  - Charles Truman Boynton, adult, June, 1926.
  - Curtis Edgar Putnam, 10, August, 1930.
  - George Donald Combs, 10, August, 1931.
  - Ben Swanson, 33, May, 1932.
  - Lawrence Vernon Aubrey, 10, August, 1935.
  - John Oddo, 65, September, 1937.
  - Cassie Geraldine Ross, 35, July, 1939.
  - Edna Duffy George, April, 1941.
  - Mavis Marlene George, April, 1941.
  - Gertie Barkley Duffy, April, 1941.
  - Theodore McKinley Walker, April, 1941.
  - Thomas G. Smith, adult, April, 1941.
  - William A. Gray, May, 1942.
  - Rocco Mario Manera, September, 1942.
  - Eugene Charles Jackson, August, 1943.

UMBRELLA BIRD
The tropical American umbrella bird gets its name from a mushroom-shaped crest of feathers on top of its head, which it can raise at will.

There will be three birthdays celebrated, those of Annette Hall, Stella Persell, and Ursal Bratton. Those not being able to attend, are asked to call Mrs. Lewis on Tuesday evening after 7 o'clock.

Sojourners Picnic—The Sojourners will hold a picnic in Moore park on Wednesday, August 25, at 12 o'clock noon. Members should bring table service and sandwiches.

Winema Club—The Winema club of the Pythian Sisters will meet at the home of Mrs. John Fugill, 2124 Ogden, Friday, August 27, at 1 p. m., for a picnic. A potluck luncheon will be served. Visiting sisters are welcome.

Midland Grange—The Midland grange will meet at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday. The ladies are asked to bring cake or cookies and ice cream will be furnished.

Pioneer Schoolmates—The Pioneer Schoolmates club will meet with Mrs. Clarence Kirkpatrick at her home near Malin for a potluck dinner at 12:30 p. m. Friday, August 27.

Surgical Dressings Postponed
The chairman of the Altamont district wishes to inform all the Altamont women of the Red Cross surgical dressings unit that the workroom will be temporarily closed from August 25 until further notice. All the women are requested to attend the main workroom in the city.

Talks to Teachers

Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, will attend the joint city-county teachers' meeting on August 30 in Klamath Falls.

MAJOR LOWMEN VISITS KLAMATH

Major Jennings D. Lowmen, who was stationed here as a sergeant in the army recruiting service from 1927 to 1934, is stopping off in Klamath Falls for several days on his way from Washington, where he has been stationed for some time, to San Francisco.

Major Lowmen served as an enlisted man for 25 years, and saw service in France and Germany in the last war. Following that, before assignment to recruiting service, he was stationed in the Canal Zone and in the Philippines. At the beginning of the present war, he was commissioned a captain in the rank of sergeant.

He has bought a home in Hot Springs, and in addition still owns the house he lived in when he was on recruiting duty here. He and Mrs. Lowmen and their daughter plan to make their home here when the war ends.

FUNERAL

ORIE SMITH
The funeral service for the late Oris Smith, who passed away in this city on Sunday afternoon, August 22, will take place from the chapel of Ward's Klamath Funeral home, 925 High street, on Wednesday, August 25, at 2 p. m. The Rev. A. Theodore Smith, D. D., of the First Presbyterian church will officiate. Commitment services and interment will follow in Linkville cemetery. Friends are invited to attend.

HE CAUGHT IT
SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—William Stevens said all he wanted was a striped bass. Instead, he hooked a blonde swimming with her boy friend—an army sergeant who didn't like it. Both men were charged with disturbing the peace, but were released—after Stevens was warned to watch where he tosses his hooks hereafter.

SCHOOL CHIEF TO ATTEND MEETING

Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, will be in Klamath Falls Monday, August 30, to participate in a joint city and county teachers' meeting to be held that day. Other out of town speakers will be Dr. Frank Parr, executive secretary of the Oregon State Teachers' association from Portland and Joy Hills of the state department of education from Salem.

Several local school officials, too, will participate in the program which will last all day.

RESTLESS EARTH

The earth isn't the solid, inert mass it is often thought to be, for earthquake recording instruments show that the earth's surface is never at rest.
