

YAMHILL MAN KILLED FIGHTING IN NEW GUINEA

Word has been received here by relatives that Private Loren R. Allen, 27, of Yamhill, Ore., was killed in action in New Guinea on July 29.

Private Allen has visited in Klamath Falls several times and has many friends and relatives here. He also lived here when he was a small boy.

Among his relatives here are Mrs. Harriet Baird, his grandmother; Mrs. Ralph Aubrey, Mrs. Robert Steers, and Mrs. Raymond Steers, who are aunts. An uncle, Wayne Baird, also lives in Klamath Falls.

His wife and 10 months old daughter of Portland and his mother, Mrs. R. W. Wittenberg of Yamhill, are spending this week with relatives in Klamath Falls.

Effective Date Set For Stove Ration

August 24 has been declared the effective date of the order rationing stoves, the war price and ration board said today. This is the first day that boards may issue certificates to consumers.

From September 1 on, all orders accepted by manufacturers, distributors or dealers must be accompanied by certificates, or acknowledgments, and must be filled in order of receipt. Dealers may register with the board on September 1, 2 and 3.

Dealers must have registered by September 3 in order to transfer rationed stoves after this date.

HOME LINE

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Rat, a large shepherd dog, lived at the pound 14 months, and liked the food.

Released to a family several miles away, Rat was back the next day.

Then the poundmaster gave him to a farm family 40 miles away.

Ten days later Rat came back. They're all like that, said the poundmaster.

OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

WRITES POEM— Friends in Klamath Falls have received letters from Staff Sgt. Larry Lauture, stationed in New Guinea, and he writes in a descriptive poetic vein that vividly describes part of life on the islands:

"I thought that I would write a line.

It seems I'm in poetic mood,
So if it's sloppy, please don't brood;

There really isn't much to say,
So I'll say it in poetic way.

I went to church this Sunday day,
Our chaplain's here, but not to stay.

Then after that I washed my duds,
With boiling water and lots of suds.

The chow line's forming; it is just now,
I'll now have lunch, but be back soon.

I've finished chow and in good time,
So it's back to work and finish this rhyme.

Ah, bully beef patties, carrots and peas,
Also coffee, what, no cheese?

I'll tell you of life the New Guinea way,
And what we do and think and say.

Our home is a tent in under the trees,
And it's only a jump to ocean and breeze.

The nights are so peaceful with crickets and frogs,
In my bunk it is swell, I made it of logs.

We have a good table on which we eat,
No skeeters here—boy, it's a treat.

Our well that we dug gives forth water clear,
And though it is good, it still isn't beer.

Now it seems like that's all, except with us here,
We wish those at home good luck and good cheer."

IN SEABEES—Dale F. Millett, carpenter's mate 3/c, has arrived safely at an undisclosed destination, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Morehouse.

Dale enlisted in the Seabees last January, receiving his training at Norfolk, Va., and Davisville, R. I. He was home on furlough before going overseas.

Millett writes that fishing is wonderful where he is stationed and he also hopes to do a little hunting in western Europe before returning home. He was a member of the Oregon national guard. His wife, Etta Mae, lives in Vancouver, Wash.

Glen, a younger brother, who joined the U. S. navy a few days after Pearl Harbor, was wounded and received a medical discharge after serving less than a year. Glen says, however, that he still has a chip on his shoulder for the Japs and he is still fighting on the home front as a

SONS IN SERVICE — Elbert Rowe Zell has been promoted to storekeeper 2/c in the navy, it was recently learned here and Leo Thomas Zell, his brother, just finished boot camp in the naval training station at Farragut, Ida.

They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Zell, 880 California avenue. They both were graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1941.

PROMOTED — Jack Wood of the United States air corps was recently promoted to corporal. He has been in the service for nine months and is stationed at Marana Field, Tucson, Ariz.

Cpl. Wood graduated from KUHS in 1940. He worked at Tionesta before entering the service, and he is the son of Harry Wood of this city.

MILITARY RAILROAD SERVICE—Sergeant John Staub has spent over two years at Camp Stevens and has since been transferred to military railroad service. To qualify for this he had to pass examinations qualifying him for a locomotive engineer. He is now stationed at Camp William C. Reid, Clovis, N. M., where he is operating a train on the Santa Fe between Amarillo, Texas, and Clovis.

He was here recently on a 15-day furlough, spending several days at the home of his aunt, LoElla Kirceira. He also visited in Portland with his father, Donald Staub, and his sister, Vida Loible, both former residents of this city.

IN ALASKA — Corporal Patric Staub enlisted in the army in July, 1939, shortly after graduating from Klamath Union high school. He served at Fort Winfield Scott, San Francisco, and at Camp Haan, Calif., before embarking for Alaska.

He has spent nearly two years in Alaska and has served with the anti-aircraft unit since his enlistment.

IN PEARL HARBOR—Raymond Wesley Hampton, HA 1/c, is now at Pearl Harbor with the navy. Hampton has been in the service since June, 1942, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hampton of Shasta way.

IN NEWSREEL—Corporal Donald R. Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Manning of the Henley community, was seen in a recent newsreel at the Esquire theatre of the last maneuvers, before the boys went to Sicily.

According to his letters he arrived in Sicily some time between July 19 and 22, where he is with the air defense. He has been overseas for almost a year, spending all but one month of it in Africa where he participated in the Tunisian campaign.

He stated that they were doing all they could and urged the people at home to do the same and to keep home as nearly like it was when they left as possible, for the time when all of the boys come marching home.

It is estimated that the United States can obtain new supplies of rubber, natural and synthetic, totaling 275,000 tons during 1943.
