

June Marie Brown Weds Capt. Cohea

Sacred Heart Church Scene of Wedding Ceremony Held August 14 in Klamath Falls

A wedding ceremony of late summer was solemnized in the Sacred Heart church on Saturday, August the fourteenth, when Miss June Marie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown of Bonanza became the bride of Captain Jesse L. Cohea, now stationed at Camp White.

Reverend Father Timothy Casey read the double-ring ceremony at half past five o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride wore a white marquisette dress with lace panels and a long train. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls. She wore a fingertip veil of illusion net held in place by two white gardenias and bouvardia. She carried a white prayer book with gardenias and long white ribbon streamers.

Her maid of honor was Miss Bette Campbell and bridesmaids were Mary Beth Hammond and Mrs. Jack Liskey. They wore blue and yellow dresses with bouquets of gladioli and bouvardia with French maline.

Best man for the ceremony was Lieutenant Robert Lumpkin, and the usher was Martin Brown, brother of the bride.

The church was decorated with white and the altar was banked with white gladioli. "Ave Maria" was sung during the ceremony by Miss Mary Louise Sexton.

Mrs. Brown, the mother of the bride, wore teal blue with silver sequins and navy blue accessories.

A reception was held later at the Pelican party room for the bridal party. Centerpiece on the table was the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature soldier and his bride. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. D. W. Ferguson, cut the cake and helped serve.

The bride has been employed as secretary in the adjutant general's division at the post headquarters at Camp White for the past year and one half. She attended Oregon State college and is well known in Klamath Falls.

Captain Cohea is from Springfield, Tennessee, and is with the infantry at Camp White. He is a graduate of Vanderbilt college in Nashville, Tennessee, and while there was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

The young couple left soon after the ceremony for a week's honeymoon at Diamond lake. From there they went to Medford where they are now making their home.

Among the guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ferguson of Stockton, and friends from Bonanza, Medford, Tulelake and Klamath Falls.
