Friends Greeted Upon Return Here

Several Klamath Falls People Back After Sojourn in Other Parts of the County

With so many parties given for people that are going away from our town, and there have been a great many this past year it seems, it is refreshing to see the return of familiar faces, even if it is only for a brief time.

Greeted after several months away, is Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby who has returned to the home of her son, Martin Ramsby, on North Fifth street. Mrs. Ramsby was with her son-in-law and daughter, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Theodore R. Gillenwaters who are at home in Asheville, North Carolina. She brings word of the former Klamath folks. They have taken a house in the Biltmore Forest section, Ann has entered her first year of high school as a day student at St. Genevieve of the Pines, and Eddie is a day student at the Hazeltine school for boys.

Little Jane, who is just nine months old, is right at home. Mrs. Ramsby and Betty had a weekend in New York before she left, returning to Washington when Mrs. Ramsby took her train west and Betty went back to Asheville. Shortly after getting back, Mrs. Ramsby rolled up her sleeves to get into surgical dressings project work. She is one of the vice chairmen.

Miss Vera Thompson, who is here for a ten-day visit from San Francisco with her parents, the Frank Frankfords, is spending this weekend at Lake O' the Woods with Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver. Mrs. Frankford is also at the cabin. Mr. Weaver plans to go up this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Rawlings and son, Jack, senior student at Klamath Union high school, have returned after an absence in Berkeley. They are now at their home on Portland and Pacific terrace, having been back since the first of the week.

Mrs. Arthur Gustafson and Sonja were thoroughly enjoyed by old friends upon their brief stay here. They had lunch on Monday with the Percy Murrys and Sonja and Rosemary and Marcella Murray went on a shopping trip for a belated birthday present. Mrs. Gustafson was wearing some delectable jewelry sent by "Snowy" from the middle-east. A bracelet and ring of Alexandrites, ever hear of them, were especially lovely as was the filigree cross from another part of Africa. Part of "Snowy's" job is seeing to the entertainment of the troops and he greets these famous personages who travel overseas to cheer up the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore of LeRoy street are entertaining his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith Moore of Hoquiam, Washington, who have arrived for a six weeks' visit.

At the game last Friday night we saw Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moser, (Vera Houston), who used to live here and were en route home to Corvallis from San Francisco. They were guests of Mrs. Lydia Houston, her mother.

Back from Santa Fe, New Mexico, is Maxine Cameron and she has taken over her old position as secretary to Mitchell Tillotson at First National. Miss Cameron left here with all good intentions of dusting Klamath Falls' soot forever from her nice nose. After working as stenographer at the Santa Fe army hospital, outpatient clinic, things don't seem so bad and it's nice to have her back.

Not everyone is coming back, because the R. D. Ellers announced this week that after November the first, friends going through Spokane, Washington, could stop over and see them there. Regrets are being said to the Ellers about their departure. Both have been very active in affairs of the city and will be greatly missed.

Harvesting their lily bulbs over at Harbor, on the Oregon coast, where they have a most attractive home overlooking the ocean, are Catherine Brumbaugh and Ruth Bathany. They are expected home this weekend.

Mrs. William E. Serruys and her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence E. Ray, are expected home soon from Salt Lake City, California, where they visited the Samuel J. Coulls, formerly of this city. They went to see Larry Ray who is at the US Marine corps station at El Centro, California.

Captain Robert A. Thompson who is a liaison officer with the flight control command, weather bureau department of the US army air corps, paid a recent visit to Salt Lake City but didn't have quite enough time to get home. En route to Asheville, North Carolina, he stepped from the train to post a letter home and saw Mrs. Emile Buzald. She told him that Emile had been inducted in the army and that she accompanied him as far as Kansas City but was now going home to Jackson, Wyoming, where she expects to remain for the duration.

When Peggy Rakestraw announced her engagement last Tuesday night she let the cat out of the bag. "Tinker" appeared with a sailor hat and an anchor about his neck. It was the way mama announced her engagement to papa, according to Peggy.

Here is something that has given us a three-day chuckle: Dorothea Roenicke gave each of the three little Roenicks twenty-five cents to spend on her birthday last Tuesday. They went shopping at the dime store and presented her with the following gifts, a tie-slide with the name Dan on it, a cluster of strawberries to go on the end of a zipper, an address book, one handkerchief, a bottle of Stay Curl, and a bottle of corn remover, purchased with the idea that it was "pew-fume". It was exchanged the next day and now everybody smells lovely.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger C. Walsh of Seattle are proud parents of their second child and first son, born at Providence hospital in the northern city on Wednesday, September twenty-second. The child has been named Roger Casement for papa.

Mrs. Walsh will be remembered as the former Virginia Laudwein of this city. Mrs. Richard Walsh of Tulalake is in the north to be with her grandson.

Betrothal Told Tuesday Evening

Peggy Rakestraw to Wed Navy Man Friends Learn at Bridge Party This Week

Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Rakestraw of Eldorado Heights have announced the engagement of their only daughter, Barbara Jane, to Donald Dotters, petty officer, third class, United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Selby A. Dotters of Hayward, California.

A group of the younger set, bidden to the Rakestraw home on Tuesday evening, learned of the betrothal. No date has been set for the wedding.

Following bridge, Miss Rakestraw brought in "Tinker", her cat, and let him out of the bag, literally. Around "Tinker's" neck was a red, white and blue ribbon with an anchor, suspended from the shaft was Peggy's ring. And on "Tinker's" head was a very small white sailor's cap.

Miss Rakestraw attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Her husband-to-be is now stationed at Huemene, California, where he is taking further training. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, and attended Stanford university.

In cards, Mrs. Morgan Johnson received high score, and low went to Mrs. Don Van-nice. Other guests included

Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. Stanley Brewer, Mrs. Lloyd Froom, Mrs. Richard B. Maxwell, Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson, Mrs. Richard Gallagher, Mrs. Donald Hotchkiss, Miss Margaret DeBolt, Miss Dorothy Buchanan, Miss Cora Reber, the honor guest and her mother, Mrs. Rakestraw.

Mrs. Noel Becar is the guest of Mrs. S. Hart Jones and Mrs. Henri Conrad. Mrs. Becar is the former Marion Roberts of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith of Lakeview were here Friday night for the Grant-Pelican football game.

Mrs. Flock Honored

Luncheon Given Saturday as Farewell Affair

Mrs. J. Fred Flock, who leaves Klamath Falls next week for Eugene where she will make her home, has been entertained at several informal affairs prior to her departure.

On Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, Mrs. Theodore R. Case asked a group of friends to the Pelican party room for luncheon and a gift was presented Mrs. Flock. Fall flowers were used about the room. Others attending were Mrs. Lloyd Goble, Mrs. Lloyd D. Gass, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahn, Mrs. Beauford E. Hayden, Mrs. Jackson F. Kimball, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. Alfred Collier, Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill, Mrs. Calvin Peyton, Mrs. E. P. Livingston, Mrs. J. Percy Wells, Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt and the hostess.

Mr. Flock and daughter, Margaret, are expected here this weekend from Eugene. Margaret will be a guest at the Case home.

Affairs Honor Major J. M. Adams

Friends Entertain for Klamath Falls Physician Who Has Returned from Overseas Duty

Flight Surgeon Major J. Martin Adams, who has been right in the thick of it in Africa and Sicily, and overseas for fourteen months, returned to Klamath Falls this past weekend and friends have done much entertaining for the major since he arrived by plane from New York to Medford and then home. Major Adams was greeted in the valley by Mrs. Adams and their two young daughters, Sharon, who is five and one-half, and Sandra, just three and one-half years old.

Upon his arrival here Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby entertained with a cocktail party at their home on North Fifth street. Guests were Major and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. Sam I. Ritchey and Miss Kay Malloy. Later the group had dinner downtown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Adams of Merrill entertained at their ranch home with cocktails and luncheon on Sunday and later a group had dinner at Sari's, including the Adams and their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchey, Mrs. Clara Shaw, Mrs. Jack Ray, Sharon and Sandra Adams and Sandra Jo Ray.

Major Adams was a guest at the Quarterback luncheon at the Willard on Monday and Tuesday with his family went to the Paul Dalton home for dinner in the evening. At noon he was the guest speaker at the Lions club. Wednesday evening, Major Adams spoke to the Commandos in the pine paneled room of the Elks club. Thursday he was guest speaker at the Kiwanis club and Friday evening there was a gathering at the Grant-Pelican football game.

A group of friends is planning a no-host affair at Cal-Ore tavern on Sunday evening for the pleasure of Major and Mrs. Adams.

MRS. OSBORN ENTERTAINS FOR VISITOR

Mrs. Dean M. Osborn asked a small group to Sari's on Monday evening for the pleasure of Mrs. Arthur Gustafson, former resident of our town, who was en route from Milton to San Francisco to be with her sister, Mrs. Frank Nihil.

Dinner guests were Mrs. Gustafson, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, Mrs. Stanley Woodruff, Mrs. William Van Buskirk, Mrs. James Hilton, Mrs. Neal Stewart and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon and son Michael, are weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Moore at Tulalake. The men folks plan to get in a little northern California hunting.

Matches Played

Women of Reames Enter Tournament on Golf Course

The women of the Reames Golf and Country club played their first matches in the tournament on Sunday. The matches will be played next week. Mrs. J. J. Steiger and Mrs. W. O. Smith; Mrs. George H. Merryman and Mrs. Peter A. Albertson; Mrs. W. J. Grove and Mrs. Martin Swanson; Mrs. Harry Land and Mrs. Leslie Rogers; Mrs. Guy Hancock and Mrs. Wilfred L. Lamm.

Hostesses on Friday were Mrs. Hancock and Mrs. Swanson, and next week they will be Mrs. Harry Panning and Mrs. Robert Sproat. The guest awards of the day went to Mrs. Oscar Shive and Mrs. Steiger. A paper sack lunch was enjoyed at one o'clock.

It was announced that a nine-hole tournament would be held next Friday morning as well as the other scheduled. Players will be Mrs. Clifford Shuck, Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, Mrs. Matthew Finnigan and Mrs. Greer Glascoe.

PICNIC EVENT OF LAST SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson entertained at their home near Olene last Sunday afternoon with a picnic which complimented Mrs. Alice H. Wood of Portland, sister of Mrs. E. A. Geary of Lakeshore drive, and Mrs. Charles Davis of Monrovia, California, also a guest at the Geary home. Enjoying the party were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Geary and daughter Alice, Mrs. Alice H. Wood, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Addison and Mary Margaret, Mrs. Howard Barnhiel and Sally and Peter, Miss Bonnie Hauger, and the Stevensons and their two children, Ann and George.
