"Why did you go to those strange people?" asked a friend of a returned missionary. "Did they ask you to come?" "No, they did not ask me to come," "Then why did you go?"
The missionary said: "When I was young and a student in college, in going to my room one night I saw a bright light in a house that I passed. The wind had blown the curtain too close to the gas jet and it was in flames. But because this family had not invited me to warn them, and not wishing to disturb their peace, I passed on to my room."
"You did no such thing," cried the other. "You wasted no time in crying to them that their house was on fire."
"Certainly," said the missionary. "And the people of the strange land did not invite me, but I knew their danger with-out Christ and I knew the peace and joy that comes with knowing Him. I was bound, knowing these wonderful things, to tell them."
You are invited to come to the little church where men and women, boys and girls, find a joy unspeakable and peace that is real and lasting.

First Church of Christ Scientist
Tenth and Washington streets. This church, a branch of The Mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Mass., holds services each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.
"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 22.
The Golden Text will be "Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite" (Ps. 147:5).
Among the citations which will comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations" (Ps. 145: 10, 13).
The Lesson-Sermon also will include the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God, the divine Principle of man, and man in God's likeness are inseparable, harmonious and eternal. . . God and man are not the same, but in the order of divine Science, God and man coexist and are eternal. God is the parent Mind, and man is God's spiritual offspring" (p. 336).
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. A meeting which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing is held every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.
A free Christian Science reading room is located at 1023 Main street, where the Bible, writings by Mary Baker Eddy, and authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

Modoc Point Baptist Community Mission
Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Worship service, 11:15 a. m.
In Sunday school, Sunday morning, Mrs. Zell is planning a very special story for the opening, something which will cause us to think a little.
The studies in the different classes are becoming very interesting, more so now than when we started in at the beginning of this quarter. Come and study the word of God with us, and I am sure that we will all learn something new together.
For the worship service, the gospel message will be one of strange as well as interesting material to all of us. Everybody is either working for, waiting for, or looking forward to "pay day," so we will discuss this in the light of God's word this morning. The greatest day of the life of any person, the one that will bring the greatest happiness, or sometimes to one that will bring the greatest sorrow. Let us see what it will bring for us, come and hear the discussion on this timely topic.
All are invited, and all are cordially invited. We will be looking for you in the school house.

First Presbyterian Church
The First Presbyterian church is located on North Sixth and Pine streets. The pastor is the Rev. Theodore Smith, residence and telephone, 435 North Second street, 5477 and 7311, at the church. The organist is Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchellmore.
The morning worship opens at 11 o'clock with the organ prelude, "Communion," by Battiste. The procession is "Fair Lord Jesus," arranged by Willis. The choir response to the pastoral greeting is Clonahan's "Grace and Peace." After the call to worship, congregation and choir sing "The Doxology," and, after the invocation and Lord's Prayer, "The Gloria Patri." There is a special period for prayer for the armed forces, which opens with the choir singing, "Hear Our Prayer, O Lord," and closes with all singing the last stanza of "America." "Our Father's God, to Thee, Author of Liberty." The choir offertory is Schumann's "We Give Thee But Thine Own," and the organ offertory is Mozart's "Andante." There will be a special musical number as usual. The pastor will speak on "That Great Little Word." The service closes with the benediction, the choir dismissal, "Three-fold Amen," and the organ postlude, "Postlude in D," by Scar-molin.
The Bible school opens at 9:45. Every effort is made to be prompt and special award pins are given for perfect attendance. Bibles are always counted and special hymns with special messages selected. All classes are being maintained during the summer months.
The young people meet at 7 o'clock. There is no evening service during the month of August.
