

"SUGAR" RAY WINS DECISION

Robinson Waltzes Armstrong

Sugar Takes Hammerin' Henry for Easy Ten-Round Decision; Hank to Quit

By TED MEIER

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP)—The amazing ring saga of Henry Armstrong ended permanently at Madison Square Garden last night and more's the pity it terminated amid boos and catcalls at the scene of some of his greatest triumphs.

The fabulous career of the 32-year-old former triple title holder came to grief against the flicking fists of youthful Ray "Sugar" Robinson who waltzed to an easy 10-round decision before 15,371. The gross gate was $80,789.31.

Armstrong, in his prime regarded as one of the greatest fighters ever to hop into a ring, retired once before in January, 1941, but changed his mind last year and started a comeback that has grossed him nearly $200,000 in 27 outings.

But after the drubbing he took in losing every round to Robinson, Henry didn't mince matters. He emphasized in the dressing room that he was hanging up his gloves for keeps.

"I'm through," he said wearily. "From now on I'll manage Cecil Hudson." Hudson, a well-known trainer from Los Angeles, outpointed Izzy Jannazzo, New York veteran, in a six-round preliminary.

"I know it looked bad," Armstrong continued, referring to the boos from the third round on. "It's my style of fighting. If Robinson had come in, instead of staying away, it would have been different."

But Robinson, regarded in many quarters as the uncrowned welterweight champion, was content to backpedal and jab, jab, jab from low range. Only occasionally did he cut loose with the two-fisted savage attack that earned him a terrific reputation. He seemed to hurt Armstrong on these occasions, but showed a healthy respect for his opponent and never followed up his advantage.

The crowd, keen for the kill, didn't like Robinson's caution and booed lustily.

Rainiers Slipping in Race for Runner-Up in Coast Baseball; Seals Blank Oaks

By The Associated Press

The Seattle Rainiers will have to hurry if they expect to catch up with second-place San Francisco in the Pacific coast league.

It looked encouraging for Seattle at the close of last week's series, during which San Francisco dropped five contests to Oakland, but now the picture once more favors the Seals.

San Francisco won its second straight shutout against Oakland yesterday, 7 to 0, displaying the punch it lacked last week. The Seals scored all their runs in the seventh inning. Pitcher Bob Joyce held the Oaks to six hits.

Seattle maintained its 81-game distance behind San Francisco by blanking Portland, 2 to 0, for its third victory in four games of the series. Four hits were all Portland could get off Frank Tincup, the Rainiers' new hurler. Its own pitcher, Jack Wilson, collected two of the bingles himself.

Steady pitching by Paul Gehrmann cleared the way for a 4-3 victory by Los Angeles in the first game of a doubleheader with Hollywood, and an Angel batting power blasted a 1 to 3 decision in the nightcap.

Sacramento used four moundsmen in a futile attempt to stop San Diego. The Padres won, 8 to 1, with a 12-hit barrage.

Johnny Vander Meer Rejected by Army

CINCINNATI, Aug. 28 (AP)—Johnny Vandermeer, star southpaw for the Cincinnati Reds, was rejected for military service when he appeared for induction today, but Outfielder Bert Haas was accepted.

Induction station officials declined to give the reason for Vandy's rejection.

Sports Briefs
By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP)—It's hard to blast a fellow who has given fight fans his money's worth as often as Hank Armstrong, but Henry's announcement last night that he was through with boxing, except as manager of Cecil Hudson, was long overdue. . . . We never saw Armstrong at his best, but we'd prefer to remember him as the little fellow who won three world championships and lost them gamely than as the outworn prize fighter who shuffled around the ring swaying his head like a sea lion begging for a fish. . . . With that weaving style, Henry was as hard to hit as the swinging target in a shooting gallery—and Ray Robinson didn't win any marksmanship medals. . . . The payoff was when a fan spotted Harry Mendel leaving the Garden and shouted: "We'd rather have your six-day bike races back."

A BREAK IN THE DYKES
When the White Sox heard that Eddie Rommel had been invited to call balls and strikes for the major league All-Stars who likely will be sent overseas to entertain service men, someone asked Manager Jimmy Dykes: "Why don't you volunteer to umpire those North African games? You've been insisting all along you can call 'em better from the dugout than most of Harridge's staff does on top of the plays."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
George Strickler, the National Football league tub thumper, claims he's going to protest the Chicago All-Star game because 20 points for the Stars were scored by ineligible players. "They're not eligible until next year," . . . Armstrong, after seeing what Robinson had to offer, said he wouldn't rate Ray in the same class with Barney Ross. "But, of course, I fought Barney when he was really hot," Henry admitted ruefully.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Charles P. Ward, Detroit Free Press: "Capt. Ray Barbuti, the old Syracuse quarter-miler, recently was discharged from a military hospital in North Africa. He had fly fever. . . . Babe Herman often was accused of having the same trouble but never went to a hospital for a cure."

OVERSEAS STUFF
Ex-Announcer Lieut. Dave Zinkoff reports that he reached Iceland just in time to see Pvt. Benny Fried of Cleveland pitch his 15th consecutive softball victory for his outfit. The team needs to win only one more series to earn a trip to England to play the champs there.

The big sport in Iceland, Zink adds, is soccer, which boasts more players than spectators. . . . Marine Capt. Dick Belyea, former half miler, is giving track instruction to officers of his scout dive bomber squadron somewhere in the South Pacific. . . . Lieut. Frank Wright still is keeping track of Florida athletes. . . . He reports seeing Rainey Cawthon, 1929 Gator grid captain, and Goldy Goldstein, star guard of 1923-25.

Famous Golfer Dies Following Long Illness
LONDON, Aug. 28 (AP)—Ted Ray, 66, American open golf champion in 1920 and one of Britain's best known professional golfers, died in a nursing home in Watford today after a long illness.

Ray was one of the greats of golf and with Harry Vardon, his British playing partner, he is given much of the credit for popularizing the sport in the United States.

The highly publicized British pair and Francis Ouimet, then a 20-year-old amateur just out of the caddy ranks, put golf on the front pages in this country in 1913 when they tied for the U. S. open title at the country club, Brookline, Mass. In the playoff, Ouimet was even more of a surprise, shooting a 72 to whip Vardon, who finished second with a 77 and Ray, who shot a 78.

Ray took the open in 1920 with a 72-hole score of 295, one stroke better than Vardon, the late Jackie Burke, Leo Diegel and Jock Hutchison, who tied for runner-up honors. He also won the British open in 1912.

Minneapolis Favored to Win Legion Ball Title

MILES CITY, Mont., Aug. 28 (AP)—Minneapolis assumed the favorite's role in the American Legion Junior baseball world series today after upsetting the strong Flint, Mich., team 5 to 2.

The stout pitching arm and bat of Bob Danielson, plus errors, gave Minneapolis its victory last night. In the other opening day's game, Springfield, O., defeated Whiteville, N. C., 8 to 6.

Rudy York Waves Bat At Record

Cherokee Slugger Needs Four This Weekend to Top His August 1937 Record

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
A tune most baseball fans would like to hear this weekend would be "The Broken Record" as rendered by Rudolph Preston York of the Detroit Tigers.

In August 1937 the big Cherokee slugger hit 18 home runs, a record no other major leaguer ever has equalled, and he has been busy booming homers this month in an attempt to raise his own mark.

For a while it looked like Rudy would make it, too, but time is closing in on the husky first sacker and now he has only three games in two days in which to get four homers and eclipse his previous performance.

Sportsman's park at St. Louis, where the Tigers are spending the weekend, is not an impossible barrier. York bashed two into the stands in one game there June 27, but four round-trippers in two days calls for some expert punching.

York was trying for the fence last night as Detroit opened the series but was held hitless by Dennis Galehouse while the Browns beat the Tigers, 3-1.

In the only other American league game the Cleveland Indians walloped the Chicago White Sox, 6-2, behind the sixth huriling of Lefty Al Smith and moved closer to the second-place Washington Senators.

Two games also were played in the National league with the Cincinnati Reds edging out the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2, and the Chicago Cubs stopping the Pittsburgh Pirates by the same score.

The Cards gave Bucky Walters some rough treatment in the first three innings, but after the fourth the veteran righthander allowed only one hit. Max Marshall and Bert Haas made seven of Cincinnati's 11 hits.

Claude Passeau held Pittsburgh to five safeties and was given an early lead by his teammates.

Five Northern Division Schools To Carry On

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 28 (AP)—Montana is gone, but the other five northern division Coast conference schools are determined to continue football and basketball.

Athletic directors, graduate managers and basketball coaches lent action to their voiced determination last night by drawing up a 1944 basketball schedule. The football schedule was arranged earlier.

Montana, which has dropped from conference competition, was the only school absent as delegates voted to retain Rich Fox as basketball commissioner, set football ticket prices at the same levels as last year, and announced overnight stops would be eliminated for traveling football teams.

War Department Considers Routes, Transportation; Landis Gives Official OK

By DAVE HOFF

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 (AP)—Baseball's idea about sending a troupe of American and National league players as soon as possible after the war department probably for a consideration of routes and transportation, and bearing the official "O. K." of Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis and the two league presidents.

"The judge" and Presidents Ford Frick of the National and Will Harridge of the American leagues discussed various angles of the plan for two hours yesterday in the commissioner's office but the tangible results were these two statements in a joint announcement:

"Players, managers and officials. . . have already manifested a warm interest. . . . We are hopeful the thing will go through."

At a press conference Landis dropped these remarks in amplifying on the bare announcement:

He suggested "18 players on each team as a good figure to conjure with."

He thought baseball would like to have every club represented, making up two teams representative of each league.

Weekend Fishing Prospects

PORTLAND, Aug. 28 (AP)—Lane, Klamath, Baker, Wasco and Josephine counties offer best prospects for full creels this weekend, the state game commission's fishing bulletin indicated today.

Reports by counties:
Columbia—Streams too low and clear.

Lane—Salmon fishing good in Siuslaw river at Florence.

Clatsop—Few salmon being taken on troll in the lower Columbia.
Cooks—Streams fair; good trout catches reported in tide-water of the Coquille river.
Curry—Rogue river yielding considerable steelhead on flies.
Douglas—Very poor.
Josephine—Some nice catches of steelhead taken from the Rogue above Grants Pass and cutthroat from Applegate and Illinois rivers.
Wasco—Deschutes and White rivers giving up good trout catches; Badger creek best of smaller streams.
Baker—Many limits of eastern brook trout from lakes.
Harney—Blitzen river reported improving.
Klamath—Upper Klamath and Agency lakes very good for trolling, with limit catches reported; best results at mouths of Williamson, Wood and Seven Mile rivers. North and South Forks of Sprague river very good for fly fishing, and Odell and Crescent lakes for trolling.
Lake—Fair catches being made in streams and lakes.
Wallowa—Some big ones rising to the fly.

Betty Bemis To Splash For Riviera

WAVES Allowed to Swim For Their Teams So Club Shoots for Third Title

By HAROLD HARRISON

SHAKAMAK STATE PARK, Ind., Aug. 28 (AP)—The Riviera club of Indianapolis, shooting for its third straight national women's swimming title, took a new lease on life today as W. Leo Sanders, director of championships for the meet, announced that WAVES will be permitted to compete for their teams, after all.

That meant Betty Bemis, 20-year-old WAVE of near Hibby, Minn., will be filling a weak spot in the Riviera lineup created by the previous ruling that WAVES would swim as such. By the same stroke, Helen Perry of Cleveland could and did enter the 800-meter relay scheduled for tomorrow as a member of the Shoreham club of Washington D. C.

In points counting toward the national team title, Riviera was tied at 10 with the Multnomah club of Portland, Ore., by virtue of 15-year-old Joan Fogle's victory in the 300-meter individual medley yesterday. The Riviera entry finished in 4:35.3 over Suzanne Zimmerman of Portland, the first national champion to tumble. Miss Zimmerman lost the 100-meter free style yesterday to Brenda Helder, her teammate, and Ann Curtis of the Crystal plunge team of San Francisco.

Another defending champion, dark-haired Nancy Merki of the Multnomah club, took the worst beating of the day yesterday when she finished seventh in the 1500-meter free style event contested by eight entrants. Florence Schmitt, 13-year-old Pigeon entry of the Women's Swimming association of New York, copped first place.

Doe Deer Tags Still Available

PORTLAND, Aug. 28 (AP)—The state game commission announced today that doe deer tags still are available for hunting in the Steens mountain, Lake Klamath and Hart mountain refuge areas.

The commission also announced that hunters may now apply for doe deer tags in one or more areas but not for more than one tag in any one area. The season begins October 1.

Antelope tags also are still on sale. The open season is from September 18 to October 3.

No more applications will be considered for Grant county doe deer tags, Hart mountain buck deer tags or northeastern Oregon cow elk tags, the commission said.

Joe Kahut In Line for Bigger Game

PORTLAND, Aug. 28 (AP)—Joe Kahut, 167, the slugging Woodburn farm boy, was in line for larger game today, following another clean-cut victory in a main boxing bout.

He scored a technical knockout over Jim Walker, 174, Oakland, in the third round of a scheduled ten-rounder. Promoter Joe Waterman promised the winner a chance at a top-flight coast fighter.

Joey Dolan, 121, Portland, again decisioned Nat Corum, 125, Honolulu, in a rematch of a Spokane fight two weeks ago. Dolan was never in trouble.
Other results:
Mickey Pease, 147, Portland, drew with Leo McCormick, 144, Portland; Norman Finch, 142, Vancouver, Wash., drew with Bobby Brock, 142, Portland; Eddie Dwillis, 156, Vancouver, Wash., knocked out Henry Johnson, 155, Vancouver, Wash.

Jasper Takes Trapshoot With Amazing Finish

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 28 (AP)—The most surprising man in the world, 35-year-old Jasper Rogers of Dayton, had about $1800 today with which to buy war bonds following one of the most amazing finishes the unpredictable Grand American trapshoot ever has witnessed.

Rogers, a war plant tool-maker, won trapdom's No. 1 prize, the Grand American handicap, by defeating five others in a 50-target shootoff after the sextet had tied at 97 of 100, lowest score to win the event since 1931.

With only two targets to go in the shootoff, Rogers was one clay behind Paul Wagner, Lima, O., salesman, who looked like a certain winner after breaking the first 24 in a row. But Wagner missed the last pair to drop to second place and Rogers found himself in possession of the crown.

LEMOS WINS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 28 (AP)—Richie Lemos of Los Angeles won a 10-round decision over Tyree White of San Francisco last night in a fight that was comparatively dull and slowed by numerous clinches.

Lemos was trailing on points until the seventh.
Lemos weighed 139, White, 138.
