Wolgamoed to Talk With Navy Recruits

Warrant Carpenter Leo Wolgamoed will be in Klamath Falls August 21 to interview prospective Seabee recruits, Navy Recruiter Dan Schreiber said today. Because of the large increase in the quota for this area, Schreiber has been authorized to send apparently qualified men to Portland for physical examinations and ratings without waiting for interviews with Wolgamoed, so eligible men were urged to contact Schreiber as soon as possible.

Newest observation scout plane in service is the Curtiss Seagull, which is easily recognized by its unusual upturned wingtips.

UNCLE SAM'S FIGHTING MEN NEED YOUR QUININE

You may have only a small quantity in your medicine cabinet at home, but it might be just enough to save the life of some boy who is out there in the tropical jungles fighting your battles.

Several months ago this drug store donated all of its quinine to this worthy cause, as did thousands of other drug stores throughout the nation. Here is your opportunity to contribute something that money cannot buy.

Leave your quinine at any drug store before next Monday, August 16th, when it will be called for by members of the Oregon state police and forwarded to the proper authorities. Do it now, before you forget.

WOODEN BOXES AVAILABLE FOR SOLDIER GIFTS

Well-constructed wooden boxes to be used for sending Christmas presents or other gifts to soldiers in the United States and overseas are now available at the chamber of commerce.

Included in the assortment are two sizes that can be sent abroad and a larger box that may be sent within this country. The two smaller sizes can also be used within the United States.

There are no set prices on the boxes, which were supplied through the courtesy of the Pelican Bay Lumber company, but contributions will be accepted. All proceeds will go to the Commandos.

Rules for sending packages to servicemen overseas are as follows:

1. For the army, all items sent must have been requested in writing, except during the Christmas mailing period. This period is between September 15 and October 15. Any presents sent later than October 15 are not guaranteed to reach the serviceman by Christmas. After October 15, requests are necessary.
2. For the navy, written requests for articles are not necessary at any time. Christmas packages should be sent between September 15 and November 1 to insure delivery by holiday time. RUNAWAY GIRLS PICKED UP HERE

Two runaway girls, aged 14 and 17, from southern California, accompanied by two youths, admitted deserters from the navy, were picked up by city police this week near the city hall.

The four had hitch-hiked here, arriving last Saturday, spending part of the night sleeping in a local hotel lobby. All four intended to remain in Klamath Falls, the boys saying they were going to get jobs as logging truck drivers.

A sum of 58 cents constituted the combined bankroll of the two couples. Intention of the runaways was to get married right away. The sailors were not in uniform.

Both girls were turned over to juvenile authorities early this week. One of the youngsters was sent back to her parents Tuesday night, and the other will also be returned to her home.

Naval authorities sent word here that they would be in Klamath Falls to pick up the boys shortly.

BANKS CASH MOST CHECKS DURING JULY

By WALTER WARREN
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11 (AP)—Banks cashed more checks west of the Rockies last month than in any other month in the west's history.

Checks cashed in 31 cities totaled $5,966,571,000. That was at the rate of about $1.30 for every dollar in July 1942.

It was around $1.99 for every dollar in July 1940. In the 31 cities $38,874,087,000 worth of business was paid for by check in the first seven months of this year—another new high record by a margin of more than nine billion dollars.

Calculations by bankers suggested the July rate of spending ran close to 100 billion dollars a year for the seven far western states—Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and the three coast states. That calculation allowed for communities other than the 31 cities, and for spending of cash as well as check payments. Living costs went up enough to account for about 8 cents of the average western rise of some 30 cents on the dollar. Taxes, not included in the living cost computation, accounted for some more, the influx of population added a few cents on the dollar to the rise, and increased industrial and military operations about covered the causes.

Store sales generally were higher than a year ago—up more than a third in California and Washington. Wage payments had been running two-thirds higher than a year ago, and around five times the amount paid in 1940 in California. A lot of money went into war bonds.

Thomas of McAllister, Okla., and Mrs. Mamie Bubner of Boulder, Colo.; four grandchildren, Betty and Barbara Bunnell and Jackie and Janice Karger of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Young was a charter member of Midland Grange No. 178. The remains rest in the Earl Whitlock funeral home, Pine street at Sixth. Notice of funeral to be announced later.

AZALIA SARAH HALE
Azalia Sarah Hale, for the last six years a resident of Klamath county, Ore., but for the last two years making her home in this city with her daughter, passed away at her late residence on Wednesday, August 11, 1943, at 7:57 a. m., following an illness of several days. She was a native of Michigan and at the time of her death was aged 74 years, 1 month and 23 days. Surviving are three sons, Emmett Hale of Los Angeles, Calif., Clarence of Klamath Falls, Ore., and Glenn of Gilchrist, Ore.; two daughters, Miss Ruth Hale of this city and Mrs. Zenobia Tuttle of Dunsuir, Calif.; one brother, M. C. Howell of Klamath Falls, Ore.; and two sisters. The remains rest in the Earl Whitlock funeral home, Pine street at Sixth. Notice of funeral to be announced later.

Long Silence on Kiska May Be Invasion Prelude

ancing the base on Amchitka island to the east and permitted the establishment of a reasonably effective blockade.

Only once since then has there been evidence that the enemy was trying to reinforce Kiska. On July 10 army and navy bombers attacked four Japanese cargo ships several hundred miles to the southwest, sinking one, leaving another fatally crippled and damaging the remaining two.

Supply Possibility
Navy men do not discount the possibility that the Japanese might have delivered some essential supplies by submarine or even by a rare, fog-protected surface run, but the general belief is that neither reinforcements nor supplies in quantities required by a garrison of 10,000 men have been delivered for several months.

About a month and a half to two months of fairly good campaigning weather remain in the western Aleutians. Thus if the fight is to be made before winter begins closing in it will have to begin soon.

Oldest patrol bomber in operation in the navy is the Catalina PBV-5, still widely used in all theaters of war.

Have a Coca-Cola = Wacko, Digger! (OKAY, CHUM)

...or how to make a hit in Australia

When friendliness takes over, you find the spirit of cooperation, of "Let's work together for the common good". That's the way it works between Australians and Americans. Have a "Coke", says the Yank, and the Aussie knows he has a comrade. From Adelaide to Altona Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the gesture of the friendly.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".
