WAC Officer Club Guest

Lt. Herring Visits Soroptimists at Luncheon Here

Soroptimists enjoyed hearing Lieutenant Betty Herring, the local recruiting officer for the WACs, tell about the present needs of the army and the recruiting situation. Miss Herring spoke at the luncheon meeting held Thursday noon in the Pelican party room and was introduced by Mrs. Effie Garcelon.

The Women's Army Auxiliary corps, formed in July 1942, became the Women's Army corps on September first of this year. There is a definite need for women to join the WACs now and relieve soldiers who are doing non-combatant work. There are a million enlisted men employed in jobs that can be done by women, according to Lieutenant Herring. For every woman who leaves Klamath county and joins the service, one father can be kept at home.

Lieutenant Herring urged the Soroptimist club to get behind the WACs and help with the recruiting by contacting women and girls eligible to join, as personal contact is the best way to recruit.

Mrs. Suzanne Hamilton and Mrs. Margaret Reed, guests at the luncheon, were introduced by Mrs. Rose Poole, president of the club.

Williams and her four children, Bob, Rosemary, Carol and little Susan, have left for Portland for a brief stay before going to South Bend, Indiana, where they will join Mr. Williams and make their home. South Bend is Mrs. Williams' former home. They will be greatly missed by their many friends in Klamath Falls.

DRAMATIC STUDENTS BUSY IN CITY

Seeing New York in war time is Lois Phillips, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips of this city. Lois writes interesting letters of her work at Schrafft's which is most familiar to readers of slick paper magazines as that place where they bundle up baskets for the people who used to trot off to Europe at "$75 and up".

Lois was a student at Willamette university last year and this spring left for dramatic school at Plymouth, Massachusetts. When school ended for the summer, she hied to New York to see the big town and found herself a job until school opens again. Many of the dramatic students, writes Lois Phillips, have been busy giving shows at the USO centers. At one such show Miss Phillips met a soldier from Camp Edwards, Massachusetts. Remarkable on her home town, Klamath Falls, the soldier lad spoke right up and said that his buddy hailed from these parts, Wesley McNeel, (who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley D. McNeel of 1233 Auburn street.)

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peltz have returned to their home in the Audley apartments following an extended stay in California. En route north they spent three weeks in Grants Pass. Friends will be interested to learn that Mr. Peltz is greatly improved in health. They are expecting Mrs. Peltz' two sisters, Mrs. Frank Hirst and Mrs. Ralph Gray of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, who will arrive in early October for a visit of several weeks.

Beauty IS YOUR DUTY

By RITA WHISENANT
Licensed Cosmetologist

WHILE talking about keeping beautiful for your man in the service, let's not forget the man. Christmas is a long way off, but a lot of the men are, too. Dates for Christmas mailing to Army men overseas are September 15 to October 15. For Navy, Coast Guard and Marines overseas the date extends to November 1. The sooner you get the package off, the surer you are he'll get it in time.

CHRISTMAS packages must be mailed in regulation size boxes. These boxes are available at the banks, the Willard and Hall hotels, Commando headquarters and the chamber of commerce. If you care to bring a box in, I'll be glad to help you make selections and pack the boxes for mailing.

I've just come back from San Francisco, and was fortunate enough to get quite a large selection of gifts for service men while there. Knowing just what to send—what he'll really appreciate—is quite a problem. And then finding it is another. I'm sure I'll be able to help you.

—RITA.
