

Church Women Meet at Homes

Five Circles of Woman's Society of Christian Service Hold Meetings This Past Week

Four of the circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met on Thursday, September the ninth, for dessert luncheon at half past one o'clock. Circle 1 met with Mrs. Moccabee, its chairman, at 522 North Fifth street.

One of the guests of the afternoon, Mrs. Schneebeck, gave two songs, "Smilin' Through" and "At the End of the Day," which were much enjoyed. Mrs. Moccabee presided over the business meeting and Mrs. Herndon was in charge of the study period. She told many interesting things about Alaska and displayed photographs taken up there. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held September 24 and 25, the location to be announced later. Nine members attended, and two guests, Mrs. Schneebeck and Mrs. Perry.

Mrs. J. K. Reno was hostess to circle 2 at her home in St. Francis Park. Mrs. Rozendal, the chairman, conducted the business meeting and the study hour, the subject being the final chapter in "The Evangelical Witness in Latin America" while Mrs. Earl Redman led the devotional period. This circle is planning a rummage sale for October 10, but has not as yet decided upon the location. Fifteen were present. Mrs. J. H. Rich became a member at this time.

Mrs. R. P. Ellingson and Mrs. Tomlinson entertained circle 3 at the Ellingson home, 850 Pacific Terrace with fifteen members present, and a visitor, Mrs. Reba Snell, who joined at this meeting. Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, chairman, conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Paul Edwards led the devotional service. During the study hour she gave an outline of the work for the coming year, which will be based upon Louis Aemie's book "In Many Lands". Plans were made for a rummage sale on October 9 to be sponsored by the circle.

Mrs. W. C. Carlson and her mother, Mrs. Edward Call, were the hostesses for circle 4 which met at Mrs. Carlson's, 284 South Eldorado street. Mrs. Poole conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Carlson was elected chairman, replacing Mrs. Barker who no longer lives in Klamath Falls. The devotional period was led by Mrs. Lambert, and the study hour was omitted at this time. Mrs. William Bayless who has been a guest in Klamath Falls for some time and who has attended the circle meetings, is leaving soon for her home in Arkansas. Another guest was Mrs.

MRS. KLUM HONORED AT NOVEL SHOWER

On Tuesday evening, September the seventh, friends of Mrs. Andrew Klum gave her a "coming-events" shower at the home of Margaret Fuller, 2020 Applegate street. The hostess was Mrs. Elja Lou Sanders.

Attending were Lillian Downs, Dorothy Schupp, Dolly Lee, Lillian Farrow, Ipha Brown, Helen Davidson, Rita Fuller, Ruth Sehorn, Ida Bramwell, Ann Chapman, Zella Blankenship and Maude Phillips.

Pinochle was played during the evening, with the award for high score going to Lillian Farrow, second to Mrs. Klum, low to Ruth Sehorn and three special awards to Lillian Downs, Helen Davidson and Ida Bramwell. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Fuller.

Erbs, sister-in-law of Mrs. Lester Stebbins, here from California. Mrs. Don Potter, 2535 Orchard way, will be hostess for the next meeting, October the fifteenth.

The other circle, number 5, met on Wednesday instead of Thursday, and enjoyed a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Gilkerson, 3320 Bissbee street. Fifteen members and guests attended. Mrs. C. H. Kelly, the chairman, conducted the business meeting, in which final plans were made for the garden and rummage sale to be held on Saturday, September eleventh. Mrs. Morgan led the devotional service and Mrs. Paul Edwards, a guest, gave a summary of the book just completed in the course of study "On This Foundation".

ONE YEAR OLD

This is little Miss Lianette Allen, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leon Allen of Sheridan, Arkansas. She is visiting this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Swafford of 1316 Shelley street.

Social Calendar

Wednesday, September 8

First Christian church to give reception for city grade and high school teachers at 8 p. m. in the church. Chairman of reception will be Mrs. C. S. Robertson.

Monday, September 13

The Junior Matrons of the First Methodist church will hold a party at the home of Mrs. Bruce Binkley, 1915 Huron street, at 8 p. m. The assisting hostess is Mrs. W. E. Ware.

Catholic Daughters of America to install officers at 8 p. m. in the parish hall. All members are asked to attend. Annual fall flower show and luncheon sponsored by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club, Willard hotel, 1 o'clock.

Tuesday, September 14

Happy Hour club to meet with Mrs. George Hurn at home on Pine street, 2 p. m.

Wednesday, September 15

Art Needle Work club will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Brown, 1937 LeRoy street at 2 p. m.

Thursday, September 16

Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold its annual get-together luncheon in the church dining rooms at 1 o'clock. Miss Eleanor Ewing, Pacific coast board representative is to be the speaker. District convention of Rebekahs to be held at IOOF hall.

Saturday, September 18

Rummage sale to be held by League of Women Voters at 1021 Main street. Donations may be left at this address on Friday, September 17.

Thursday, September 23

First business meeting of year for guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church in parish house.

Saturday, September 25

Women's council of First Christian church will meet at the church.

PINOCHLE CLUB HAS MEETING ON THURSDAY

Estelle Smith, 419 Pacific Terrace, was hostess to the Lucky Thursday pinochle club on September the ninth. Following the one o'clock luncheon pinochle was played and high score held by Mary Martin, second by Rita Fuller and low by Agnes Lowe, while the pinochle award went to Fannie Goddard.

The members attending were Mary Martin, Rita Fuller, Agnes Lowe, Fannie Goddard, Maude Phillips, Kathryn Billings, Florence Young, Harriet Morris, Zella Blankenship, Ruth Sehorn and the hostess, Estelle Smith, and there were two guests, Mrs. Francis Waits and Cora Kennedy.

The next meeting, September the twenty-third, will be with Nettie Good on Walton drive.

Mrs. George Hurn will preside as hostess at the first fall meeting of the Happy Hour club, ending a vacation period. Members are invited to meet at her home on Pine street Tuesday afternoon, September the fourteenth, at two o'clock.

Alpha Group Opens Year

Plans Made To Honor Early - Day Klamath Teachers

The first meeting of Alpha chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma for the new club year was held last Saturday, September the fourth, at the home of Ruth Obenchain near Bly with fifteen members attending. Mrs. Geraldine Owsley, president of the chapter, presided at the luncheon and business hour.

Mrs. Irene Foster, parliamentarian, led the group in a study of the constitutional rulings on finances. The chief feature of the society's financial program is the establishment of scholarship funds by the various chapters.

It was reported that Alpha chapter has completed its part of the national bond project, a dollar contribution from each member for bond purchases by the national organization, the money to be used later for national scholarships.

Yearbooks were distributed, giving the program for the year and the following committee appointments: Legislation, Ruth Obenchain, Nell Olson, Edna Bloom, Dorothy Bailey; membership, Florence Oilmann, Josephine Penrod, Maye B. Wells; letters and publications, Dea Jean Hardy, Eva Burkhalter; program, Irene Foster, Stella Bowne, Buena Stone; preparation of yearbook, Ida Edsall, Bernice Elliott; social affairs, Nell Olson, Olive Wilson, Mary Wattenburg; progress of Delta Kappa Gamma, Augusta Parker, Dorothy Houston, Esther Kernan; equal opportunities for women teachers, Mabel Humble, Vera Howard, Helen Moss; retirement fund for teachers, Edna Bloom, Anne Sprague, Jennie Carroll; initiations, Olive Wilson, Ida Edsall, Florence Oilmann, Maye B. Wells, Dea Jean Hardy.

Early-day Klamath teachers will be honored at the chapter's next meeting announced for Saturday afternoon, October the second, in the City Library rooms at two o'clock.

Former teachers who have been invited to attend are Mrs. Ida Gerber, Mrs. Hiram Murdoch, Mrs. W. S. Slough, Mrs. Katie Whiteline and Mrs. Alice Peil.

Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. Harvey Hayden, Mrs. W. A. Arnold, Mrs. Lula Puterbaugh, Mrs. W. F. Melton, Mrs. R. Clatt, and Mrs. M. L. Miller.

Pouring will be Mrs. H. Wickersham and Mrs. Frank Fortner.

ALOHA CHAPTER TO MEET IN NEW SEASON

Aloha chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its first meeting of the new chapter season following summer vacation, on Tuesday evening, September the fourteenth, at eight o'clock, at the Masonic temple, Klamath avenue.

Mrs. Clarence A. Humble, worthy matron, and Mr. Lawrence K. Phelps, worthy patron, extend to all members and visiting members a cordial invitation to attend the meeting.

There will be an election to fill the office of conductress, made vacant by the recent death of Mrs. Jack Oldham.

SUNSHINE CIRCLE HAS MEETING AT JACOBSON HOME

Miss Eva Rae Jacobson was hostess to the Sunshine Circle of the First Covenant church on Thursday evening at eight o'clock at her home, 1615 Portland street.

Refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess.

Those present were Mrs. Albert Dwight, Mrs. Fred Goeller, Mrs. Axel Jacobson, Miss Alice Eastman, Miss Rose Clawson, Miss Martha Eastman, Miss Nell Lindbergh, Miss Dorothy Baxter, Miss Joyce Mosby, Miss Brita Strid, Miss Karin Strid and the hostess.

Rebekahs to Be Hosts

District Convention to Be Held Here With Other Lodges Present

The Prosperity Rebekah lodge will be host to the district convention on September the sixteenth in the IOOF hall. District 16 consists of lodges in Lakeview, Paisley, Bonanza, Merrill and Klamath Falls.

The president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon will pay her official visit at this time.

At twelve noon the Past Noble Grand club will serve luncheon. Stella Dryden is chairman of this committee. At half past one o'clock the lodge will open for a school of instruction and all officers are to wear formal.

Dinner will be served by the Social club at half past six o'clock with Vera Clemens as chairman of this committee. At eight o'clock a regular session of the lodge will be called. Mary Curtis, noble grand, will open the meeting which will be then turned over to the Merrill lodge to put on the degree work.

Several candidates will be initiated at this time. All members are urged to attend these meetings.

Guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Stebbins and Mrs. T. E. Erbes are Mrs. Lewis Erbes and her sons Lewis Jr., and Lloyd, of San Bruno, California. Mr. Erbes, who is postmaster at San Bruno, expects to join his family here on Sunday for a short stay at the Stebbins home.

Dessert luncheon was served to the Thursday contract club by Stella Dryden, 610 North Eleventh street, at two o'clock, September the ninth, and during the contract bridge which followed, high score was held by Bertha Hewitt, second by Willa Bark and the traveling award went to Clara McPherrin.

Those present were Bertha Hewitt, Clara McPherrin, Willa Bark, Idoline Schupp, Ruth Stanley, Pearl Yorkeland, Fannie Thompson and the hostess, Stella Dryden. It will be three weeks before the next meeting, September the thirteenth, and the hostess will be Bertha Hewitt, 2225 Darrow avenue.

Kappa Girls Holds Picnic

Sorority Has Outdoor Supper at Moore Park September 2

The members of Kappa chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority held a picnic Thursday evening, September the second, at Moore park.

Games were played during the early part of the evening. Supper was later served by the committee. Mrs. John R. Maguire was chairman of the committee and was assisted by Mrs. Max A. Saunders, Mrs. Clinton Baughman and Miss Elenora Weatherford.

Those who enjoyed the evening included Mrs. Lorn Dalcour, Mrs. Don Divins, Mrs. Van Thome, Mrs. Charles Kaler, Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Edward Charon, Mrs. Howard Listoe, a former director of the chapter, Mrs. John A. Maguire, Mrs. Clinton Baughman, Mrs. Max A. Saunders, Miss Madge McLellan and Miss Elenora Weatherford.

The first meeting of the fall season was held at the Willard hotel on Thursday evening, September the ninth.

WCTU GROUP TO MEET THIS COMING WEEK

The WCTU will hold its meeting next Tuesday, September the fourteenth, at two o'clock in the Immanuel Baptist church.

Devotionals will be led by Mrs. F. W. Abbey and the gospel message will be brought by Mrs. W. B. Rice. Special music will be presented by Mrs. Guy Merrill and Mrs. Thor Newman.

Talks on temperance will be given by Mrs. Louis Benson.

There will be an election of officers at this meeting and all members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Horton Entertains at Bridge

BONANZA — Mrs. Jack Horton entertained with two tables of bridge on Wednesday afternoon, September the eighth. Guests were Mrs. Fred Mullennax, Mrs. Claude Becholdt, Mrs. Gilbert Harrison, Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mrs. F. W. Brown, Mrs. Owen Pepple and Mrs. Birdie Burke. High score and traveling prize went to Mrs. Pepple and second high score went to Mrs. Becholdt.

DELPHIANS TO OPEN STUDY YEAR ON TUESDAY

Delta Gamma chapter of Delphians will open the study year next Tuesday, September the ninth, at the Pelican cafe at half past ten o'clock with Mrs. Jackson F. Kimball as hostess.

The topic for discussion is "Orienting Ourselves in These Times". The next two years are to be a so-called "Accelerated Course" covering the material contained in the text of "The Individual and The World".

Leader of the first meeting will be Mrs. Don Zumwalt, local supervisor.

Junior Circle Hears Review

Group of Congregational Church Has First Meet of Year

Members of the Junior Women's Circle of the Community Congregational church heard a book review given by Mrs. A. R. Tyler, at the first meeting of the year.

Mrs. Tyler read from the book "Mexico—A Study of Two Americas", by Stuart Chase. She also displayed several Mexican articles. Mrs. Tyler has transcribed the book into Braille and explained to the circle the method of writing and the characters used.

Mrs. F. L. Van Dooser, president of the circle, presided. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, 16 Warring street. Those attending were Mrs. Walter Shindell, Mrs. E. V. Haynes, Mrs. Lora Lust, Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. Chester Greenwell and Mrs. Phil Blodgett. Guests were Mrs. A. R. Tyler, Jocelyn Tyler, Mrs. R. B. Elliott and Miss Margaret Johnson.

CARD CLUB MEETS AT WEYERHAEUSER

WEYERHAEUSER CAMP 4—The regular card club met at the home of Mrs. Earl Cruikshank on September the ninth at half past one o'clock.

Awards of the afternoon went to Mrs. Lee Prescott, Mrs. Gordon Good and Mrs. Archie West. Others present were Mrs. Karl Friedrichs, Mrs. A. Johnson and the hostess.

Remember the Junior Livestock Show—Sept. 19-20

Whytal's
DISTINCTIVE APPAREL
Phone 8222 901 Main

300
NEW FALL

Hats

Just In!

$2.50

$3.50

Felts and velvets with feather and self trim... veils, to complement your fall wardrobe!

"They're little, they're lovely... and they're destined to turn heads whenever you wear them. High-crowns, piquant veiled caps, enchanting feathered fancies, berets, Dutch caps. In petal-soft felts—all flattering—eye-catching!"

CORRECT CONTROL for Youthful Loveliness

Co-ed
Panties
and Girdles

Firm rayon knit front and back. Side panels of two-way stretch elastic. Small, medium, large,

$3.98

Sears, Roebuck and Co.

133 S. 8th
Phone 5188

CREATED BY JOHANSEN

Perhaps not so many styles... but every one high-styled and fashion-right! Imaginative little shoes you'll adore, each with a host of flattering tricks!

$7.95

Model Shoe Store

717 Main Street