TULELAKE ROTARY TOLD OF WILDLIFE

TULELAKE—The efforts of the U. S. biological survey to restore to wildlife the trumpeter swan, was dramatically told to Rotarians at their last meeting by Archie Hull, superintendent of the Tulelake game refuge.

Prior to coming here to succeed C. G. Fairchild, Hull was associated with the fish and game commission in Montana and at that time, two years ago, there were only 85 of that species of bird listed by the official census. The next year the number increased to about 200 but at the present is little larger. There are still those who persist in killing the birds even when threatened with heavy penalty. Hull was introduced by Otis Roper, program chairman.

Jerome Keefer, retiring secretary who has served since the club was organized in 1938, was presented with a gift from the club by Clark W. Fensler. Keefer and his family left last week for Roseville where he will serve as principal of one of the three elementary schools this year. He is succeeded as secretary by LaVern Hemstreet.

Visiting Rotarians were Clifford Reeves, A. H. Bussman, Johnnie Johnson and Lloyd Prock, Klamath Falls. Other guests included W. H. Gelzinus, SP roadmaster and John Takacs Jr., Tulelake.

Plans were discussed for receiving the governor of Rotary district No. 105 on September 1.

Olene

The little community of Olene has really been agog this week with the arrival on furlough of several service men. Captain George Kinney, Lieut. Oliver Kinney and Sergeant Leonard Kinney were visitors at the Rowe Kinney home. Seaman 1/2 Elmer Fisher and Seaman John Fisher are visiting their mother, Mrs. Lenora Fisher and sister, Mrs. Wilbert Anderson. The Fisher boys are stationed at Camp Farragut, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Barnes and Jimmie Dean, are visiting at the Marion Barnes' home for a couple of days. Jimmie leaves on Saturday evening for Fort Douglas, Utah.

George Stevenson Jr., returned last week from 4-H summer camp. Ann Stevenson returned the previous week from a week at Girl Scout camp, which was held at Camp Wildwood near Portland.

Big Contribution Made to Lake County By Forest Service

LAKEVIEW — The national forest contribution to Lake county for the fiscal year 1943 will be $26,836, according to Supervisor E. P. Cliff of the Fremont national forest service. This is the largest amount that has ever been paid to Lake county in any one year from national forest receipts and amounts to $11,113 more than the 1942 contribution. There are only three counties in the state of Oregon which will receive larger payments on account of national forest receipts than Lake. These are Lane, Klamath and Grant.

Poe Valley

The county ditch surveying crew was working here the last part of the week. The Union oil truck man was delivering gas and oil here Thursday.

Chet Barton is having some baled hay hauled to the cars at Olene. Pauline and Warren Roberts were callers at the Joe Nork ranch on Thursday. Emil Wells did some mechanical work for Vic Brown on Friday.

Clarence Webber is cutting his rye this week. Vic Brown has started to combine his grain this week. Paul Landry of the Home Fire Insurance company was a business caller here from Klamath Falls on Thursday.

The Donald Roberts family are remodeling and painting their home. Hallie Haines hauled his winter wood recently. Ben Tucker started to build a grainery. He is also doing a lot of grading in preparation for a lawn.

Keno

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Olsen and three children from Ponca City, Okla., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baldock. They expect to make their home in this community. They have two children of school age, and one child three years old.

Betty McAllister is visiting in Eugene at the home of Evelyn Reeves for a couple of weeks. The Reeves family lived in Keno for several months about two years ago. Betty is expected home the last of this week.

Mr. Elmo Howard plans to leave on Wednesday for Portland. Larry, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard, will receive medical attention at the Shriners' hospital while in the city.

Bly

Haying is underway at the nearby ranches, with a heavy crop reported. Shortage of labor, however, is very apparent. Some of the men employed in local sawmills have assisted on weekends.

The Bly Music and Dramatics association recently held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Dishno. The new officers elected are, president, Carl Raupach; vice president, Lester Cummings; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Vern Hannan. The September meeting of the club will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Raupach at the Ivory Pine mill.

Sunday school classes have been started at the Ivory Pine community hall on Sunday evenings. Rev. L. K. Johnson of Klamath Falls is in charge.

Rev. Johnson has been conducting regular Sunday evening church services there for several months. At the last service, Rev. and Mrs. Johnson sang a duet. The previous Sunday, the McMillan quartet sang special numbers. The quartet is composed of Misses Lenore, Mabel and Jessie McMillan and Hazel Lewis.

W. D. Bedard, associate entomologist, U. S. bureau of entomology, who has had his family with him at the Merrill Springs field laboratory, about 17 miles north of Bly, was in Klamath Falls on Monday. His wife, daughter Dorothy, and son Bill, are spending the summer with him at camp.

Mt. Laki

The community extends its deepest sympathy to the C. H. Young family in their bereavement, the death of Mrs. Young. Little Roger Thompson submitted to a tonsillectomy operation last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Casebier of Salem, Ore., are visiting with their son, Edwin Casebier and family. Hugh McClellan of Bakersfield, Calif., is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. McClellan. Mrs. Ethel Rudolph of Glendale, Ore., was greeting old friends here Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill and family are spending a few days at Diamond lake. Mrs. Grace Griffith of Klamath Falls spent the weekend at the home of her nephew, Clyde Griffith and family.

Jap Soldier Held In Restricted Area

TACOMA, Aug. 17 (AP)—Chief of Police Nort Wynn of Sumner revealed last night that last Wednesday he had taken into custody Pvt. Hagima Okura, 26, a Japanese and a former resident of Aigona, Wash., who now is a U. S. soldier.

It was the second instance this summer in which Japanese-American soldiers have been apprehended in the Puyallup valley without army permission. The valley is in the western Washington area from which all Japanese have been barred.

Utah's San Juan river flows eight and one-half miles to advance one linear mile.
