Seattle and Seals Play In Finals

S. F. Win Over Beavers Assure Spot in Play-Off
 SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21 (AP)—It's San Francisco versus Seattle in the finals of the lucrative playoff of the Pacific Coast league.

That was decided yesterday as San Francisco's stubborn Seals, overcoming a two-game lead by Portland, won their fourth straight contest from the Beavers to capture the semi-final series.

Seattle, winner of the 1941 and 1942 playoffs, clubbed the Los Angeles Angels, 1943 champions, out of the scramble for extra money with four consecutive victories.

Officials of the two finalists arranged to play the entire series here on this schedule: single games Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, and a doubleheader Sunday. If necessary, another twin bill will be staged next Monday.

San Francisco came close to losing its final game with Portland but succeeded in topping the Beavers, 6 to 5, in a baseball thriller. The trouble started in the eighth inning when Al Epperly, Seals pitcher, blew up with a 6 to 0 lead. Southpaw Tom Seals took over after three runs had been scored. He walked the first batter to fill the bases. Third Baseman Marvin Aves doubled to drive in two more runs. Righthander Bob Joyce, replacing Seals, intentionally walked one batter and forced the next one to ground out to end the rally.

Seattle and San Francisco will share a $7500 playoff stake. The winner gets $5000, and the loser, $2500. Los Angeles and Portland each received $1250 as semi-finalists. The Angels also picked up an additional $2500 as the pennant winner.

Musial, Appling Tighten Grips On Bat Leads

NEW YORK, Sept. 21 (AP)—Both Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals and Luke Appling of the Chicago White Sox tightened their grips on the batting leadership of their leagues during the past week.

Musial hiked his aggregate three points and now leads second place Billy Herman of the Brooklyn Dodgers by 22 points, compared to the 19 points of seven days ago. Musial now is hitting at a .356 pace while Herman has the identical figure—334—of a week ago.

Appling also climbed three points, from 321 to 324, and Dick Wakefield, young Detroit outfielder, skidded from 315 to 313, giving the veteran shortstop an 11-point margin.

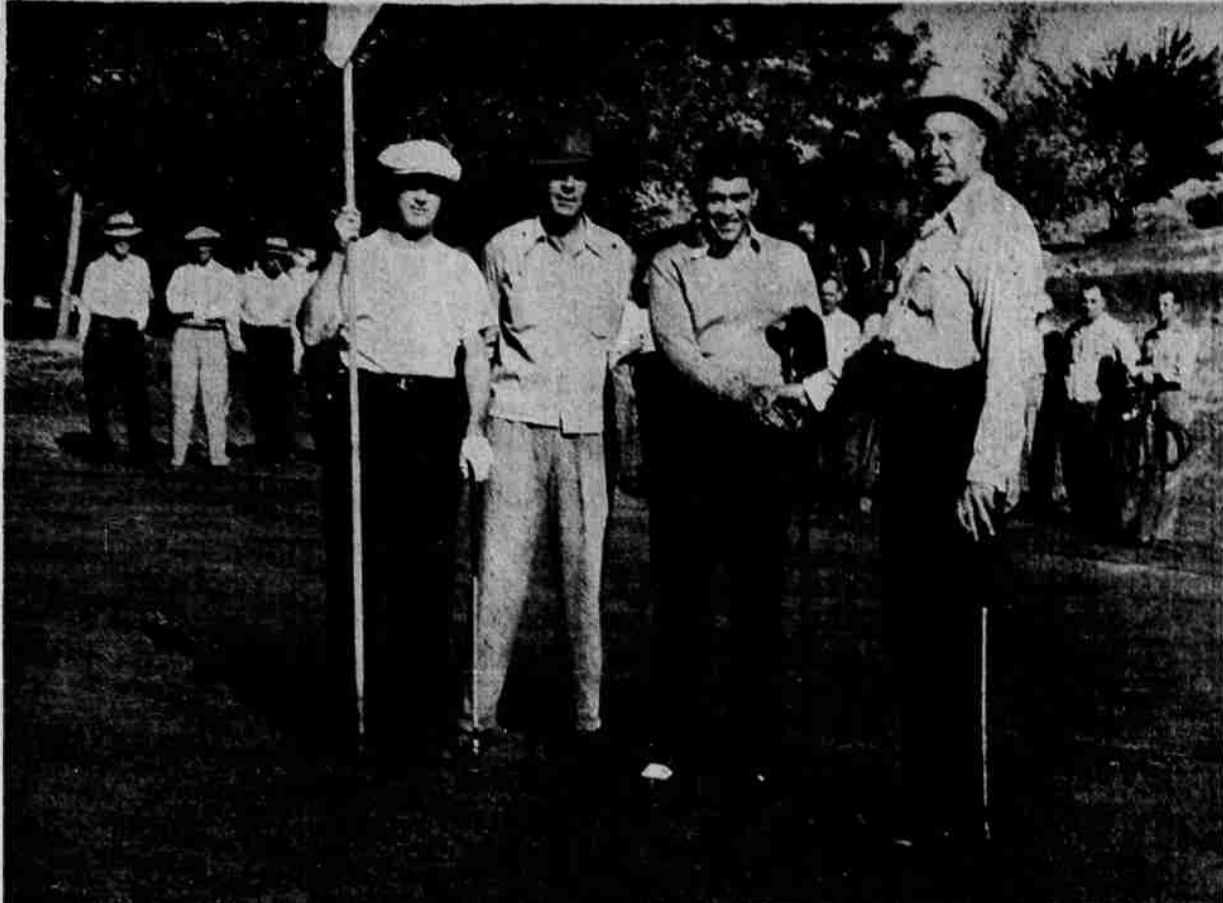

Junior Stephens of the St. Louis Browns, erstwhile American league leader who dropped from the big ten in his circuit last week, returned this time with an average of .285, good enough to give him a tie for ninth with Pete Fox of Boston. Stephens ousted Frankie Higgins of Detroit.

In the National circuit, Frankie Gustine of the Pittsburgh Pirates edged into the select group, displacing Stan Hack of the Chicago Cubs. Gustine has a .297 ticket.

Hunters Get Antelope in Lake Region
 Klamath hunters reported excellent luck on a weekend antelope hunt in the Jack lake country east of Lakeview. The season opened Saturday. Two parties of hunters returned early Sunday afternoon with seven antelope between them.

George Blehn, pioneer Klamath resident, accompanied by his grandson, Marvin Lucas, and Jimmy Howard, made up one party. Each got their animal.

Reames Crowns a New Golf Champion

Earl Weimer, defending champion, shakes hands with new 1943 Reames title holder, Carl Woods, after he had been beaten 4 and 3 in the final rounds last week. Looking on are Harry Panning, secretary, and Lee Smith, president of Reames Golf and Country club. Woods won the championship with a four over par score on the last 18 holes. Left to right in the picture, Panning, Smith, Woods and Weimer.

Yanks Bid For Flag

Crucial Games With Detroit Coming Up; Cards Play Dodgers
 By JUDSON BAILEY
 Associated Press Sports Writer

The major leagues will swing into their last interseasonal round robin of the season tomorrow and instead of everybody ogling the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers as appeared likely when the schedule was drawn up, attention will be centered on the New York Yankees' games with the Detroit Tigers.

The three games with the Dodgers this week only mean to the Cardinals a chance to rub salt on old wounds. However, the controversy over second place in the senior circuit will be in eclipse until the New York Yankees complete the business of winning the American league flag.

They had a chance to do it at Washington last weekend, but were set down surprisingly in three consecutive games as the Senators reinforced their hold on the runner-up spot with a nine-game winning streak.

As a result the Yankees still need a combination of five victories of their own or defeats for Washington to eliminate the Senators.

While the Yankees are taking on Detroit for four games in New York, the Senators will be host to the St. Louis Browns for three night tussles.

The Cleveland Indians, who also still have a mathematical chance, come into Yankee stadium Sunday after four games at Boston and then move on to Washington in the middle of next week.

The race should be over by then, but if it is not the Indians and Senators may dispose of each other.

Two Big Ones Join Giants
 NEW YORK, Sept. 21 (AP)—The New York football Giants today welcomed a pair of hefty newcomers.

Coach Steve Owen announced he had acquired Walter Dubzinski, 210-pound center, who formerly played for Boston college, and 225-pound Vic Carrilli, veteran lineman. The latter, who will be used as a tackle, came from the Washington Redskins.

Beaver Grid Heads Deny Plan to Abandon Season

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 21 (AP)—Football fans at Oregon State college were considerably relieved today by an official denial that the Beavers were about to follow the Oregon Webfoots in abandoning the game.

Athletic Director Percy P. Lacey announced last night that the school's football plans for the 1943 season have not been changed. He pointed out that changed conditions in the conference setup would have to be considered, but said Oregon State intends to continue in the Coast conference if at all possible.

Coach Lon Stiner meanwhile counted a number of new noses, one of which belonged to a 200-pound center, and drove his 28 prospects hard.

PULLMAN, Sept. 21 (AP)—Football practice went on as usual yesterday on the Washington State college field, and Graduate Manager Earl Foster said he had "no statement to make" regarding the Cougars future grid plans following the news that the University of Oregon had dropped the sport.

Kindly Tip to Cards: Don't Start Sounding Off About What'll Happen to Yanks

By SID FEDER
 NEW YORK, Sept. 21 (AP)—For a number of years now, the most famous last word in the American league has been to start shouting about what you're going to do to the Yankees on any given occasion. The roof has a funny habit of falling in when you try to make it stick.

So, since everything's been going so smoothly up to now, it might be a good idea to tip off the National leaguers that they're looking for a leak in the gas meter with a lit match when they holler that (1) the Yankees can't do a thing against left-handers and (2) that the three top St. Louis Cardinal southpaws figure to do fearful things to the bombers in the forthcoming World series.

The chief thing wrong with that picture is that no one seems to be thinking about what the Yanks might do to the Redbird portenders.

And while the Cards' top three—Max Lanier, Alpha Brazle and Oklahoma Harry Brecheen—all are nice young fellows, you have to admit there isn't a Hubbell in the lot. Naturally, the '43 Yanks aren't the 1936 block-busters, either.

The way things shape up, however, Billy Southworth practically has to depend on his southpaws to turn the trick. As a matter of fact, the tossing on both sides is strictly out of the grab bag, because Marse Joe McCarthy's Yankee staff, aside from Georgia Spud Chandler, is mostly hot-and-cold, like boarding house coffee.

Broken Leg Nips Hunting Trip in Bud

Jerry Tresner, who operates an auto body shop at 1400 Elm street, had a long anticipated deer hunting trip nipped sharply in the bud last Wednesday night, and now Tresner is recovering in Klamath Valley hospital from a fractured right leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Tresner and daughter Carol, had just set up camp 60 miles from Alturas and about 15 miles from Crowder Flats. Tresner was walking in the dark toward a spring when he stepped in a hole, snapping his leg bone.

Harold Williams and Lee Estings, both of this city, were in the adjacent camp. They assisted Mrs. Tresner in bringing her husband to the Alturas hospital. He was moved Thursday to Klamath Valley hospital where he is improving.

Brown was not optimistic, pointing out that the trainees have a heavy classroom schedule and therefore might not be given time for practice and competition. Lt. Washke will come here for the conference.

Golf Events For Women Continue

CHICAGO, Sept. 21 (AP)—Plans are being made to continue in 1944 two of the country's biggest golf tournaments for women, the western open and western amateur.

Mrs. Charles Denney of Chicago, president of the Women's Western Golf association, said that the probable dates for the tournaments will be the last week in June and the second week in August.

Marine Patty Berg of Minneapolis was the open champion this year, and Dorothy Germain of Philadelphia won the amateur crown.

Pelican Grid Men Work on Weak Points

Leadership Still Problem Ramsey Tells Quarterback Club; Squad Work Kicking
 Klamath's Pelicans went through a grueling workout on pass and line defense Monday night after Coach "Big Frank" Ramsey had hashed over the good and bad points of the Ashland game at noon before the Quarterback club.

Leadership is still the big problem facing the KUHS squad, he told the Quarterbackers, and admitted that the kicking in the Ashland struggle was not up to expectations, neither was pass defense or defensive line blocking.

Offensive line blocking was excellent—much better than last year's champion squad produced at this time of the season, he said. The squad on the whole came through the Grizzlie tilt in good condition, with the exception of George Long, right tackle, who suffered a leg injury, and Tuesday morning went to the clinic for treatment. Silva, who played the game with a back bruise, has now recovered, and should be in good condition for the Grant battle Friday night.

Grant, Ramsey told Quarterbackers, will be a touch and go struggle, for they have six lettermen back and one regular who starred in last year's squad. Grant is rated 1-2-3 in the Portland circuit with Franklin and Jefferson.

The Pelican squad will work out Tuesday night on offensive plays and Wednesday night on the kick off and place kicking. They will also drill with Conroy in the center position, to bolster defense against a possible strong Grant line. Mundlin is the mainstay at center, but if the Portland school shows the expected strength, Conroy may replace him for that game.

General admission tickets for the Grant game are now on sale. It is necessary to buy a bond only with the reserved seats. The general tickets are sold at the regular prices.
