

TROOPS BEGIN NEW PHASE OF ARMY 'GAMES'

FOURTH CORPS HEADQUARTERS, Oregon Maneuver Area, Sept. 17 (AP)—Thousands of troops moved to new positions today in preparation for the second phase of gigantic war games being staged in a 10,000-square mile area of the central Oregon plateau.

The first phase ended abruptly yesterday by order of Maj. Gen. Alexander M. Patch, fourth corps commander and maneuver director, who conducted a critique for officers today.

The officers took over a Bend theatre as the first phase was reviewed to show how the "Blue" army, under Maj. Gen. James L. Bradley, drove the "Reds" commanded by Maj. Gen. Gilbert R. Cook, back 15 miles.

The "Blues" flanked the "Reds" and prevented them from seizing a narrow pass where the "Reds" had intended to make a stand.

When hostilities ended, however, the "Blues" were far short of their objective, the railroad at Burns.

Price Ceilings Due On Oregon Crops

PORTLAND, Sept. 17 (AP)—The district office of price administration said today price ceilings are due soon in legume and grass seeds, one of Oregon's principal crops.

The OPA said alfalfa, medium and Mammoth red clover, Alsike clover, sweet clover and Timothy would be covered.

Allowances probably will be made for country assemblers and cleaners, the OPA said.

HERE'S MENU FOR THE FURLOUGH WEDDING MEAL
By GAYNOR MADDOX

A soldier's wedding rates as much care and gaiety as rationing will permit.

Soldier's Wedding Dinner
Hors d'oeuvres, sardines, tuna-fish, sprig of celery, radish, salmon, smoked salmon, stuffed egg; roast chicken, chestnut filling, giblet gravy, brussels sprouts, candied sweet potato imperial, mixed green salad, frozen ice cream, cake, coffee.

Chestnut Filling
(Serves 20)
Two 1-pound loaves white bread, 6 whole eggs, 1 pint milk, 1 pint water, 1 teaspoon sage, thyme, marjoram or 3 spoons whole spice, parsley, 2 chopped onions, 3 pounds chestnuts. Cut bread in square pieces and soak in milk and water for 15 minutes. Add the 6 beaten eggs, the seasoning, parsley and the fried chopped onions. Add the cooked chestnuts, which are prepared as follows: remove top part of chestnuts with a knife. Put them in hot boiling water for 10 minutes in order to be able to peel them easily. Replace in pot, add water to cover them, add salt, 2 stalks celery, and a piece of butter. Cook until done.

Candied Sweet Potato Imperial
(Serves 20)
Six pounds sweet potatoes, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/2 cup honey, 1 lemon, 2 cups water, 1 cinnamon stick, 5 apples. Boil sweet potato which has been cut in round pieces to match the size of apple, also cut in round slices. Toss apple and potato slices in hot butter with a little sugar and place the two slices together, the apple on top. Cover with the following syrup: brown sugar on hot range, add water, honey, molasses, lemon rind and juice, and cinnamon. Cook until it retains a nice syrupy consistency. Pour over your potato and apple and bake in oven for 15 minutes.

MENU
(Eat the Basic 7 Every Day)

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit and orange juice, dry cereal, bread crumb griddle cakes, fortified margarine, honey or syrup, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Potato and onion soup, heated enriched French bread, raw carrot sticks, ginger pears, frosted cup cakes, tea, milk.

Try This Point Saving Pie

Shortcuts of all kinds are what the American housewife is looking for these war busy days, and finding a shortcut to that all-time favorite—graham cracker pie—is really something worth crowing about. The new wartime version of it is quick and easy to make. It's different, attractive, and the crust is point-free.

In fact, the crust calls for only one ingredient—a package of graham crackers. That's absolutely all, and there's no catch to it. You simply line the bottom of a pie tin with whole graham crackers, using crumbs to fill up the openings between and around the edges. Then cut crackers in half to line the edge of the tin. Pour the filling into the crust, chill, and it's ready to serve.

You're probably wondering if the back of the crust will stand up when individual pieces are cut. Don't worry, it does. If you don't believe it, try and see for yourself.

This graham cracker crust is not only delicious, but good for you, too. Nutrition experts stress the fact that grain foods have high food value and are an excellent source of calories, or energy.

You can use any one of a number of fillings—chocolate, apple chiffon, rhubarb and cream, but the following recipe for lemon filling is particularly good.

Lemon Filling

- 1 cup sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons corn starch
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 1/2 cups boiling water
- 2 egg yolks
- 1-3 cup lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind.

Mix 3/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, corn starch and flour. Slowly add boiling water and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Beat egg yolks with 1/4 cup sugar until thick. Add small amount of hot mixture. Cook three minutes. Add lemon juice and rind. Pour into crust and top with meringue made from two egg whites, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 cup sugar.
