

DAR Announces Program for Year

Mrs. Harry Goeller Names Committee Chairmen At Meeting at Thomas Home

Mrs. Harry Goeller, regent, outlined her program for the year at the first regular meeting of Eulalia chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, following summer vacation, held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. B. C. Thomas, vice-regent.

This year refreshments will not be served at the monthly gatherings, according to plans of the regent to conserve food for the duration. Mrs. B. W. Zollman was elected to serve as chapter treasurer, to fill the vacancy made by the departure of Mrs. J. C. Williamson from the city. All meetings will be held at the home of the regent, 125 Pine street, as this is a central location.

Mrs. Thomas presided during the program hour and displayed a most interesting collection of quilts and coverlets and other early-day fabrics. Among those contributing lovely quilts for the exhibition were, Mrs. J. E. Bick, Mrs. Jane Carter, Mrs. Hugh Mitchellmore, Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. J. A. Kincaid and Mrs. W. D. Foster.

On October 4, Mrs. Frank Payne will talk on "Indian Ingenuity In the Use of Nature's Materials."

November 1, feminine accessories of other days will be shown. Buttons and brooches, Mrs. Charles J. Martin; purses and jewelry, Mrs. C. E. McClellan; ornamental combs and fans, Mrs. Thomas Hampton.

December 6, Christmas party, executive board.

January 3, "From Old Mills to Modern," by W. E. Lamm.

February 7, Indian portraits and character sketches by Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach.

March 6, book review, by Mrs. W. J. Cox.

April 3, "Early Cattlemen and Their Irons," by Mrs. L. H. Stone.

May 1, election and installation of officers, Mrs. W. D. Foster installing regent.

Mrs. Goeller announced her committee chairmen for the year as follows: advancement of American music, Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt; Americanism and approved schools, Mrs. Elmer Balsiger; American Indians, Mrs. C. E. McClellan; Angel Island, Mrs. Syd Evans; Champoe Memorial, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall; conservation, Mrs. Robert Odell; correct use of the flag, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas; DAR Good Citizenship pilgrimage, Mrs. Alfred Collier; DAR manual for citizenship, Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm; DAR student loan fund, Mrs. Louis R. Mann; filling and lending bureau, Mrs. Thomas Hampton; girl home makers, Mrs. Vida Hanson; genealogical research, Mrs. L. H. Stone; historical research, Mrs. Claude H. Davis; historical magazine, Mrs. S. R. Berry; junior American citizens, Mrs. Charles Griffiths; junior membership, Mrs. Warren Hunt; motion pictures, Mrs. John Beal; national defense, Mrs. Z. W. Dixon; national defense magazine, Mrs. R. E. Wright; preservation of historic spots, Mrs. E. D. Lamb; press relations, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones; radio, Mrs. H. E. Morris; relics for Memorial Continental hall, Mrs. Fred Schollock; Red Cross chairman, Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg; coat-of-arms, Mrs. William Owsley.

Special committees are, program, Mrs. Robert O. Odell, Mrs. E. D. Lamb and Mrs. L. H. Stone; parliamentary, Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble; music, Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt; hospitality and telephone, Mrs. Thomas Hampton; installing officer, Mrs. W. D. Foster; organist, Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchellmore.

MARRIAGE IN RENO IS TOLD HERE

Carol Elaine James, daughter of Mrs. Lydia James of 1841 Esplanade, and Mr. Gerald Ray Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Balcom of 2215 Orchard avenue, were married at Reno, Nevada, on August the twenty-seventh. The service was read by the Rev. Myrtle Eickelberg of the Church of the Revelation.

The bride wore a suit of beige plaid with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. On September the ninth, the young couple left for Portland where the groom reports for duty with the army air corps.

Tea Planned By Garden Club

BONANZA — Mrs. John Ross was hostess to the Bonanza-Langell Valley club at the Library clubhouse on Friday. Vegetables grown by members were displayed, which were a credit to any gardener. On September the twenty-fourth the club will give a silver tea for the benefit of the Army and Navy relief. The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. Owen Pepple.

DOWN THE AISLE

And down the aisle will go Betty Knowlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sweetman, on September the twenty-fifth to wed James Webster Jr. of Galt, California. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Webster.

—Kennell-Elis.

KLAMATH VISITOR

Billie Sherman, whose betrothal to Aviation Cadet Robert Britt of the United States Army Air Corps was told recently, has been complimented at a number of informal affairs during her visit here at the George Britt home.

—Johansen, Sacramento.

LAKEVIEW COUPLE IS COMPLIMENTED

LAKEVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jamieson of the Idaho district celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday, September first. The Jamiesons were married September 1, 1893, at Kemmerer, Wyoming, and moved to Lakeview in 1918 to a homestead in the Idaho district where they have resided ever since.

The Jamiesons have six children, 16 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. The six children are Alex Jamieson Jr., Idaho; Mrs. M. M. Stephens, Charles Jamieson, Mrs. C. A. Zornes, Lakeview; William Jamieson, Roseburg; and Mrs. Lester Vandergaw, Seaside; two sons, Alex and William, were unable to attend the reception, but during the evening talked to their parents by telephone. Three grandchildren are in the armed service.

Around fifty guests, close friends and relatives, were present at the reception held Wednesday evening at the Jamieson home. A large wedding cake was cut and served by the couple and many lovely gifts were presented to them.

CIRCLE HAS MEETING AT WILLIAMS'

Members and guests of the Friendly Circle were entertained on Thursday afternoon, September the sixteenth, at the home of Katherine Williams, 2040 Darrow avenue. Co-hostess with Mrs. Williams was Mrs. Lydia McDonald, and at half past one o'clock luncheon was served to Mrs. Meeker, Kathryn Billings and Roy, Nona Hall, Arthur Stone, Estella Smith, Ipha Brown, Pearl Marin, Fannie Goddard, Mary Williams, Kathy and Paul, Ruth Berry and the hostesses.

During the business meeting, conducted by Estelle Smith, president, it was announced that at the first meeting in October work would be resumed on Red Cross quilts. During the month of September the club has contributed cookies each week to the Commando center and they will continue to do so for the rest of the month. After the business meeting, several group pictures were taken in Mrs. Williams' attractive yard. The next meeting, September the thirtieth, will be with Kathryn Billings on the Ashland highway.

LEGION GROUP TO MEET FOR FIRST SESSION

The American Legion auxiliary will open the year's program at a meeting planned for eight o'clock next Tuesday evening, September the twenty-first, in Memorial hall with Mrs. Carl Schubert, president, presiding.

Convention reports will be given at this time and Mrs. Schubert will announce plans for the winter months. There are two state officers among local auxiliary members. Mrs. Fred LaForge has been elected district president, No. 4, and Mrs. Earl Templar was appointed recently as the Americanism chairman. Both will be present Tuesday evening.

Daughters Install

Court Klamath Has Interesting Program Monday Evening

On Monday evening, September the thirteenth, Court Klamath of the Catholic Daughters of America held a meeting in the parish hall at which time officers were installed for the coming term. Father Tighe led the opening prayer, followed by group singing of the "Star Spangled Banner", after which Past Grand Regent Lenore Gallagher assisted by Monitor Ellen Ely installed the following officers: Grand Regent Agnes La Londe, Vice Grand Phillis Mahoney, Prophetess Azila Kennedy, Historian Louise Vaughn, Lecturer Katherine Bruner, Financial Secretary Violet Pieser, Monitor Ellen Ely, Treasurer Theresa Doveri, Sentinel Mary McGoran, Organist Mildred Smith, Trustee, Ella Lesmeister, Helen Dunbeck, Rose O'Leary, Emilie Miller, Nora Sullivan and Lee Onda Cody.

As each officer was installed she was presented with a corsage by the installing officer and Grand Regent Agnes La Londe was presented with a gift from the court in appreciation of her work during the past year, Vice Regent Phillis Mahoney making the presentation. The installing officer, Lenore Gallagher also received a gift presented by Prophetess Azila Kennedy.

Plans were made for an open house September the twenty-seventh when Catholic Daughters will entertain the ladies of the parish and the surrounding communities, and arrangements were discussed for initiation of new members in October. Father Tighe and Father Duignan both gave very interesting talks, and Father Duignan led the closing prayer, after which a committee composed of Geraldine Roycroft, Marie Guerretaz, Catherine Shoemaker, Adelaide Towey and Lillian Dale served refreshments to about forty members.

On Thursday evening, September the twenty-third, there will be an executive meeting at the home of Mrs. La Londe, 623 Upham street.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB MEETS SEPTEMBER 10

As the meeting date of the Friendship club has been changed from the fourth to the second Friday of each month, the club met last Friday, September the tenth, with Florence Love and Emma O'Neil assisting her. Dessert luncheon was served to Lora Evans, Alma Cofer, Freda Jackson, Bertha Bishop, Ellen Gaster, Stella Dryden, Mrs. R. L. Chaney and the two hostesses, and following a short business meeting auction bridge was played during the afternoon, high score being held by Freda Jackson, second by Lora Evans, and the door award going to Bertha Bishop. Mrs. Chaney was welcomed as a new member at this time. The next meeting Friday, October the eighth, will be with Mrs. Gaster, 2617 Homedale road.

BRIDE-ELECT HONOR GUEST AT SHOWER

Betty Knowlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sweetman, was the honored guest at a shower given by Shirley Dennis and Betty Champagne at 639 High street Thursday evening, September ninth.

Guests played games and refreshments were served to Patzy Brown, Clara Beals, Helen Grumbles, Elsie Kurick, Verla Sweetman, Harriet Porter, Lois Pfeiffer, Mrs. R. H. Grumbles, Mrs. E. J. Champagne, Mrs. E. Hardenbrook, Mrs. H. H. Sweetman, Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. S. W. Egeline, Mrs. Aubrey Redifer, Mrs. Wilbur Stiles, Mrs. G. C. Tatman and Mrs. Carmel Hartin.

DINNER GIVEN AT CRAWFORD RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Prudhomme, who celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary, September the seventh, were the guests of honor last week at a dinner given for them by Mrs. Frank Crawford at her home on 1142 Crescent avenue.

Following the dinner many lovely gifts made of silver were opened by Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme. Besides the honor guests and the hostess, those present were Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Ralph Crawford of Monahan, Texas; Miss Mildred Crawford and Mr. Hugh Crawford.

AUXILIARY MEETS IN PARISH HOUSE

The Woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church held the first meeting of the fall on Thursday in the parish house at which time a potluck luncheon was served. There were a number of guests present.

Hostesses were Mrs. David Van Evans and Mrs. Lane Warren assisted by Mrs. E. J. Howell. Mrs. Catlin reported on the adult conference held at Cove this summer. The next meeting of the group is slated for September thirtieth. Plans will be announced later.

Klamath Girl Weds

Ludine Speck Is Bride Of California Resident in South

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eugene DeCelle, the latter the former Ludine Anna Speck of Klamath Falls, are now in Alameda, California where they will make their home. The marriage of the couple took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stillwell, formerly of Worden, on the evening of September eighth.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a powder blue taffeta gown with tight bodice and full skirt and carried a bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia, tied with satin streamers.

Miss Mary McKee of Keno was maid of honor. She wore a pink organdy gown and carried a rose-colored tuberous begonia bouquet and gardenias adorned her hair.

Mr. L. W. DeCelle, father of the bridegroom was best man.

A reception was held in the Stillwell residence at Richmond, California. The home was decorated with roses and gladioli.

Mr. DeCelle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. DeCelle of Alameda, California. The newlyweds are to live at 2218 San Antonio avenue, in the Island city.

Church Rite Sunday Event

Rose Van Meter Weds In Candlelight Ceremony September 12

MALIN—In a pretty candlelit eight o'clock ceremony on Sunday evening, September the twelfth, Rose Van Meter, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Van Meter became the bride of Mr. Charles Spolek, son of Mrs. Katherine Spolek, also of Malin.

The ring ceremony was read by Reverend Donald Dod, pastor of the Malin Presbyterian church, in the presence of relatives and friends of the young couple.

The bride, gowning in a floor length satin frock with net overskirt carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds. Her lace edged net veil was caught about her head in cap effect. In the absence of her father she was accompanied to the altar by a life long friend, Miss Barbara Nyhart, who was also her maid of honor. Miss Nyhart wore a sheer beige formal and shoulder corsage of pink gladioli.

Mrs. Robert Wilson, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore pink satin with net over dress while Miss Helen Smith, bridesmaid, wore a similar frock of ice blue. Both attendants wore gladioli corsages in pastel shades.

Fred Spolek, twin brother of the groom was best man. Ushers were Edward McCully of Malin and Clifford Taylor of Tulelake.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Gerdy Shogren sang "Sweet Mystery of Life" with Mrs. George Fabianek at the piano. Mrs. Fabianek also played the traditional wedding marches.

Following the ceremony guests were greeted at a reception at the home of the bride's parents. The tiered pink and white wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom and served by Mrs. Van Meter assisted by the wedding attendants.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Spolek have spent most of their lives here, graduating from the Malin high school. Mr. Spolek will report September twenty-third for army service.

JANE DURBIN WEDS IN RENO RITES

On Saturday afternoon, September the tenth, at half past four o'clock the marriage of Jane Durbin, daughter of Mrs. Robert High of Klamath Falls, and Herbert Pinelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Pinelli of Midland, was solemnized in the parsonage of the Baptist church at Reno, Rev. Brewster Adams reading the single ring service. Mr. and Mrs. Robert High were the only attendants. Mrs. Pinelli was charming in a brown suit with matching accessories and her corsage was of orchids and white rosebuds.

The groom is employed by the Pelican Bay Lumber company, and the bride, has returned here from Portland where she was with the Oregonian. They are now at home in the Royal Arms apartments.

Mrs. Earl Dumm, 407 North Tenth street, was hostess on Thursday evening, September the sixteenth, at a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Mrs. John Larson Jr. Games were played during the evening and Mrs. Dumm entertained with several musical numbers. The rooms were bright with fall flower arrangements of asters and gladioli and the table was also centered with flowers. Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Clara Horsham, Mrs. Lawrence B. Priest, Mrs. Harriet Stoler, Mrs. Claude Darland, Mrs. Charles Thomas and the guest of honor, Mrs. Larson.

The Woman's auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars met in regular session Thursday evening in the library club room. Mrs. Roufs, the president in charge, A guest at the meeting was Mrs. Gould, of Grants Pass. Following the business meeting the auxiliary went to the KC hall where they joined the Veterans for supper. Guests here were Mr. Fredrickson of Grants Pass, senior vice commander of the department of Oregon, who brought a message from the valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Gould. Fredrickson is on his way to New York where he will attend the national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

ROTHMOOR COATS

For these thrifty days, buy quality—the enduring Rothmoor kind that will serve you faithfully season after season.

You'll find the Scotty label and medallion on every genuine Rothmoor

$98

$79

OTHER ROTHMOOR COATS $39.95 up

LaPointe's