

Post Office Hits "Esquire" Magazine For Obscene Matter

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP) — The publisher of Esquire has been ordered to show cause why the magazine's second class mailing permit should not be suspended for printing what the post office department terms "obscene, lewd and lascivious" matter.

The department objects to certain drawings in the magazine and to an article captioned "Those Star and Garter Blues." A hearing has been scheduled for September 28.

SILENT RED MAN
POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — The induction board asked questions, the young Indian replied "ugh."
"What's the idea of sending up an ugh mug?" the induction board captain inquired of the Pocatello draft board.

Informed that all of the Indians were fairly well educated, the captain went back to his questioning.
The Indian sighed: "Well, it was a good gag, and I almost got away with it."

After the 1906 earthquake, sea lions deserted San Francisco's seal rocks for several years, moving to the Farallones.

SORRY
KANSAS CITY (AP) — Late or an appointment, Forest F. Jobbs explained apologetically that he was ordered off a plane at Wichita, Kas., to make room for a priority patron.

The man who had been inconvenienced by the wait said he understood.
He admitted he was the Wichita priority.
