Sandlotters Wonder Over Feminine Baseball Umpire

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 12 (AP)—There's a whole lot of conjecture going on in this capital of sandlot baseball—and a 20-year-old girl is the cause of it all. The fans are wondering just how that umpire-ess Raymond (Hap) DuMont is bringing in for tomorrow's opening of the 1943 national semi-pro tournament will handle herself when the going gets rough. DuMont himself is skeptical. The head man of the semi-pros explained today his decision to

By SID FEDER (Pinch-hitting for Hugh Fullerton)

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP)—Volo Song zizzled a Hambletonian mile in 2:02 1/2. . . . Gunder Haegg rattled it off in 4:06.9 a-foot. . . . Looks like the horse is here to stay, doesn't it? . . . But neither of them operated as fast as the sports writers who charged from Empire City to Randall's island so they could see both. . . . The boys were moving as if the dinner bell was ringing. . . . Jimmy Londo would have been a great third man for that shoving session Gunder and Gil Dodds put on around the last turn. . . . Looked like they were going to go three falls to a finish all the way to the wire. . . . Would have been a nice touch to wind up the gravel gallopers' U. S. parade, at that.

Headline: Phillies Win Six Straight Under Fitzsimmons. . . . Isn't it almost time for the Dodgers to announce a new manager for the Phils? . . . Or shouldn't you ask?

WHAT'S BERLIN, MERLIN?

Andy Panko, the Los Angeles outfielder who's leading the coast league in everything except selling hot dogs, and Red Schoendienst, Rochester's switch-hitting shortstop who can run like Haegg and Volo Song put together, are rated the class of the minor leagues this year by the big-time scouts. . . . But don't hurry, pals. . . . Andy's all wrapped up for the Cubs. . . . And Red's got a Cardinal trade-mark on him.

Harland Cliff, the Brownies' third-sacker, puts 31 candles on the birthday cake today. . . . And didn't you notice that Bobo the Great Newsum was 34 yesterday? What a birthday present for the Brownies! . . . Who's the mysterious passer from somewhere in Texas that stout Steve Owen is threatening to spring at the National Pro Grid leave in his New York Giants' backfield this fall? . . . Could it be he's made that Sammy Baugh-for-Andy Farkas trade with Washington? . . . The Salt Lake City air base team is bragging about landing Corporal Ike Bierwagen, up from the champion South Bend (Ind.) Bendix Brake club with 27 no-hitters to his credit.

The U. S. soldiers' run-ins with Australian slang remind Sam Cohen, Meriden (Conn.) Journal sports ed, of the old Charlie Pilkington, the old featherweight, made down under some years back. . . . The first question he was asked when he got off the boat was, "Will you fight fair dinkum?" . . . "I'll fight anybody—how much does this guy weigh?" came back Charlie. . . . Phils Clean Pirates in Double Tilt

Philadelphians Steel Spot In National League; Win Streak Now Totals Six

By JUDSON BAILEY

The Philadelphia Phillies returned home yesterday for their first appearance in Shibe park under the management of first-old Freddy Fitzsimmons and promptly swept a doubleheader from the Pittsburgh Pirates to extend their present winning streak to six games—matching their best string under the piloting of capable Bucky Harris—and stole the spotlight in the National league once more.

The bargain bill started at 10:30 a. m., and attracted 11,129 fans, a remarkable turnout that was enough to capture the immediate attention of baseball men. But in addition the Phillies beat Truett (Rip) Sewell, the leading pitcher of the year, 2-1 in the first game and followed through with a 2-0 shutout in the second to knock the Pirates out of their exclusive hold on second place in the senior circuit.

Five errors contributed to the downfall of Sewell, who had won 17 and lost three previously, but the four-hit hurling of Lynwood (still called Schoolboy) Rowe was a factor of some importance to the outcome. Richard (Kewpie) Barrett officiated at the white-washing in the second session with six-hit pitching that sparkled with eight strikeouts.

Harris, incidentally, was in the stands and cheering for the Phillies.

The setbacks for the Pirates enabled Cincinnati to move into a tie for second even though the Reds were beaten 5-2 at Brooklyn. Whitlow Wyatt and Ray Starr started out to have a pitcher's duel, but the Dodgers went on a rampage for five runs in the seventh inning to end their 10-game losing streak with a dramatic flourish.

New York's woeful Giants turned back the St. Louis Cardinals 3-2 on two home runs by Nick Witek. The Chicago Cubs divided a doubleheader at Boston. Hiram Bithorn pitched a 3-0 shutout for the Cubs in the first game, but the Braves came back to win the nightcap 6-2.

In the American league the New York Yankees were walloped hard for the second straight day by the St. Louis Browns, 9-1, and for the third time this season were held to one hit. The only blow off Steve Sundra was Charley Keller's 18th home run.

Paul (Dizzy) Trout pitched five-hit ball as Detroit downed the Washington Senators 3-2. Cleveland captured a twilight slugging session from the Philadelphia Athletics 10-5 and bagged a pitching battle 2-1 in the night game that followed.

Joe Dobson shutout the White Sox 10-0 while his Boston Red Sox teammates collected 16 hits and clustered seven runs in the eighth inning.

Northern Coast Conference to Draw Up New Schedules

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 12 (AP)—Basketball and baseball schedules for schools in the northern division of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate conference will be drawn up here August 27.

Officials attending the meeting will be treated to some Columbia river salmon fishing, said Anson B. Cornell, University of Oregon athletic manager.

URGENT BUSINESS

Our most urgent business today is to do everything within our power to help win the war. For the duration, accommodations for military personnel are considered of FIRST importance. In this way we hope to provide rest and relaxation for our men who devote long, hard hours to direct war effort. We know you agree this policy is right!

Wall Chip Shots Oust Kay Bryne

By DAVE HOFF

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 12 (AP)—"I don't know how she does it but she does it," Kay Bryne parodied a popular song after Mary Agnes Wall sank two long chip shots in three holes that ended Miss Bryne's chances for the women's western amateur golf title.

Miss Bryne, a Rye, N. Y., radio singer, was in the middle of a drive to win her second round match in the tournament yesterday when her Menominee, Mich., opponent dropped in the chip shots from a long way out.

Consequently Miss Bryne, co-medalist in Monday's qualifying round with Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., was out of the tournament today and Miss Wall, a finalist in this meet two years ago, had become the dominating figure in the lower bracket, although there was some speculation over her chances in today's quarterfinals against Marjorie Row, an apt performer from Detroit, Mich.

Miss Wall drew Jeanne Cline of Bloomington, Ill., one of the more effective younger golfers, as her quarterfinal foe today, with matches between Dorothy Germain of Philadelphia, Pa., and Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and between Peggy Kirk of Findlay, O., and Betty Jean Rucker of Spokane, Wash., completing the day's program in the title flight.

Volo Song Leads All in Corn-Tassel

Bargain-Son of Volomite Wins Hambletonian in 2 of 3; Runs Fastest Heat

By SID FEDER

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP)—Volo Song, the $5000 bargain-son of Volomite won the Hambletonian and a bankroll of $23,283.92 yesterday by taking two out of three heats. But in the heat he didn't win, he trotted the fastest mile in the 18-year history of the corn-tassel derby—and it doesn't count.

This was in the first one-mile whirl around the Empire City track. Worthy Boy, the first Hambletonian starter for Mrs. James B. Johnson Jr., of Rochester, Mich., won the dash in the track record trotting time of 2:02 1/2—a mark Volo Song duplicated in knocking off the second heat, before coming back to win the third in 2:08.

But in that opening spin, before Driver Ben White could get him moving the rest of the pack was so far in front—Volo looked like an early arrival for the next race. He took out after the others like Casey Jones bringing old 69 in on schedule, made up more than ten lengths and hit the wire in third place, only a length and a half back.

Now, since the winner was caught in 2:02 1/2, Volo, naturally, must have zipped a lot faster. No official bothered to put the clock on him, but Trainer-Driver White apparently carries his own stop-watch and word reached the press box later that Ben's time-piece showed 2:00 1/2.

This is one full second faster than the Hambletonian mile mark, chalked up back in '37 by Shirley Hanover. But, while Volo has the bath-tub sized cup that shows he won—Shirley still is the record-holder.

SWIMMING IS HEALTHFUL

Swimming is believed by many to be the most healthful exercise there is, the best body builder. The reason for this is that there is no "tearing down" of muscles in swimming like there is in golf, tennis, football and other sports.
