

DO YOU WANT ...

THIS -OR- THIS

This green, growing timber represents the future of Klamath as a busy industrial center. It represents the lumber industry payroll ... over $300,000 at Weyerhaeuser alone in June. It represents the future for each of us. And it is to the interest of each of us to see that it is saved from fire for harvest and continued production of trees.

This seared skeleton represents a future blacked out. There are no payrolls in this picture. Cut-over land, too, must be protected from fire. For instance, Weyerhaeuser recently has purchased over 50,000 acres of Klamath County cut-over land to grow trees on. This cut-over land is growing payrolls right now. Protect Klamath's future payrolls from fire!
