Fire Department Answers Five Calls During Friday
 There was little rest for the city fire department Friday as the trucks responded to five calls during the day. Short in the wiring of an electric stove at the residence of Mrs. Anna Francis, 419 North Ninth street, caused the first call at 7:54 a. m. There was little damage. The house is owned by Oscar Shive. At 11:47 a. m. a report came in on a grass fire at 2400 Applegate street. Sparks from a chimney caused a roof fire at the J. Dawson house, 1637 Division street, but little damage was reported by the crew which answered a call at 12:51 p. m. Fourth call came at 1:12 p. m. from the Standard Service station where trash and waste oil caused fire in the rear of the building. There was no damage. A carelessly thrown match caused a grass fire on the hill back of Hillside avenue. The last call came at 10 p. m.
