

Service Men Pay Klamath a Call

Goings and Comings of Klamath Folks Make News as October Rolls Around

This week seemed to be highlighted with service men who came to town from various parts of the globe. Sergeant Bill Roark of the United States Marines, home from Guadalcanal, Major Ed Hamm of the army who was in on the invasion on Attu, and Major Martin Adams, right fresh out of Sicily and called upon to make frequent talks. Perhaps that isn't the proper order but that's the way we happened to see them.

The Commandos are making plans for the entertainment of another group of wounded men, according to Mrs. Louis Serruys, and there is an influx of army families who are finding it as difficult to get living quarters here as elsewhere.

Quite the top-ranking delivery boy we've seen in quite a spell was that you-aller, Major Ed Hamm, who dropped into our office Thursday afternoon with the Sojourners news. Ed says it's really something to be back in Klamath Falls. Imagine he was somewhat comparing it with the invasion of Attu in the far north.

Mrs. E. M. Bubb and Janice are back in town from their cattle ranch, known to old timers as the Meiss place near Macdoel, after cooking up vittles for the busy hands during the season. The help situation is at a low ebb but apparently appetites of the crew did not match!

Janice Bubb leaves October seventh for Stanford where she expects to complete her work this year. She spent the summer in Mexico City studying Spanish at the University of Mexico.

Another family back in town is the Henry Gerbers, Margaret and Marilyn, the twins, and little Sylvia have entered Fremont school. They have been on their ranch in the Horseshoe section near Bly and Miriam did a stint at cooking, too. These women should be excellent material for rattling up church supports this winter.

The nicest birthday present Mrs. Rahlen Hastings had last Saturday was a call from her son, Ben, who is at school in Center college, Fayette, Missouri, where he was ordered under the navy's V-12 program. Ben had just enjoyed a weekend at St. Louis and was looking forward to a whirl in Chicago sometime soon.

Another call which reached a pair of pleased parents came Tuesday night of last week from Dick Beane to Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Beane of 1105 Pacific Terrace. Dick was just back from convoy duty in the Atlantic and has been upped from fireman first class to machinists mate second class, United States Navy.

The Beane's daughter, Barbara, is leaving next Friday for Oregon State college where she enters her third year.

Smacks of Kipling! Letters from Captain Zed Barnes who is located somewhere in India with our air force, tells of a two weeks' vacation which he was anticipating, and which would be spent in the hills or on a houseboat.

It's a girl, Maryanne, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Dreher of Beaverton, Oregon, the little one arriving at Wilcox Memorial hospital in Portland on September the twenty-first. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dreher of Prineville, formerly of this city.

Margaret DeBolt, first Klamath girl to go into the WASPs, the rather zippy sounding name for the women's auxiliary service pilots, left Thursday night for Sweetwater, Texas, where she has reservations at the Blue Bonnet hotel. Margaret was in San Francisco when orders came through just one month earlier than she expected and she had to dash home and assemble things in a bag to make it to Sweetwater on time. She'll train in Sweetwater for six months and then begin ferrying planes in earnest. Uniforms, it seems, are much like those of our army air corps officers.

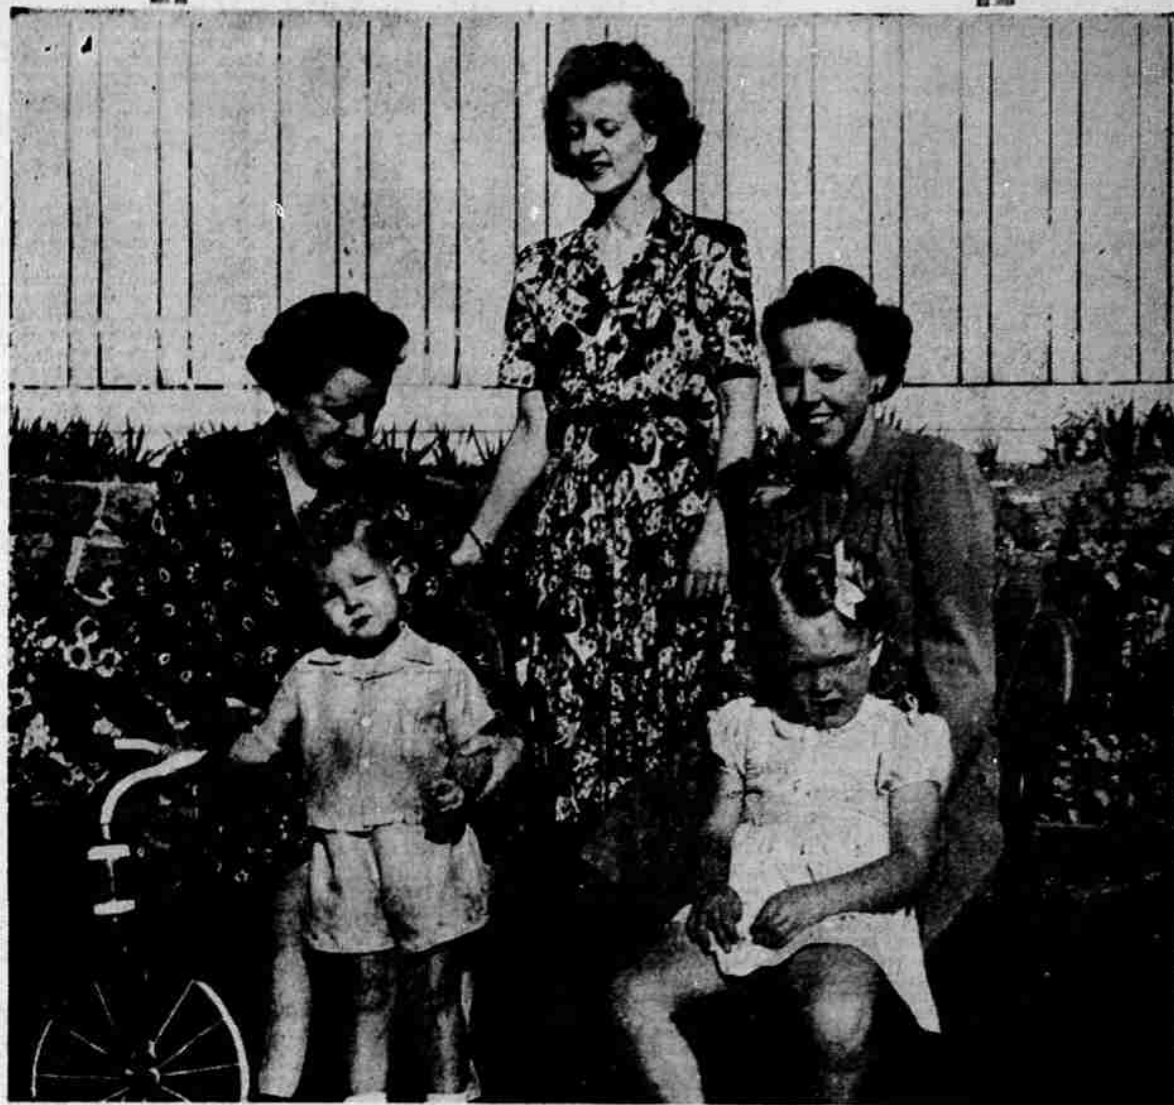

Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr. and Rose returned Monday from a few days in Portland where they saw quite a few former Klamath people who wanted to know all the news from home. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Dinsmore who have been staying at the Portland hotel for several weeks and Mrs. Dinsmore is reported as looking very well following quite a long illness. They also enjoyed very much a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrin in their nice new home on Kings Heights which overlooks the city. Mrs. Macartney and Rose were luncheon guests of Mrs. Claude McCulloch and one of the highlights of their stay was to accompany Mrs. C. B. Harding to induction ceremonies of air cadets where the citation of her son, Captain John Harding, was read and Mrs. Harding presented with a corsage.

Virginia West, who has been in Portland this summer, planned an all-Klamath party recently and those invited were former residents of our town. Plenty of local chat was passed back and forth and from all reports a good time was had by all.

Speaking of old times, at the Dunbar golden wedding reception many old pictures were passed around including some bathing suit scenes shot at Martha's Vineyard on the east coast in the early days of the Dunbar's married life. Mr. Dunbar had himself a time showing a picture of Mrs. Dunbar at the age of

No-Host Party Sunday Eve

Group of Friends Honor Major Adams At Cal-Ore Tavern

A no-host party at Cal-Ore tavern last Sunday evening honored Major and Mrs. J. Martin Adams, who have been entertained frequently since Dr. Adams' return from overseas.

At the affair were Major and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mr. and Mrs. Brady Burey, Mr. and Mrs. George Burey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ritchey, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Dalton, Mrs. Ralph McCulloch, Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. John T. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, Mr. Hugh Sapp of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Dale West and Mrs. Clara Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. William Van Buskirk entertained at dinner for Major and Mrs. Adams on Monday evening at their home, and on Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dalton asked Major and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton and Sandra and Sharon Adams to their ranch home near Malin for dinner. Other guests included Mrs. Dalton's sister, Mrs. Sadie Laxton, and Billy Dalton.

The Klamath Medical society honored one of their fellow members, Major Adams, at a dinner given in the Pelican party room on Wednesday night. Following steaks, Major Adams spoke to the group on the war in Africa and Sicily from the medical standpoint. Twenty were present.

PTA HEAD TO PAY VISIT IN CITY MONDAY

The Klamath County Council of Parents and Teachers is looking forward to the visit of Mrs. Frank W. Blum of Portland, president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, on Monday, October the fourth.

The Council extends a cordial invitation to all who would like to attend the meeting which will be held in the First Methodist church at half past ten o'clock in the morning. There will be a sack lunch at noon.

Betty Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Merrill, will leave Tuesday for Oregon State college to resume her studies and to assist with freshmen students.

nine years with a close-cropped boy's haircut.

A note from Mrs. Sam Miller, She's involved in war work like all the rest of the Portlanders. Doing her stint in the First Aid office at Libbey's. She writes that we can thank her when we eat out of cans this winter for keeping all the darling 2000 at work!

MRS. PEYTON VISITS NEW GRANDSON

Mrs. Oscar Peyton returned Monday evening from Portland where she visited with her sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Peyton and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Peyton.

The Leslie Peytons have adopted a baby boy and they have named him Steven Carl. This is their only child. Announcements have reached friends here titled, "Change of Address" and saying, "Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Peyton have adopted me to be their very own. I'm a fine big boy, born August 6, 1943, at which time I weighed seven pounds four ounces. The meals have been quite satisfactory, as I now weigh nine pounds. The hours aren't bad either, and even though my new folks disturb me a little at 2 a.m. and 6 a.m., I'm sure this will be my permanent address." The Peytons live at 8041 SW Eighth street, Portland. Mrs. Peyton is the former Helen Mason of this city.

GUILD NAMES DATE FOR HOLIDAY BAZAAR

First of the organizations to name the date for their holiday bazaar is the Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mrs. David Van Evans is general chairman of the affair which will be an old fashioned kind of bazaar and the location will be announced later. The date is Saturday, December the fourth.

MISS DE BOLT HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Miss Margaret DeBolt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeBolt of Erie street, was complimented at a one o'clock luncheon Thursday by Mrs. A. J. Voyer. Miss DeBolt left that evening for Sweetwater, Texas, to report for six months' training with the WASPs.

Luncheon guests at the Pelican were Miss DeBolt, Miss Janice Bubb, Miss Betty Merrill, Miss Winifred Lamm, Miss Rose Macartney, Miss Merlon Albrecht, Miss Mary Jane Drake and the hostess, Mrs. Voyer.

Mrs. J. F. King, 601 Alameda street, will leave soon to join her husband in Prineville, where he has accepted the post as manager of Ochoo Lumber company. As soon as the Kings find suitable residence they will move from Klamath Falls where Mr. King has been assistant manager of Long Bell Lumber company.

Workrooms to Close Two Days

Workers at the surgical dressing project are advised that Monday and Tuesday, October fourth and fifth, the workrooms at Red Cross headquarters will be closed for repairs. There won't be any night classes on those dates.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith of Conger avenue have returned from a ten-day stay at Neskowin on the Oregon coast where they enjoyed excellent weather for golf.

SUPPER PARTY ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Clara Shaw was hostess at her home on Homedale road at seven o'clock supper Friday night before the Salem-Pelican game. Later guests returned for a snack and conversation.

Supper guests were Major and Mrs. J. Martin Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Dale West of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ritchey, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Adams, Mrs. John T. Ray, Mrs. Ralph McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Pal Malloy, Kay Malloy, Mrs. Harve Hoselson, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Dent, Haskell Hankins of Bakersfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster.

Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds is expected home October the seventeenth from a trip throughout the state where she is fulfilling her duties as state organizer of PEO Sisterhood. Mrs. Reynolds has been gone since September ninth and attended the supreme convention of PEO, held early in the month in Detroit. At this time she is in Portland.

BARBARA JANE RAKESTRAW'S engagement to Donald Dotters, petty officer, third class of the United States navy, was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, on Tuesday evening of last week.

Victory Ball Is On Fall Program

Elks Lodge To Entertain With Party For Members On October Twenty-third

The Elks lodge really has something to dance about this time—the success of the Third War Loan which was brought to a close this weekend. Needless to say, because everyone knows it, the $2,518,000 goal was surpassed by more than $600,000.

Malcolm Epley, exalted ruler of the Klamath Falls Elks lodge which sponsored the Third War Loan, this week announced a Victory ball which will be given for Elks and their ladies on Saturday evening, October twenty-third, in the lodge ballroom.

Members of the committee making arrangements for the Victory party include Mr. and Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack.

Along with a whole of a lot of hard work, the Elks had fun and a great deal of satisfaction in putting over the quota. The army show at the Pelican on Tuesday night was well attended, so well in fact that there wasn't any standing room available.

After the show some of the entertainers from Camp White gathered at the Elks lodge and a group of members and their wives dropped in and were informally entertained in the pine paneled room. Sgt. Doremus, who played piano solo numbers and accompanied Dennis Morgan, the movie actor, played again for an hour or two and delighted the guests no end. Mr. Morgan didn't sing but he got around quite a bit.

The show itself, from the spectator's standpoint, was like old home week. A lot of friendly faces on the stage, neighbors and friends sitting around. Any number of amusing things happened. Little Sally Jones helped our section out during the auction when, in response to an urge from Dennis Morgan—"Who'll give $27,000," she countered with an "I will!" High school girls, watching Dennis sing his "One Alone" from "The Desert Song," could have been listening to Frank Sinatra from the looks on their faces.

It was all good fun, the entertainment was excellent, and the Elks are responsible for one of the best evenings of home entertainment we've had the privilege to enjoy for many a day.

AAUW Meet Date Slated

University Women To Have Luncheon October 16th

The Klamath county chapter of the American Association of University Women is getting started a little late with the year's activities due to war work, and October sixteenth is set for the first meeting of the fall.

Members are asked to meet for a one o'clock luncheon on that date in the Pelican party room. Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., vice president of AAUW, will preside in the absence of Miss Ruth Pinkston who was elected president in the spring. Miss Pinkston is now teaching in Arizona.

The program chairman is Mrs. Samuel Mushen and music chairman is Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt.

Other officers serving during the coming year are Mrs. L. Orin Sisemore, secretary, and Mrs. Warren Noble, treasurer. Mrs. Robert A. Thompson will handle publicity.

This year's program, it is understood, will be streamlined and in keeping with the war effort.

Visitor Honored

Mrs. Clark Is Complimented by Friends in City

Mrs. George Clark of Portland, former resident of Klamath Falls, has been honored at several informal affairs since her arrival here with Mr. Clark and their children, Dick and Nancy. They are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Bogue of Merrill.

Guests honoring Mrs. Eller were Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mrs. Harry Panning, Mrs. Eugene Larsen, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. James Douglas, Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, Mrs. E. W. Swartz, Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook, Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger, Mrs. J. Hardin Carter and the hostesses.

That same evening a group of men gathered at Cal-Ore tavern complimenting Mr. Eller with a stag party.

NILE TO MEET TUESDAY AT PARTY ROOM

The October one o'clock luncheon and meeting of the Nile club will be held Tuesday in the Pelican party room when Mrs. E. W. Swartz, Mrs. Paul Matthews, Mrs. Jerry Ricker, Mrs. Otto Kenschot and Mrs. Myrtle Adams will be the hostesses.

Mrs. Obara Dunn, queen of Zulema temple, Daughters of the Nile, and several members of the Medford group are expected to be guests here for this meeting.

Members whose birthdays occur in October will be honored at the luncheon.

PEO CHAPTER HONORS MEMBER

Members of PEO chapter, AU, met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ira Orem of the Henley district and took the occasion to honor one of their members, Mrs. J. Fred Flock who is leaving the city.

A gift of a bowl with matching candlesticks was presented Mrs. Flock who has been active in PEO.

Members present were Mrs. Flock, Mrs. E. Drake, Mrs. Elmer Hooking, Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahm, Mrs. C. Frank Mills, Mrs. Francis R. Olds, Mrs. R. J. O'Sullivan, Mrs. George W. Sample, Mrs. Robert D. Shaw, Mrs. Dwight French, Mrs. Fred Southwell, Mrs. Edwin A. Thomas, Mrs. Don Vannice, Mrs. E. M. Bubb, Mrs. Ira Orem and Miss Orpha Hudson.

Word comes from Abilene, Texas, that a second son has been born to the Rev. and Mrs. Willis P. Gerhart of that city. Mrs. Gerhart, the former Eleanor Deuel, who was with St. Paul's church were seven years ago. The little fellow arrived July twenty-first.
