

COUNCIL TALKS DANGERS WITH WEED BURNING

Residents were asked Monday night by the council to cooperate with the fire department and clear grass and weeds away from outbuildings and houses so there will be no danger when the department burns off weeds.

The fire department burns off grounds as a service to property owners, lessening the danger from grass fires, but it is dangerous unless the weeds are properly cleared from buildings, the council declared.

The police committee was empowered to purchase a new motorcycle for the police department, using money budgeted for that purpose. The old one, a 1936 model, will be turned in on the price of the new one.

Jim Kerns Jr., was appointed property officer for the local office of civilian defense, and will be in charge of civilian defense fire-fighting property. The appointment was confirmed by the council.

The new contract with the Humane Society was discussed at some length, and was referred to the police judge with power to act after a question arose as to the method of payment.

BEEF PROBLEM KINGMAN ARMY AIR BASE, ARIZ.

—Aerial gunners, utilizing jeeps for cowponies, developed a new roundup technique when 50 cattle wandered onto the gunnery range.

The motorized cowponies rode herd successfully on all but one, which held its ground.

A wrecker with a makeshift hoisting harness whisked it to safe ground—and Kingman gunners went back to work.

USE MEAT-STRETCHING HAMBURGERS ON PICNICS
By GAYNOR MADDOX
Now with coffee flowing freely again, thoughts of backyard grills and hamburgers with skillful meat stretching are in order.

Meat-Stretching Hamburgers (Makes 6 Large or 12 Small Cakes)
Two cups soft enriched bread-crumbs, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 3 tablespoons fat, 1 pound chopped beef, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1½ teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon paprika,

1 egg, slightly beaten, 2 tablespoons flour, ½ cup rich milk or thin cream.

Soak crumbs in milk 10 minutes. Sauté onion in 1 tablespoon fat until light brown. Add to meat with seasoning and slightly beaten egg. Add soaked bread crumbs and mix well with fork. Flour hands and shape meat mixture into 6 large or 12 small cakes. Cook on both sides over grill or under broiler, or sauté in frying pan about 8 minutes until well browned. Baste with fat.

Here's another backyard grill treat that goes well with either iced or hot coffee. Make the coffee in a clean pot, and use at least 1 tablespoon for the cup. Cut crusts from bread. Spread lightly with a little mustard. Make into sandwiches, filling with thin slices of American cheese. Press together and fry in fat on both sides.

Serve a dish of raw carrot sticks, radishes and scallions ready to eat with the grilled specialties. Also a large bowl of potato salad—everybody's favorite. Here's a simple and delicious recipe.

French dressing, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1 teaspoon scraped onion, 1 tablespoon finely chopped dill pickle, mayonnaise or salad dressing.

Boil potatoes in jackets until tender but still firm. Drain at once. Peel, dice, and mix with well-seasoned French dressing. Let stand until cold. Add the parsley, onion and dill pickle and enough mayonnaise or salad dressing to moisten well. Serve in a large bowl lined with crisp lettuce or other salad greens.
