

BPW CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED IN TULELAKE

TULELAKE— Actively employed women of Tulelake on August 20 laid the groundwork for organization of a Tulelake Business and Professional Women's club next Sunday, August 29, at which time national, district and regional officers will be present.

The Embryo club appointed Mrs. Wanda Stark, city clerk, to serve as chairman until organization of the club is completed and officers are elected.

Mrs. Fred Engle, a former member of the Redding BPWC, is employed at the Tulelake office of the California Oregon Power company. Upon her arrival here several months ago Mrs. Engle and a number of other Tulelake women saw the need for such an organization here and the nucleus of the club was formed.

Expected for the charter session next Sunday, which will get under way at a 1:30 luncheon, are Eleanor Parkin, membership chairman of the northern division of BPWC; Fern DeSoto, second vice president of the national organization; and presidents of clubs of Klamath Falls, Alturas, Yreka and Redding. Members of these clubs have also been invited.

Women of Merrill who are employed and who are interested have also been extended an invitation to join. Mrs. Engle stated. The charter will be ratified and signed to be sent to national headquarters and officers of the new club will be elected Sunday.

Mrs. Stark, as chairman appointed two committees, membership and nominating. Mrs. Engle will serve as chairman of the membership. She will be assisted by Mrs. Margaret McLain and by Mrs. Peggy Crawford.

Mrs. Marjorie Eagle will serve as chairman of the nominating committee with Mrs. Byrd C. Heitz and Mrs. Alice Haas, as co-committeewomen. Dorothy Olixer has been appointed temporary corresponding secretary.

Anyone interested in attending the luncheon is asked to call either Mrs. McLain at 113 or Mrs. Engle at 53 or 18 for reservations.

The Jim St. Clair residence was temporarily turned into a hospital last Saturday or at least so it seemed to Mrs. St. Clair. She has her father-in-law as a steady patient while he is convalescing from a major operation of some months ago and will be a charge for a year or more. Then Mrs. Franz, her mother, who is staying with her, fell and cut quite a gash over her left eye, necessitating a trip to the doctor's office, where clamps were attached to the wound to hold it together. Alfred St. Clair's boy, Dwayne, and Jim's girl, Becky Lou, both had their tonsils and adenoids removed the same day.

Roy Sweet, who has been working for the Goose Lake Box company at Lakeview, recently lost about two weeks' work with a broken finger. The accident occurred when a slash of heavy green wood fell on it.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fisher left last Sunday morning for a 10-day vacation at Oregon coastal points.

Mrs. Dorothy Blunt accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jones of Willow Ranch to Klamath Falls last Saturday, returning Sunday.

Short Snider and wife, who have spent the last 25 months in Alaska, came home for an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Snider and friends, arriving last Thursday. Short has joined the flying cadets and expects to be in the service within the next few months. His wife also plans to get into the flying service if possible.

Recent word from Pvt. Evert Lawson of the "cat skinner's" branch of the Seabees, states that he is located about 40 miles out of Los Angeles, where he will be stationed for six weeks or so.

From there he does not know just where he will be sent.

Mrs. Neva Morton, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cloud, and helping with the hay harvest, left last Saturday morning for Vallejo. Harvey Porter accompanied her as far as Chico, where he will visit his mother for a few days, at the same time convalescing from a wrenched back which he received while working. He expects to be back in time to help with the grain harvest.

Grandma Daugherty has been worse the last few days, suffering from high blood pressure. Her daughter, Mrs. Joe Smith is staying with her and caring for her.

The Pinochle club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Faye Keller. Chicken salad, coffee and wafers were served for refreshments. Mrs. Buna Faris won high prize and Mrs. Joe Smith won low. The next meeting, to be held in two weeks, will be at the home of Mrs. Bessie Woods.

Mrs. Inez McGrew left last Monday morning with her three children for a week's visit with an aunt and uncle at Grants Pass. She accompanied relatives from Lakeview who were making the trip.
