

Macaroni—Mountain Style

When war swept through their villages, Sicilian peasants fled to the hills—but life in mountain caves didn't spoil their appetite for a favorite Italian dish. Here Sicilian women whip up a meal of macaroni in a hillside grotto, and the children spearhead an attack on the food with well-aimed forks.

'Uncle's' Favorite

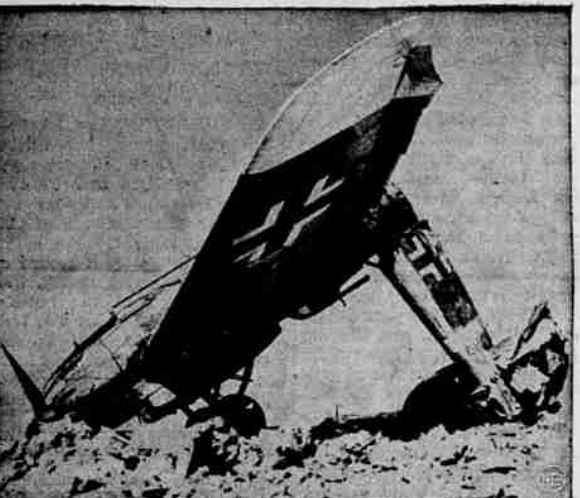

Title of "Uncle Sam's favorite niece" was bestowed upon pretty Frances Rafferty of the movies. She's first Hollywood actress to become engaged to soldier she met on camp tour. Lucky guy is Lieutenant Dewey Barnes.

Gets 'Mess Medal'

First mess sergeant to receive the Legion of Merit medal, Sgt. Edward M. Druha of Schemm's duty samples one of his own "leftover" menus which won him recognition for ingenuity in originating unusual and appetizing recipes to reduce losses from food waste and spoilage. (Army photo.)

Jackknifed Heinkel

Here's what happened to Nazi planes caught on the ground in Sicily by Allied air raids. Bomb blew this Heinkel He. 111 into a perfect jackknife.

See Here, Sergeant Hargrove

Herding cattle was not part of the basic training mentioned in his book "See Here, Private Hargrove," but Sgt. Marion Hargrove evidently has the situation well in hand as he leads two steers presented by Chinese province to 14th U. S. Air Force, along with silver trophy and 300 bottles of "Jingbao (air raid) Juice" on 6th anniversary of Chinese-Jap war.

Nazis Leave Kharkov Before Red Push

Here's the new line of the Russo-German front as the Nazis announced evacuation of the Ukrainian city of Kharkov and retreated in the face of the heavy Red drive. At the same time, a new Russian offensive south of Voroshilovgrad aimed at Taganrog was reported making headway.

STOCKS HOLD NARROW AREA; LEADERS INCH

By VICTOR EUBANK NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—Stocks generally held to slim area in today's market and, while a handful of favorites managed to inch forward, most leaders were at a standstill or in slightly lower ground. The principal watchful-waiting arguments still included: Doubts regarding the forthcoming tax program, imminence of a record government war bond drive, and thoughts of sudden invasion of continental Europe which might settle overnight the fate of the axis in that sector. Gold mines were in front at the start although these failed to follow through. Transfers were around 350,000 shares. Advancing at intervals were Homestead, Bethlehem, Southern Railway, Anaconda, American Telephone, Consolidated Edison, Goodyear, Montgomery Ward, United Aircraft, Standard Oil (NJ) and International Harvester. In the minus division the greater part of the time were U. S. Steel, N. Y. Central, General Motors, Chrysler, Texas Co., Goodrich, Douglas Aircraft, Sperry, Eastman Kodak, Westinghouse, Phelps Dodge, General Electric and Union Carbide. Bonds were more or less listless. WHEAT

CHICAGO, Aug. 30 (AP)—Prof-it-taking produced a reactionary trend in grains today, although losses were confined to less than a cent in most instances. Trade was fairly active at times, particularly on liquidation by eastern houses in rye, but quieted when resistance to the downturn was encountered. Tomorrow is the first day for giving notices of intention to deliver cash grain on September contracts, and the near-by future generally was weaker than other contracts. It is expected that some deliveries of spring wheat will be made in the local market. At the close, wheat was 1c lower to 1c higher, September $1.46 1/2, December $1.48 1/2-1.48, oats were unchanged to 1c lower, September 74-74 1/2, and rye was unchanged to a cent down, September $1.02 1/2-1.

IT'S NOT THE HEAT

CHICAGO, (AP)—A woman complained via telephone to Police Sgt. Joseph Brady at 3 a. m.: "It's the whistling; I'm a war worker and I can't sleep." She added she lived across from a public library where the janitor whistled—no particular tune, just whistled. So Sgt. Brady obligingly sent a squad to tell the janitor to keep his spurs high more quietly.

BATTLE

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP)—The champion women welders of the Richmond and Oakland, Calif., shipyards have been matched in a contest—and blood will flow freely. If Richmond's representative, Gora Lee Clonts, 20, loses, her co-workers will donate 500 pints of blood to the Red Cross blood bank. Oakland supporters will give 100 pints if their candidate, Mrs. Edna Slocum, loses.

KITTY LEFT

BOISE, Ida. (AP)—A skunk climbed under the hood of Shirley Howell's car. He drove to the state fish and game department. Employees there weren't interested. Next stop was the fire department. Firemen, after a fire extinguisher failed to dislodge the kitty, found a solution. Ammonia did it. They took me to a first-aid station where I met the German pilot whom I had shot down. He was very pleasant but seemed actually I got him so easily. He actually congratulated me on good shooting.—Lieut. Tom A. Thomas Jr., rescued after being shot down in Sicily.
