

Awkward A's Hammer on Losing Streak Record; Chisox Battle Tonight

Sports Briefs

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—Catching up on two weeks' mail . . . From PFC Jim Reed, former Topeka, Kas., and Burlington, Ia., sports writer, now stationed at the "Homesick, I mean Home-stead" Fla. air base: "It would do your heart good to see the men reaching for the newspapers after work and turning first to the sports page. Sports come to be the war to most of them."

From Lieut. Dave Zinkoff, former Philadelphia sports announcer, somewhere overseas: "Held three quiz nights aboard ship and the questions on sports were the most popular. Nightly the lads screamed for baseball scores. If you have an opportunity to mail me a paper, do so, as I have not seen a paper in three weeks."

From Sgt. Cyrus Horween, also overseas: "Is there any possibility of obtaining box scores of games played in the Dakota league of 1921 and 1922, the South Dakota league of 1920 and the North and South Dakota league of 1923?" (APO address on request if you have 'em.)

SPORTSPURRI

The football Giants and Dodgers will occupy the same training camp at Bear Mountain, N. Y., but will only meet in the dining room . . . No doubt any National league records they set there will be tabled . . . Monte Pearson, former Yankees' pitcher, is toying with the idea of taking up pro boxing . . .

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Henry A. Sullivan, Salem (Mass.) Evening News: "The coming football season promises to be remembered more for its long walks than its long runs." . . . (May be so, Henry, but there'll still be a few players who can run.)

IN THE ROUGH

When Ivan Dibble was playing Wayne McCoy in the finals of the Topeka, Kas., country club golf championship a few weeks ago Dibble's ball lodged against the rim of a sand trap . . . Ivan gave it a terrific whack with his sand wedge, and the ball curved upward and landed in the pocket of his sports shirt . . . Golf course lawyers at once raised the question of whether it was an unplayable lie or whether Dibble had lost the hole because the ball had touched his person . . . The dispute was settled, explains Don Pierce, when Dibble not only conceded the hole but dropped the match to boot—which, at least, gives Topeka's sports writing pro footballer the prize for the season's worst pun.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Gunder Haegg, who came here aboard a tanker, will get a plane ride home from Scotland when he gets that on the return trip . . . Dick Wakefield wants to pilot a Flying Fortress but may have to continue shagging flies because the air force isn't interested in fellows with hay fever . . . Young Bussey, former Louisiana State U. and Chicago Bears ball carrier, got a look at the navy's amphibious "Ducks" after arriving at the Fort Pierce, Fla., navy training base and remarked that they reminded him of the car his old Bears' roommate, Bulldog Turner, used to drive.

The Philadelphia Athletics seem to know enough about baseball to understand that record books can be opened either from the front or the back.

Whether this is "book larnin'" or baseball skill isn't worth arguing, because you would have a hard time imputing any other kind of baseball talent to the awkward A's and, left to their own devices, they have a chance to set a modern major league record.

This record, of course, is for losing games. Connie Mack's meandering troupe lost two more to the Chicago White Sox last night 7-6 and 7-0 to make 19 consecutive defeats.

This is just one short of the longest losing streak in the big leagues since the turn of the century and the A's not only have a chance to tie this time-worn standard tonight, but to wipe it out. They are scheduled for another twilight-night doubleheader at Chicago.

If they hurdle this obstacle in record-breaking style, the 1943 Athletics will have carved a niche in diamond history and they might even pass the longest team of all-time, the 1899 Cleveland club in the National league which tossed off 24 consecutive defeats.

The New York Yankees bounced back against the Detroit Tigers to win 4-1 with Bill Zuber pitching six-hit ball and Joe Gordon and Nick Eteen each driving in two runs. Gordon's came on his 12th home run.

The Boston Red Sox beat the Cleveland Indians 9-7 in spite of home runs by Jeff Heath and Roy Cullenbine and a four-run eighth inning rally by the Tribe.

Weather forced postponement of the second game of double-headers scheduled at both Detroit and Cleveland.

Washington's struggling Senators rallied for five runs in the tenth inning to beat the St. Louis Browns 10-5 after Stan Spence had hit two home runs in the regulation distance, but the Browns beat their former teammate, Johnny Niggeling, 2-1 in the second game.

In the only game in the National league the St. Louis Cardinals breezed to a 14-5 triumph over the Boston Braves with a 19-hit attack in which all the Redbirds shared.

Changes Possible Within Upper Brackets; Next to Top Seals Watch Rainiers

By The Associated Press

The Pacific Coast league season has reached the point where it is probably safe to proclaim Los Angeles as the 1943 pennant winner.

But it begins to appear that there may be some changes among the first division teams before the circuit closes down in three weeks.

San Francisco's adherents have broached the possibility that the Seals' security in second place—now that they are almost certainly out of first place running—faces the threat of the rejuvenated Seattle Indians.

The third-place Rainiers, late season comers, gained five full games on San Francisco last week as the Seals lost five of the seven-game series with troublesome Oakland, whose pitchers have the knack for knocking over the cross-bay rivals regularly.

San Francisco, trailing Los Angeles by 15½ games, meets the Oaks in Oakland this week for another seven-game affair, while Seattle opens a series with the fourth-place Beavers of Portland tomorrow. Seattle and Portland play three games in Portland, then switch to Seattle.

The Los Angeles schedule calls for eight games with Hollywood. San Diego offers its followers its final home stand, against eighth place Sacramento.

Fritz Knows All Answers After Taking Beating From Montgomery, Beau Jack

By SID FEDER

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24 (AP)—Just as a friendly bit of advice to an old punching partner, Fritz Zivic spoke out from behind his cut left eye today to tip Beau Jack that he can expect the worst when he tries to win the world lightweight championship back from Bob Montgomery September 10.

This, no doubt, makes it official. Having fought 'em both, Fritz probably knows just about all the answers about this quiz program. What's more, a crowd of 21,452, who attended a punch-party in Shibe park last night, will agree with Bob unanimously, after the way Bob practically raised lumps on him in winning a ten-round decision. Representing one of the dozen largest crowds in Philadelphia fight history, the customers chipped in to a gross "pot" of $60,924.50 to see the Bobcat beat the ears off Fritz—at Fritz's own game, in fighting. And if O' Flatnose thought he knew the entire score about close-up stuff, he learned in a hurry that the Philadelphia flailer is infringing on his copyright, as well as adding a few new touches he thought up.

Bob just stuck to Fritz as close as the landlord on the first of the month, used the old Zivic gags of short, slicing uppercuts and rough body treatment, and came home six rounds to three with one even, on The Associated Press score card.

Stimson Order Precipitates College Rush From Gridiron

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—It is only 10 days ago that Secretary of War Stimson reiterated that army trainees could not participate in college athletics. Since then schools have fluttered from the football bandwagon with all the grace of nickels spilling from a broken slot machine.

Six weeks ago The Associated Press could find only 189 colleges which had given up the sport since December 7, 1941. But since the beginning of August, 47 more have made their decisions, approximately half of them in the past week.

Such name schools as Stanford, Syracuse and Santa Clara made clean breaks when their soldier-guests definitely were banned from campus sports. Even Alabama, where rival coaches have intimated that talent always was as plentiful as cotton, has hinted that its Crimson Tide will be only a ripple this fall—if it has a team at all.

The Southern conference decided Saturday to drop all eligibility rules in an effort to help the 16 members of the circuit along by making any available service man a team prospect. Virginia Tech, however, decided that wasn't enough and gave up all sports for the coming year.

Howard College May Take Up Grid Sport This Year

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 24 (AP)—Howard college, Birmingham Baptist school formerly in the Dixie conference, may reverse the football trend.

With the larger schools dropping the grid sport, Lent S. Brewster, assistant to the president, said the outlook was favorable for resumption of football at Howard.

He said the school has 40 or 50 youngsters, most of them in the V-12 navy class, anxious for a tryout. Howard dropped football after the 1941 season.

Willamette Will Field Grid Team

SALEM, Aug. 24 (AP)—Willamette university has definitely decided to field a football team this fall, and now the question is: Are any other colleges going to follow suit?

Whitman college may, for one, and Willamette tentatively has lined up a two-game series with her.

Another home-and-home series is being arranged with the Astoria navy training base team. A fifth game may be scheduled November 20 with the University of Oregon.

Other contests are sought.

Baugh Ready But Doubtful

Ace Passer on Hand For All Star's Battle; Coach Not Depending on Him

By DAVE HOFF

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 24 (AP)—Mr. Samuel Baugh of Texas is present and says he's ready for duty, but the Washington Redskins aren't counting too much on his effectiveness against the college all-stars tomorrow night.

Coach Dutch Bergman admitted today that he couldn't depend too much on his ace passer, although he tried to soften his own feelings by boasting about Baugh's two stand-ins, Leroy Zimmerman and Rookie Frank Akins, who will get the call in that order when Baugh's lame back forces him to retire to the bench in Dwyer stadium.

Baugh presumably felt that rare misery after catching cold in his back muscles at the Redskins' San Diego training base (it apparently can happen even in California).

Bergman's strategy plan now is to have Baugh in there as soon as the Redskins are on the offensive—at the opening kickoff if the Washingtons get to receive. They'll gun hard for the points potentially stored in Baugh's arm or for the touchdowns that may come by running should the All-Stars' defense—primed for Sammy's slings—go awry.

"We've been working this team faster than we would normally," the coach of the National Football league champions declared. "We've got 13 games to go, too. This is the All-Stars' only one—they can give it everything they've got, and I understand they have plenty."

The uncertainty over Baugh's effectiveness apparently can cast no damper on the game, for a sellout crowd of 50,000 is assured. The All-Stars, basking in the favorite's role, have ended heavy drills and are taking life easy.

Kirkwood May Get Chance to Battle Hagen in Golf Go

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24 (AP)—If Joe Kirkwood, the Huntingdon valley trick shot artist still wants to play Walter Hagen, he may have his chance October 3 at a Red Cross benefit tournament over the Torresdale-Frankford Country club course here.

Henry A. Hurst, who is arranging the tournament, said he was "certain" Hagen would play and that he was getting in touch with Kirkwood, who offered to bet $2000 he could beat The Hag following a dispute at the Ryder cup matches in Detroit two weeks ago.

Kahut-Walker Winner to Get Chance at Fame

PORTLAND, Aug. 24 (AP)—The winner of the Joe Kahut-Jim Walker bout here Friday will be promised a chance at a prominent west coast fighter.

Promoter Joe Waterman said he would match the victor in a main event, probably against Jack Chase, recognized in California as the coast welterweight champion, or Archie Moore, San Diego.

The bout between Kahut, Woodburn farm youth, and Walker, Cleveland negro, is scheduled for 10 rounds. Another 10-rounder pairs Joe Dolan, Portland, with Nat Corum, Honolulu.

Stan Musial Tops Batmen In National

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals continued his merry way at the top of the National league hitters this week, but Luke Appling, veteran shortstop of the Chicago White Sox, slipped out of the American league lead.

Appling, who was on top with a .336 average last Tuesday, skidded seven points during the week and it was enough to drop him into second place behind rookie Dick Wakefield, Detroit's flying tiger, who moved up slightly, from .327 to .330.

The same slump that slowed Appling also bogged down Hi Young, teammate, Guy Curt-right, who dropped from .309 to an even .300 although he was able to hold third place in the American league standings.

Billy Herman of Brooklyn held steadily in second place in the National league with .329, twenty-three points behind Musial's pace-making .352.
