Sunday was home run day in the major leagues. A total of 23 round-trippers, including two with the bases loaded, were clouted into the bleachers to boost the home run production for the year to 678—340 in the American and 338 in the National league.

Twelve of the 23 circuit blows were made in the American loop and six of the 12 were hammered at Detroit where baseball's largest crowd of the year—58,404, including 54,522 paid—chortled in glee as the Tigers walloped the first-place New York Yankees twice, 12 to 0 and 8 to 3.

The Yanks committed the hard to believe total of 10 errors in the two games, seven in the opener. But these misplays had nothing to do with the final outcome since the Tigers backed up effective pitching by Dizzy Trout and Tommy Bridges with a 27-hit attack that included six doubles and four homers.

One of Detroit's homers was Rudy York's 26th of the year and his 13th of the month.

A grand slam homer by Catcher Walker Cooper sparked the St. Louis Cardinals to a double win over the Boston Braves, 6 to 1 and 5 to 1.

Cooper's feat came in the ninth inning of the opener and helped Rookie Al Brazle to his fourth straight victory. Harry Gumbert made his first start since July 23 in the nightcap and gained credit for the win, although replaced by Harry Brecheen in the sixth.

Vince Di Maggio of Pittsburgh, also socked a grand slam homer at Brooklyn, but it availed nothing since the Dodgers took both ends of a twin bill from the Pirates, 6 to 1 and 8 to 6.

Tony Cuccinello socked a ninth inning homer that sent the Philadelphia Athletics down to their 17th straight defeat, only three short of the American league record. The four-base poke gave the Chicago White Sox a 3 to 2 victory in the afterpiece of a twin bill after Edgar Smith won the opener, 5 to 2.

Cincinnati tightened its hold on second place in the National league by beating the Phillies twice, 4 to 3 and 20 to 6.

With their manager, Mel Ott, home in bed from an attack of the flu, the New York Giants took it on the chin twice from the Chicago Cubs, 6 to 2 and 4 to 3.

Cleveland beat the Boston Red Sox twice, 6 to 0 and 7 to 6 in 13 innings.

The St. Louis Browns won their sixth in a row by beating Washington, 8 to 5, in the first game of a doubleheader. The Senators ended the streak by winning the nightcap, 4 to 2, in 10 innings.

Five Safe After Parachuting From Navy Airplane

SEATTLE, Aug. 23 (AP)—Five men who parachuted from a navy plane in the Mount Rainier area last Thursday all have been found safe, the 13th naval district announced yesterday.

The plane has not been located and headquarters gave no reason why the five bailed out. The plane was en route from Alameda, Calif., to the naval air station here.

The announcement said the pilot and radioman made their way to a ranger station Thursday. The co-pilot was located Friday and the two passengers Saturday "thirty miles east of Seattle."

SO THERE!

SALMON, Ida., (AP)—Mrs. Joe Bohney, a great-grandmother, appealed to police and to her husband when a porcupine invaded her garden.

One policeman had appendicitis. The other said he didn't have his gun. Hubby was in his be-kind-to-animals mood.

So great-grandmother Bohney whacked the animal with a shovel and threw it into the river herself.

LOSER—BY ONE FOOT

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Henry Bresler, worried about losing his $1170, sat down on a street corner and took off a shoe, intending to put the money in it.

A woman snatched the cash and ran, he told police.

Bresler, with one shoe off and one shoe on, couldn't catch her.

Sammy Byrd Takes High Golf Crown

Ex-Outfielder for Yanks Wins First Major Title, Victory Championship

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 23 (AP)—Sam Byrd now is a two-letter man in major sports—baseball and golf.

The 35-year-old Philadelphian, who got the golf "bug" in 1936 when he won the annual baseball tournament in Florida, walked off with the top links' crown of 1943 yesterday—the Chicago victory national championship.

It was the first major title won by the ex-outfielder for the New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds and established him as one of the top golfers in the country. It took Byrd seven years to really convince himself that he had the talent required to keep pace with the game's top tournament followers. . . . Pros began recognizing his ability last year when he won the Greensboro, N. C., open and finished fourth in the Augusta masters.

Byrd, using a new putter obtained from Jimmy Demaret of Detroit as a potent weapon and displaying remarkable accuracy on the bottle-neck fairways, whipped up a 72-hole total of 277, seven strokes under par for the tree-studded Beverly course. Craig Wood, the "duration" U. S. open champion, finished second with 282, while two army men, Staff Sergeant Jim Turnesa of Staten Island, N. Y., and Pvt. Chick Harbert of Camp Grant, Ill., placed at 283.

Odds Swing Toward Zivic as Montgomery Fight Day Nears

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23 (AP) Fritzie Zivic found an increasing number of fight followers who agreed with him today that he'll flatten Bob Montgomery in 10 rounds or less at Shibe park, Connie Mack's rest home for aged ball players, tonight.

The odds, once 4-1 in favor of the New York and Pennsylvania lightweight champion, slipped to 9-5 and, with Zivic's cohorts wending their way through the Alleghenies from Pittsburgh, were likely to drop farther by ring time.

DAFFY DODGERS

BROOKLYN, Aug. 23 (AP)—Players may come and players may go, but the Brooklyn Dodger trait for daffiness apparently will go on forever. Rookie Gene Hermanski was tagged out in the sixth inning of yesterday's opener when he and Billy Herman tried to occupy second base simultaneously.

OUT FOR DURATION

PASADENA, Calif., Aug. 23 (AP)—Football is out this fall at all Southern California conference colleges except the University of Redlands.

Occidental, Whittier and California Institute of Technology have decided to discontinue the pigskin sport, and Whittier says it will drop basketball and spring sports.

PORTLAND, Aug. 23 (AP)—Albina maintained its lead in the Portland War Industries Baseball league yesterday by blanking Buckler, 12-0. Marine Electric remained a step behind, defeating Commercial Iron, 3-2.

All Star Game Gets $20,000 for Service Men's Equipment

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23 (AP)—More than $20,000 has been raised to buy sports equipment for fighting men in the South Pacific by a baseball game in which a team of former major league stars now in the armed services defeated the combined Los Angeles and Hollywood clubs of the Pacific Coast league, 8-2.

Approximately 22,000 fans overflowed Wrigley field stands to watch the spectacle Saturday. Joltin' Joe Di Maggio made four hits in the same number of attempts, two of them home runs. His former teammate with the New York Yankees, Red Ruffing, pitched the first four innings and permitted the coast players a single run.

Marlene Dietrich's Daughter Marries

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23 (AP)—Married in Hollywood Congregational church, Maria Elizabeth Sieber, 18-year-old daughter of Screen Actress Marlene Dietrich, and Dean Goodman, drama student, are honeymooning today.

"We broke that off some time ago."

Dr. James Hamilton Lash, pastor, performed the ceremony late Saturday. Goodman and Miss Dietrich met two months ago, in a Hollywood play.

Ten Injured as Bus Tire Blows Out

WOODLAND, Calif., Aug. 23 (AP)—Ten persons were injured when a tire on a northbound Pacific Greyhound bus blew out four miles south of Arbuckle yesterday.

Mrs. Lorita Anderson, 24, Seattle, was seriously injured.

Mrs. Myrtle Walden, 48, of 1314 Ocean Beach, Longview, Wash., and Mrs. Goldea De Carlo, 32, of Vancouver, Wash., were brought to a hospital here. Physicians said their condition was satisfactory. QUACK OUTFIT

RAMAPO, N. Y., (AP)—Chief of Police Abe Stern was summoned by a group of women who nervously reported seeing a secret army—clad in ghostly white—assemble in a nearby valley, execute a series of marches, then disappear.

The chief trained his field glasses on the valley. White objects began to move and the chief relaxed.

The army turned out to be 200 geese and ducks—walking on a convalescent home lawn picking up crumbs left by patients.

Suds Move Up Coast Ball Trail

Rainiers Take Double Go From Secs; Seals Drop Two Tilts to Oakland

By The Associated Press

Seattle, plugging along up the Pacific coast league trail, took a big step forward yesterday, sweeping a doubleheader from Sacramento while the second place San Francisco Seals above them dropped two against Oakland.

Yesterday's 4-3 and 4-0 victories gave the Rainiers four games over the weekend. They won Saturday, 4-1 and 5-3. Pitcher Frank Tincup, serving as a pinchhitter, was the hero of Sunday's first game. He cracked out a ninth-inning single to score Leonard Gabrielson with the winning run after two were out. Byron Speece whitewashed the Solons with four hits in the second game.

The Portland Beavers hung tightly to fourth place in taking both ends of a doubleheader from San Diego, 5-0 and 6-2. The Padres dropped into seventh place as a result of the trimmings. The Beavers pushed across four runs in the final inning to break a 2-2 deadlock in the nightcap. The Padres outhit the Beavers 9 to 7 in the first game but couldn't connect with men on bases.

Oakland hung it on San Francisco, 3-0 and 7-2. Pitchers Chet Jones and Italo Chelini allowed but six hits in the two games.

Los Angeles and Hollywood split a doubleheader, the Stars winning the first, 3-1, and the Angels grabbing the nightcap, 6-3.

They are: Oregon State-Washington, October 16; Oregon-Idaho, October 30; Oregon-Washington, November 6; Oregon State-Washington State, November 20.
