PELICAN CITY HOME, GARDEN RAZED BY FIRE

A fire of unknown origin destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith near Pelican City late Wednesday afternoon. No one was home at the time of the blaze.

Smith is employed at the Pelican Bay Lumber company and his wife works at the Big Lakes Box company. Their three children had taken a trip to Round lake for the afternoon. The fire started about 4 o'clock and destroyed the four-room house and a storeroom. Pigs and chickens belonging to the family were saved although a cat was killed. About $100 in currency was burned and a garden destroyed. Also lost was 300 quarts of fruit and preserves. There was no insurance on the property.

Joe's Coming

Sergeant Joe Louis, who appears in Irving Berlin's "This is the Army," here August 18, is not the first heavyweight to invade Hollywood, but to be asked to appear in so distinguished a production is an honor greater than any bestowed on any of his predecessors.

U. S. Employment Reaches Record Mark

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—Employment in the United States reached a record peak of 54,300,000 during July, the census bureau reported today.

The net increase of 900,000 over June, the bureau said, resulted primarily from the entrance of students into the labor force with the close of the school year.

The July total was 300,000 above the previous high recorded in July and August of last year.

The bureau estimated there were 900,000 persons jobless and deserving work in July.

Coleman Dies in San Quentin Gas Chamber

SAN QUENTIN, Calif., Aug. 13 (AP)—In the San Quentin gas chamber today John Lawrence Coleman, 51, was executed for the slaying in 1941 of his third wife, Myrtle Coleman, of Coronado.

The bartender and former Chicago policeman was calm as he stepped into the death cell. He had slept well last night after writing several letters.

Swimming is believed by many to be the most healthful exercise there is, the best body builder. The reason for this is that there is no "tearing down" of muscles in swimming like there is in golf, tennis, football and other sports.

City, Heating Plant Men Discuss Problems; PUC Man Completes Study, Reports

John Kirby, of the Klamath Heating plant, D. O. Hood with Columbia Utilities company, the city council, the mayor, and the city attorney met Thursday to discuss problems arising from corrosion in pipes, steam escaping from manholes and the soot problem.

This group has under consideration an idea that they believe will improve the soot situation and they are also attempting to make a correction in the problem of escaping steam in the city.

Labor, War Conditions
However these corrections cannot be made until labor and war conditions permit. Also it is difficult to get material.

In a report from George H. Flagg, commissioner of public utilities for Oregon, it is found that he has completed his part of the three-way agreement reached early in June regarding the "corrosion" and "black snow" as related to the operations of the Klamath Steam Heating company. The report was compiled by Professor George W. Gleason of Oregon State college.

In an effort to compromise the differences between the city and the heating utility, three studies were to be made. Investigations are yet to be completed by the city and the heating company.
