

The 1943 Battle of Forest Protection is Nearly Won!

DON'T SPOIL KLAMATH COUNTY'S SPLENDID RECORD BY BEING CARELESS

—Ed Cliff

Supervisor, Fremont National Forest

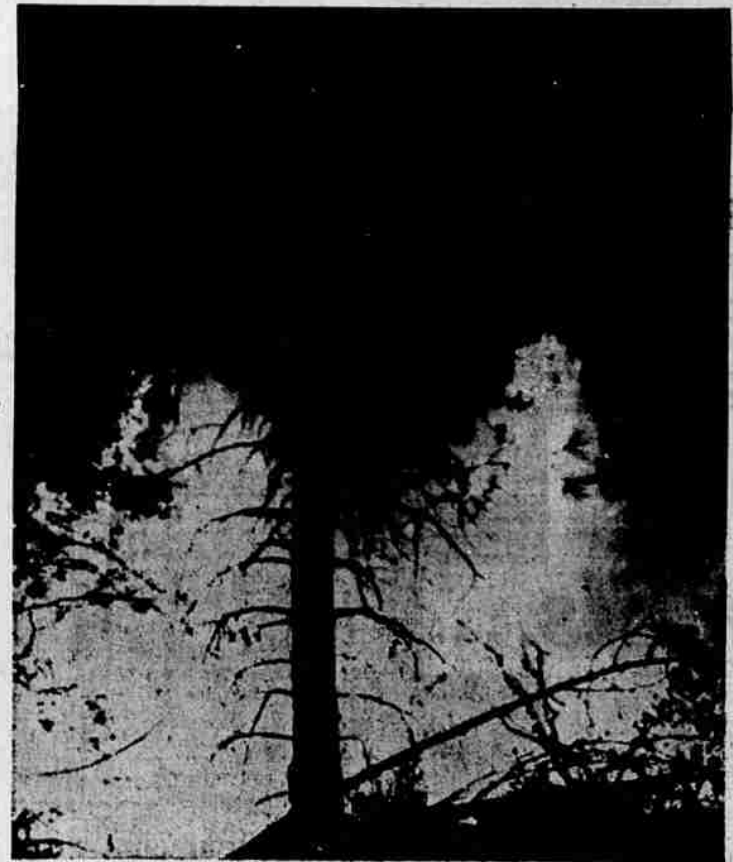

Parker Mountain Lookout Station

Sentinels of the Forest are doing their part toward winning the war. Help them keep Klamath County's Forests producing vital war materials and Payroll Dollars.

IT'S UP TO
YOU and YOU
To Keep Our Forest
Free From Fire!

Don't let this kind of war time casualty delay victory and reduce payrolls. Green forests mean lumber for the war now... and lumber for rebuilding in peace. Keep Klamath green -- and keep our prosperity!

Fires delay our production of the material that means "Victory"
