Fountain of Youth Visits Make Dodgers Well; They Beat Cardinals by 7 to 3

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The transformation of the Brooklyn Dodgers from an old men's club to a youths' society is going on from day to day in spite of the ridicule that has been heaped upon Branch Rickey for his trading, the changes are showing results.

How different the Dodgers look from the good old days can be exemplified in one sentence: they had Outfielder Frenchy Bordagaray playing third base last night.

But in beating the world champion St. Louis Cardinal 7-3 they also had a new first baseman, young Howard Schultz, a 6 feet 8 1/2 inch bean pole who handled 15 fielding chances successfully and contributed a double and a single to Brooklyn's attack on Mort Cooper and two other hurlers.

Afterward Rickey announced the acquisition of three more youths, 21-year-old Harold Gregg and 18-year-old Rex Barney, pitchers from Montreal in exchange for Max Macon and John Barkley, and 17-year-old catcher Joe Soskovic, fresh from a Brooklyn tryout camp.

The Cincinnati Reds captured their fifth triumph in three days by overriding the New York Giants 5-2 behind Johnny Vandermeer's eight-hit hurling and maintained their hold on second place.

In the other National league games Johnny Gee pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 5-1 decision over the Boston Braves, allowing only seven hits, and the Philadelphia Phillies nosed out the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in a night game with Schoolboy Rowe allowing only five safeties in gaining his 11th victory.

The New York Yankees, leading the American league, walked over the Chicago White Sox 7-0 with Hank Borowy pitching four-hit ball and his teammates shelling two Chicago chuckers for 14 blows.

The Washington Senators outslugged the Cleveland Indians to win 6-3 for Wilfred Lefebvre, the onetime Boston Red Sox hurler and handed the tribe its second, straight setback after winning eight in a row.

In the only other major league encounter scheduled the Boston Red Sox rode roughshod over the St. Louis Browns 9-0 to give Louis (Bobo) Newsom another defeat, his seventh unsuccessful start since coming into the American league after the rebellion among the Dodgers.

Manpower Lack Forces Indians Off Gridiron

Coaching Staff to Devote Energies To Army's Physical Fitness Program

PALO ALTO, Calif., Aug. 17 (AP)—Stanford's football Indians bit the dust today—war victims.

Stanford will not field a team this year—or probably for the duration of the war, for that matter—because there just aren't enough interested, able-bodied non-army men on the campus to make up a squad.

The official announcement last night said that "Stanford university cannot play its conference football schedule because of a lack of manpower on the campus. All games are cancelled."

Coach Marchie Schwartz and his staff will devote their energies to the army's physical fitness program at Stanford.

Six Service Men Favored In Golf Tilt

Boys in Uniform Have Big Incentive to Win Victory National Championships

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO, Aug. 17 (AP)—Six service men, members of a select group of 40 outstanding pros and amateurs in the victory national golf championship starting Friday, should be tabbed the favorites.

It will be quite an honor to win the 72-hole medal tournament, for the field is the finest assembled this year, containing 21 players who among them, have won every major title in America and Great Britain.

But the six men in uniform have an extra incentive. If one of them becomes champion he will take a fifth of the tournament's net proceeds for use at his post or station. That should figure about $6000 to $8000, or more.

The six service stars, any one of whom could finish in front in the final 36 holes Sunday, are Specialist Jimmy Thomson of the coast guard, stationed near San Diego, Calif.; Sgt. Vic Ghezzi of Fort Monmouth, N. J.; Sgt. Jim Turnesa of Staten Island, N. Y.; Lieut. (jg) Lawrence Little of the navy personnel detail at Hutchinson, Kas.; Pvt. Melvin (Chick) Harbert of Camp Grant, Ill.; and Frank Stranahan of the Nashville, Tenn., army air center.

Underdogs Battle Top Place Teams

By The Associated Press

It's the first division against the underdogs again this week as the Pacific Coast league season continues down the home stretch.

Portland, Seattle, in fourth and third places respectively draw seventh and eighth place clubs for series this week. The Beavers will open against seventh-place San Diego today on the Padres' field, and the Rainiers tomorrow have a chance to fatten their percentage against the last place Sacramento Solons.

In the rest of the league, Los Angeles, 13 1/2 games ahead of second place San Francisco, will engage fifth-place Hollywood, while San Francisco starts the first half of a 14-game series with Oakland in Seal stadium. Both these games are listed for today.

Terranova to Defend New NBA Title

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 17 (AP)

Fighting Phil Terranova, new NBA featherweight champion of the world, plans to defend his title against all comers.

Both he and his manager, Bobby Gleason, made this plan last night after Terranova knocked out defending champion Jackie Callura of Ontario, Canada, in the eighth round of a scheduled 15-round bout before 8500 spectators.

Callura forced the fighting in the early rounds and had a slight edge, but Terranova appeared to grow stronger as the fight progressed while his opponent tired fast after the fifth round.

A series of hard rights and lefts to the body and head softened Callura in the seventh and sent him to the canvas for a count of nine early in the eighth. Although the champion jumped to his feet at the count he was no match for the hard punching challenger from the Bronx and went down for good from a crushing right uppercut to the jaw in the first minute of the round. Callura weighed 124 1/2 and Terranova 124.

Stan Musial, Luke Appling Lead Batters

NEW YORK, Aug. 17 (AP)

Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals and Luke Appling of the Chicago White Sox are holding determinedly onto the batting leaderships of the two major leagues.

During the last week, Appling, veteran shortstop, passed the 2000 hit mark coveted by most long-time players in the major leagues and raised his batting average three points to .336 to continue nine points in front of Rookie Dick Wakefield of Detroit at the top of the American league.

In the National league, star outfielder of the world champion Cardinals, also boosted his average eight points to .353 and maintained a big advantage over his closest rival, Billy Herman of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who came out of his slump sufficiently to gain seven points and a .325 percentage.

Much of the interest in the senior circuit, however, centered on the 27-game batting streak of Harry Walker of the Cardinals, who failed to make the select society of top hitters by one point.

No Old Faces In Gridiron Squad at Preflight School

MORAGA, Calif., Aug. 17 (AP)

Coach Spike Nelson looked over 80 football candidates at the St. Mary's preflight school and didn't recognize a face.

"It's all right," he told the navy men. "We'll get acquainted in a few days."

Lt. Nelson, Iowa star who coached at Yale in 1941, planned to trim the squad to 35 or 40 in a couple of weeks. The first game will be September 25 with College of the Pacific at Stockton.

Pro Gridders Reach Into Texas For Material

NEW YORK, Aug. 17 (AP)

Both of New York city's professional football teams, the Dodgers and the Giants, reached deep into the heart of Texas today for gridiron athletes.

The Giants announced the signing of Emery Nix, outstanding passer with Texas Christian last year, while the Dodgers came up with Ken Heineman, a former Texas School of Mines tosser.

Yes... Quality Recapping by experts Who Know How!

You know, doing quality recapping is just as much of a science as building a quality tire... like a General.

That's why we pride ourselves on the quality of our recap work. Why we have invested so much money in getting the very latest equipment. Why we have carefully built up an organization of trained tire experts... who have the experience and the knowledge required to do recapping right.

Yes, in our own shop, we actually have a "tire factory"... giving new life to worn tires... adding new treads that assure you of dependable extra mileage.

If you are nearing the time when you think you'll need recapping, let us inspect your tires now to make sure that you won't pass the danger point... when it will be too late.

Don't gamble your precious tires. Have them recapped at Quality Tire Headquarters! No certificate required for passenger tire recapping. Just come in.
