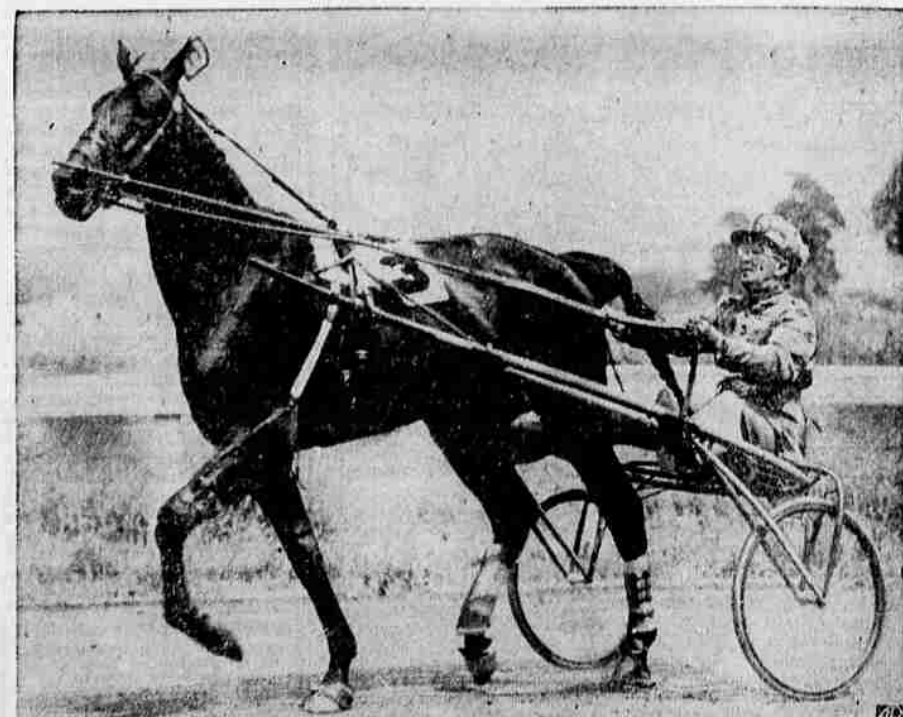

OFFICER—Capt. Marion Ross (above) of Toronto is the first woman to be commissioned in the Canadian Army as a medical officer. She accompanied the invasion forces to Sicily.

DOUGHNUTS FOR BOMBER CREWS—Peggy Roblee Donovan, Red Cross worker, distributes doughnuts to crews returning to North Africa after a bombing mission over Italian targets.

TOP PITCHER—Truett "Rip" Sewell (above) of the Pittsburgh Pirates pitched 11 winning games in a row for one of the best records in the National League this year.

RANKS HIGH FOR HAMBLETONIAN—Photograph (above) works out with Tom Berry on. The colt is rated among the favorites for the Hambletonian Stakes, Aug. 11, at Yonkers, N. Y.