Beauty IS YOUR DUTY

By RITA WHISENANT

A LOT has been said and written about the bugaboo of underarm perspiration. No doubt the subject has been overworked, and you're tired of hearing about it. But still—

EVERY now and then you see a woman who radiates a cleanliness that far transcends just a good bath. She actually looks "appetizing," and you know, whether you are across the room from her or very close up, she either is not troubled with underarm perspiration at all, or she has learned of the modern way to cope with it—5-Day Underarm Pads.

THEY come in a jar—a whole pile of them. One tiny 5-Day Pad does BOTH underarms instantly and keeps them dry and sweet for one to five days, depending upon the individual. Remember the name—5-Day Underarm Pads.

HOT weather brings many make-up and personal cleanliness problems. And there are many little tricks to save you time. I'm always glad to talk such problems over with you.
