

Rainbow Group Has Formal Dance

Tulelake Organization Has Dance in Malin; Wishing Well Is Center of Attraction

TULELAKE — In a garden setting in the Malin Broadway hall, guests of the Tulelake assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, danced Friday evening, August the thirteenth, at the third annual formal ball.

Centering the hall which was fenced with a low picket enclosure, flower covered, was a wishing well. Daisies floated on the water and wishes were made on dimes and quarters and dollars that later went into a fund for the Tulelake chapter of the Red Cross. Part of the proceeds of the dance also went into the Red Cross fund and a portion is being used by the girls for the purchase of war bonds.

Baldy Evans dance band furnished the music.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Olney Rudd, Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Wiese. Mrs. C. C. Coulson is mother advisor of the assembly.

Serving on the dance committee were Joyce Turnbaugh and Fanny Adams and Eleanor Kandra in charge of decorations. The committee expresses appreciation of the courtesy and co-operation of those who helped in making possible the success of the dance, those who donated flowers and who donated so generously to the wishing well.

The assembly officers announce also that the official visit of Mrs. Cornelia P. Cooper, Palo Alto, supreme deputy of the Order of Rainbow for Girls in California to have been made this month will be postponed until later.
