

WILLKIE SAYS REPUBLICANS SHOULD WIN

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Aug. 13 (AP)—Wendell L. Willkie says the republican party "should and can win" the 1944 elections with "a constructive, liberal domestic program of expanding economy" and "a realistic foreign policy."

The 1940 GOP presidential nominee declared "no party was ever presented with such an exciting challenge as is offered to the republican party today nor with such an opportunity." His remarks were contained in a statement issued as he talked with republican leaders of the eighth Indiana congressional district yesterday.

He said he disagreed with recent suggestions that if the war continued beyond next year the Roosevelt administration "will inevitably be returned to power," and added:

"As a matter of fact, for the successful conclusion of the war, the necessary rehabilitation of the country after the war is over, and the enlightened conduct of our foreign policy, the republican party should and can win the next presidential and congressional elections."

"But, in order to win, we republicans must present to the people a constructive, liberal domestic program of expanding economy, developed primarily through the forces of private initiative with an unequitable distribution of the profits and social benefits among labor, agriculture and industry."

Willkie said that the GOP must forsake "the tempting notion that it can win by the amalgamation of the dissident groups in America"—the "narrow nationalists," the "economically selfish," and those unwilling to sacrifice in time of war.

General George S. Patton Jr., right, in a letter to the people of Sicily, assuring them that liberation, not enslavement, was the aim of the Allied armies, stated: "Here in Palermo we have established excellent relations with His Eminence, the Cardinal, and, through him, with the Church." Above, Patton, an Episcopalian, chats with Cardinal Lavitrano in Palermo after capture of the city by U. S. forces.

LATE BIDDING STIFFENS ALL MARKET PRICES

By VICTOR EUBANK
NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (AP)—A little late bidding stiffened prices generally in today's stock market although anything resembling a recovery rush failed to materialize.

Sluggishness prevailed from the start and the aggregate of around 400,000 shares was one of the smallest of the past year. The ticker tape frequently idled for a minute or so at a time.

Pepsi-Cola and Eastman Kodak got up 2 or so each and lesser improvement was shown for U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Willys-Overland, U. S. Rubber, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, International Harvester, Westinghouse, General Electric, Texas Co., Standard Oil (NJ) and International Telephone.

NOW YOU CAN AFFORD STRONG ICED COFFEE

By GAYNOR MADDOX
The recent increase in your coffee ration means you can now serve strong, clear, iced coffee during the August "dog days." But learn how to get the best iced coffee from your valuable supply.

There are two methods. The first is really the best, according to iced coffee epicures. Make your coffee double strength by your favorite method. Use 2 heaping tablespoons for each 8-ounce measuring cup of water. Fill tall glasses with ice; pour the freshly made hot coffee into the glass.

For the other method, make regular strength coffee, using 1 heaping tablespoon for every cup water. When done, pour into glass jar, cover and cool. Place in refrigerator. To serve, pour into tall glasses, half filled with ice.

To celebrate the increase in coffee supplies and the success of your victory garden, give a porch supper. With the iced coffee, serve a Mexican salad and crisp rolls.

Mexican Salad (Serves 8)

One-quarter cup salad oil, 1 clove garlic, 1 cup diced bread, 1/2 cup diced celery or cucumber, 1 cup diced cooked potato, 1/2 cup finely chopped onion, 2 tablespoons minced sweet pepper, 1 cup cooked string beans, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon chili powder, 2 tablespoons vinegar. Heat 1 tablespoon salad oil, add garlic, and cook the diced bread until light brown. Remove from heat, remove garlic, and add remaining oil and ingredients and mix well. Serve in large salad bowl with lettuce or watercress.

For a light porch supper, to be served with iced coffee, try a salad of greens combined with carrot sticks, turnip sticks, cauliflower buds and radishes, served with slices of whole wheat and butter or fortified margarine.

MENU

(Eat the Basic 7 Every Day)

BREAKFAST: Grapes, blueberry griddle cakes, sugar, fortified margarine, toast, coffee, milk.

LUNCH: Vegetable soup, soybean crackers, chopped tongue sandwiches, jelly sandwiches, whole apple, tea, milk.

DINNER: Cream of tomato soup in cups, whole wheat bread croutons, cold cuts, Mexican salad, warmed enriched hard rolls, butter or fortified margarine, sliced peaches, nut cookies, iced coffee, milk.

Cereals are one of the Basic Seven Foods.

By utilizing a down-draft principle, a home "furnace of the future" designed at the University of Illinois is said to eliminate all smoke, and to utilize the heat value of smoke and gases to such an extent that savings of one-half in the amount of fuel consumed are possible.

It seems that only a nice, cool, quiet smoke will quiet that restless feeling which men who stop smoking have.

VEGETABLES FOR LUNCHES STRESSED

The use of vegetable crops will be stressed this year in the school lunch program, Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent, announced today. This decision was made at a meeting of the Klamath county nutrition committee.

Plans have been made by the committee to have films available toward the last of the month on the canning and storing of vegetables. These films will help families use garden supplies wisely and will supplement information given at the food preservation meetings this summer.

The appointment of Mrs. Paul Landry to have charge of the city school cafeterias was announced at the meeting by Arnold Gralapp, Klamath Falls is the only city in the state, said Mrs. Gillen, to have a general director of public school cafeterias.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. John McFee, Mrs. John Kerns, Mrs. Myrtle Caldwell, Mrs. Marjorie Brissenden, Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, Mrs. Altha Urquhart, Mrs. Winnifred Gillen, Mrs. Lydia Howard, Alice Stout, Alice Johnson, Bernice Peterson, Clifford Jenkins, Dr. Peter Rozendal, Arnold Gralapp, Fred Peterson and Lynn Roycroft.

Seagoing Pig Big Problem To Ship's Butcher, Baker

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13 (AP) The seagoing pig on the Pacific grunted trustfully between a butcher and baker here today, unworried over the problem it presented.

Peter Marich of Colma, Calif., the butcher on the former trans-Pacific liner now in government war service, and Herman Keller of Alameda, Calif., the baker, said they had become too fond of the pig—answering to the name of "Soule"—to end "her" career as a roast.

"Soule" can't land, because the government (agricultural department quarantine or something) won't let her and, so the cook and the baker said, she can't be put off at her former South Pacific island home for the same reason.

She was picked up by the ship's crew last April, a little pig. But she now weighs around 100 pounds and she's growing fast.

Keller said she eats anything from stew to ice cream. She has, all to herself, the kennel quarters on the ship which used to house the pedigreed dogs of wealthy passengers.
