

Mothers Honored By Legion Groups

A banquet honoring mothers of veterans of Wars I and II was given at American Legion Memorial hall Tuesday, May 16, 8:30 o'clock. Over one hundred guests and members attended. Jack Gallagher served as chairman of arrangements.

The banquet tables were beautifully decorated with candles and spring flowers. Seated at the head table were the guests of honor: Mrs. Clara Shaw, Gold Star mother of World War I and Gold Star grandmother of War II; Mrs. Lewis Larson, mother of six sons in service; Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. Della Arnold, Mrs. Augusta Hellbrunner, Mrs. ...

Name Delegates

A regular meeting of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars was held in the library club room Thursday, at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Herman Lofdahli presiding. A letter was read from the Veterans' hospital at Roseburg thanking members for the candy and cigarettes sent there, and members were reminded that cigarettes are to be brought to the next meeting. Plans were made for the formation of a junior girls' unit for those eligible, and Mrs. H. J. McGilvray, chairman of the poppy sale, outlined her plans for May 27.

The following appointments were made: Mrs. William Brighton, hospital chairman; Mrs. Frank Subject, flower chairman, to be assisted by Mrs. Orville Lohrey. Members of the auxiliary will march in uniform in the Memorial Day parade, and it is hoped that there will be a good representation. The special award for the evening went to Mrs. Frank Subject.

Delegates elected to attend the state encampment to be held in Portland June 15, 16 and 17 are Mrs. Herman Lofdahli, Mrs. Frank Subject, Mrs. Carl W. Henry, Mrs. Jake Brochtrup, Mrs. John Mullins, Mrs. Orville Lohrey, Mrs. Henry La Barge, and Mrs. Ed Young. Following the meeting the auxiliary joined the veterans at the KC hall for supper.

Honor Mother

Neighbors of Woodcraft held their meeting Monday, May 15, at the home of one of their members, Mrs. C. O. Dryden, 610 North Eleventh, instead of at the regular meeting place in the IOOF hall. Following a short business meeting a Mother's Day program was presented including a reading by Dicky Weed, vocal solo by Leola Thompson, and a reading by Irma Miller. Mrs. Dryden, as the official lodge mother, was presented with a gift by Ida Mochetaz in behalf of the organization. Several entertaining games pertaining to Mother's Day were played, and refreshments were served at the evening's close. The committee in charge consisted of Irma Miller, Vera Reeves and Martha Gilchrist.

The next meeting, June 5, will be held in the IOOF hall, and Mildred Smith and Ida Mochetaz will be in charge of arrangements.

The Friendly Circle met Thursday, May 11, with Mrs. J. N. Smith, 418 Pacific terrace. Luncheon was served at one o'clock to Kathryn Billings, Nettie Good, Agnace Lowe, Lydia McDonald, Arthur Stone, Pearl Marin, Anna Hodges, Grace Bock and the two guests, Zella Blankenship and Genevieve Hanson. The afternoon was spent at hand work. Pearl Marin, 2305 Home, will entertain at the next meeting.

OFFICERS OF AAUW

Officers-elect of the Klamath chapter of the American Association of University Women are, above, left to right, Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen, president; Mrs. L. Orth Sisemore, vice president; below, Mrs. Lawrence Shaw, secretary, and Mrs. Robert Shaw, treasurer.

Elected

TULELAKE — Mrs. Herbert Baack succeeds Mrs. Dan O'Keefe as president of the Winema Welfare club, with Mrs. Walter England to serve as vice president; Mrs. P. C. Bergman as secretary, and Mrs. E. Webb Staunton, treasurer. The new corps of officers was elected at the home of Mrs. P. C. Bergman when the club met for the last time before adjournment for the summer. The fall meeting in September will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter England.

Plans for the school picnic for students of Winema school, June 2, were taken, under consideration and the members will furnish flowers for eighth grade graduates who will receive diplomas May 31. Mrs. George Grey will serve as chairman of the committee on arrangements for the picnic.

Mrs. Frances Andrews was co-hostess with Mrs. Bergman.

Bly Meeting

BLY—Madelyn Crane entertained the Bly Music and Dramatic association at her home on May 15.

Carl Raupach, president, presided over the business meeting. The secretary gave favorable reports regarding the dance held in the Bly gymnasium on May 12. The annual picnic will be held at the Bly recreation park on May 28, it was announced.

A short skit was given by Etta Hartman and Carl Raupach. There was a short installation of officers. Refreshments were served to fourteen members.

Wednesday evening, May 10, the Happy Day sewing club met with Mrs. Lloyd Allen, 2461 Orchard way. Attending were Mrs. D. P. Freborg, Mrs. F. A. Beard, Mrs. Harry Wiard, Mrs. H. E. Stiles, Mrs. Howard Cramblett and Mrs. Clifford Case. The door award went to Mrs. Freborg. Mrs. Harry Wiard of 2705 Wiard lane will be hostess for the next meeting.

Wed in Rites

Virginia Eleanor Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wallace of North Eleventh street, and PFC Henry Douglas Ambers, United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ambers of Pleasant avenue, were married Thursday, May 11, in a ceremony read by Rev. Langseth in the Klamath Lutheran church.

Parents of the young couple attended them. A family gathering is planned for Saturday night by the Wallace and Ambers families in honor of the newlyweds. PFC Ambers reports back to Camp Hahn, California, on May 23, and his bride will remain here with her parents. The groom has just returned from serving 18 months in the Aleutians.

Seniors Honored

Henley High school seniors were guests at an outdoor dinner party given by Mrs. Blanche Harmon of the Merrill highway when she entertained early in May for her nephew, LeRoy Stewart, member of the graduating class. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Howard Hanville.

The class colors of blue and white were used on the long tables and apple blossoms lent a gay note. Movies were shown after the dinner. Guests included Edella Cunningham, Lila Kaylor, Rose Marie Dolan, Mildred Sparlin, Gloria Saunders, Jean Wheeler, Ann Steyenson, Frances Newell, Jennie Carson, Alice Crumrine, Jewell Masters, LeRoy Stewart, Harold Campbell, Paul Fairclou, William Hayes, Bill Meeker, Stanley Masten, Dick Noble, Howard Manning, Garrett Dean Hilyard, Harry Oren, and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Howe and son.

The regular meeting of Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Masonic temple on Klamath avenue. Mrs. Arthur Dickson, worthy chapter, and Earl Tempilar, worthy patron, extend a cordial invitation to all members and visiting members to attend.

Social Calendar

Saturday, May 20
Sojourners plans annual spring dancing party.

Monday, May 22
American-Soviet Union friendship study group with Mrs. M. P. Leonard, 2033 Del Moro.

Regular May meeting of Garden club in small Library club-rooms.

Tuesday, May 23
Meeting of Happy Hour club to be held at home Mrs. H. J. Savidge, 2 p.m.

Wednesday, May 24
Commencement for senior class of KUHS in Pelican court, 8 p.m. The Rev. Dr. Raymond B. Walker, Portland, to speak on "A More Abundant Life."

Sojourners at Willard. No-hostess luncheon at 12:15 p.m.; cards, 1:45 p.m. Invitation to all newcomers extended.

Thursday, May 25
Annual voice and piano recital of students of Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt at Library auditorium, 8 p.m.

Last meeting of season for Aloha Post Matron club, Masonic temple.

Friday, May 26
Elks spring formal for high school seniors.

Wednesday, May 31
Last meeting of season for ANW club with Mrs. W. P. McMillan, 217 Pine, potluck luncheon.

Tuesday, June 6
Luncheon for Daughters of the Nile.

Thursday, June 15
Navy Officers Wives to meet for luncheon at Officers club.

Victory Club

The Midland Victory club met at the home of Mrs. Edna Travers on Wednesday with Mrs. Blanche Flowers and Mrs. Pauline Gray as hostesses. A large attendance was reported and the afternoon was spent in cutting out slippers for convalescing service men. The meeting was presided over by the vice president, Mrs. Travers, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Hazel Mistle who is visiting in Leavenworth, Kansas.

It was decided to give a potluck supper on May 27. Mrs. Gray received the gift award of the afternoon.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Travers, Mrs. Pearl McPherson and Nancy, Marilyn and Barbara Jean Wilson, Mrs. Thelma Houck and Leland, Mrs. Vada Schmeck and Vaughn, Mrs. Minnie Andrieau and Raymond, David and Ruth, Mrs. Andrieau, Mrs. Pauline Flowers and Frankie, Mrs. Esther Cassier, Mrs. Katie Phipps, Mrs. Thomas of Burns, and the hostesses, Mrs. Blanche Flowers, Georgia Lee and Donn, and Mrs. Pauline Gray and Charlene.

Townsend Club

Members of Townsend club met Saturday, May 6, in the KC hall and a potluck supper was served at 7:30 o'clock with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Gilles of Salem and Mrs. Bevins of Portland as the honor guests.

The long tables, where places were laid for 80 members and guests, were centered with bowls of daffodils.

Following dinner reports were read of the district convention held at Redmond on April 19, and the state convention in Salem on April 30. The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Gilles who read and explained the newly proposed $60 amendment, called the Oregon Employment and Retirement Insurance Plan.

Delegates to the state convention were Mrs. Bernice McCracken, Mrs. Eva Myers and John Shively. Also making the trip were Mrs. Esther Mast and Ed McCracken and son. Mrs. McCracken acted as secretary to A. C. Clemon of Portland, Townsend organizer of Oregon and permanent chairman of the convention.

The evening ended with a dance which more than 150 persons attended. Mr. Soholm expects to visit Klamath Falls soon, the date to be announced later.

Wedding Plans

Of interest to friends of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Kelly of Lakeview is word of the approaching marriage of their son, Aviation Cadet John Richard Kelly, whose bride-to-be is Mary Jane Brabec of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brabec of the capital city.

The wedding will take place early in June at the post chapel at the air base in San Antonio, Texas. Miss Brabec is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, University of Oregon, and is known to a number of the younger set here.

The regular business meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge was held in the IOOF hall Thursday, May 18, at 8 p.m. Mary Curtis presided, and routine business was transacted. The next meeting will be Thursday, June 8.

Mrs. T. J. Webb, 1835 Melrose, entertained the Friendship club Friday, May 12 at dessert. Auction bridge was played during the afternoon, with Stella Dryden holding high score, Ruth Stanley second and Bertha Bishop received the special award.

Friends are greeting Mr. and Mrs. John Xenoffel of San Diego, former residents of Klamath Falls, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Margulis, 1809 Auburn. They will be here the remainder of the month.

Hosts at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Moss and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bell were entertained at dinner on Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans were host and hostess at their home on Wall street. The occasion was a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Moss who left this week to make their home in Ashland.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Grace Kintigen were hosts at dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. James Racknor who are moving to Cottage Grove to make their home after many years of residence in this city.

Langell Valley

LANGELL VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. William Burnett entertained with a dinner party Thursday evening in honor of their son Richard on his sixth birthday. It was also the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dearborn. A beautiful wedding cake centered the table and tulips and irises were used in the low bowl. Guests were Richard Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dearborn, Catherine, Henry and Billy Dearborn, Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mrs. Ruby Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Doris, Mary and Calvin Leavitt, Earl Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Burnett.

Mrs. Macolm Teare entertained with a bridge party at her home on Thursday afternoon with three tables in play. High scores went to Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mrs. Paul Monroe and Mrs. Harry Frazier. Guests were Mrs. Tyndel Robison, Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mrs. F. W. Brown, Mrs. Charles Revell, Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Mary Leidy, Mrs. Mary Smith, and Mrs. Harry Frazier. Refreshments were served by the hostess at 4:30 o'clock assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Thelma Mason and Mildred Teare.

Keno Dinner

KENO—Mrs. Guy L. Moore and Mrs. Ralph Johnston were co-hostesses at a dinner given Thursday evening of last week in honor of the Keno teachers. The affair was given in the Keno schoolhouse. Tables were decorated with tulips, lilacs and apple blossoms.

Seated at the table were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Oehlerich, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tenney, Mrs. Jean Woolfolk, Ethel Puckett, Alice Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Waterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Moore.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller entertained at their home on Upham street with a buffet supper Sunday, Mother's day. Celebrating their birthdays at this time were Linda Lee Horn, Freida Miller and Ralph Miller.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, Jack and Betty, Meta and Alice Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Fern Scott and sons, Lytle and Lionel, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Horn and Linda Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller, Mrs. Horn, Mrs. Scott and Grandma Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller and daughter Freida.

New Pine Creek

NEW PINE CREEK—Mrs. Faye Keller left last Friday for San Francisco to attend the wedding of her daughter, Billie Bernice Keller, to Capt. Jack Whittsitt of Ashland, who is temporarily in the bay region after spending 21 months in the South Pacific with the United States army air corps.

The ceremony took place, Saturday, May 13, at the First Presbyterian church in San Francisco. A wedding reception was held at the Sir Francis Drake hotel for the many friends of the bride and groom. The newlyweds plan to spend a few days visiting here with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Keller before Capt. Whittsitt has to report for duty at San Monica where he will be stationed for an indefinite period. Mrs. Keller returned home on Monday.

Members of the Altamont Garden club of which Mrs. Don Holloway is president, may bring their plants to the Red Cross surgical dressings project on Wednesday at the Altamont Junior high school, it was announced. If this time is not convenient they may bring them by Friday to the home of Mrs. Lee McMullen, 5008 South Sixth street.

Persons interested in the planting project at the barracks, who have spring blooming plants or shrubs to be divided in the fall, please call Mrs. Horace Geitz, 5289, and record will be kept for autumn collection. A special appeal is being put out for lilac slips which may be heeled in at this time.

Mrs. J. N. Smith, 419 Pacific Terrace was hostess to Ye Olde Pinochle club Thursday, May 18. After luncheon pinochle was played, high score going to Grace Bock, second high to Agnace Lowe, pinochle to Melva Danielson and low to Kathryn Billings. Those attending were Fannie Goddard, Maggie Upton, Hazel Nordwood, Grace Bock, Mrs. Wilson, Melva Danielson, Agnace Lowe and Kathryn Billings. Melva Danielson will be hostess for the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tonkin, 1537 Wiard, were hosts at a potluck dinner on Mother's Day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder and Martin and Larry, Mrs. William Gerriotti and Billy and Averil, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes.

Ceremony Held For Installation

Using the effective candle lighting ceremony, Lillie Darby, a past president of the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club, installed the six new officers who will serve during the coming year, at the conclusion of the dinner and business meeting at the Willard Monday evening.

The new officers are Norma Miller, president; Hazel Morrison, first vice president; Ellen Upp, second vice president; Veneta Hunter, recording secretary; Marjorie Brissenden, corresponding secretary, and Mable Humble, treasurer.

Mr. Paul Landry, introduced by Rose M. Poole, explained the Memorial Park fund on which voters were asked to cast ballots at the primary election and showed the miniature plot of the park, pointing out the various landscaping and building features.

Lieut. Helen Robertson, army recruiter in charge of the Klamath office, was invited to outline the work of the Women's Army corps during the past two years, in observance of the corps' second anniversary.

Delegates' reports of the state convention held in Klamath Falls were presented by Emma Carter, retiring state publications chairman, Norma Miller, Jacquelin Newcom, Lucille Tweed, Marjorie Brissenden, Veneta Hunter and Joy Rolph.

President Winnifred Gillen appointed Ellen Upp to represent the BPW club on the women's division for the Fifth War Loan drive in June, and Dena D. Backes was appointed to present a wreath from the club at the Memorial Day services on the courthouse lawn.

Past presidents were in charge of Monday night's meeting and Isabelle Brixner, retiring state president, acted as chairman. Sprays of apple blossoms in a crystal bowl, flanked on each side by five apple blossom nosegays in small bowls and with an arrangement of purple iris on each end made the speaker's table particularly lovely. A miniature spring garden and lighted tapers centered each of the other tables.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held on June 5, and, as a final affair for this fiscal year, a picnic has also been planned for the month of June. It was announced by Mrs. Gillen, at the request of the new president, that regular meetings of the club will be held this summer.

WCTU Meets

The May meeting of the WCTU was held at the home of President Mrs. Ellen Rogers of 607 High on Tuesday, May 9.

After a short devotional period, Mrs. Helene Melas gave a temperance lesson quoting from "The National Voice," the "National Prohibitionist" and the "Sunday School Times." Among other things, Mrs. Melas quoted from one of the magazines the fact that "over four billion dollars are spent annually in America for liquor, and Washington, D. C. leads the nation in war-time drinking."

A shower of cards and handkerchiefs was given Mrs. Melas by the members in appreciation for her many years of service in the organization. The president extended the club's best wishes to Mrs. Melas as she goes to her new home in Boulder, Colorado.

Refreshments were served by the hostess following the program.

Mrs. Lloyd Allen and Mrs. Howard Cramblett and Mrs. Plez Chamberlain entertained at the home of Mrs. Chamberlain, 1654 Portland, this week in honor of Sgt. and Mrs. Barney Diskin, here from Wendover, Utah. Sgt. Diskin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Diskin, were here from Tennant, Calif., and other guests were Rolfe and Jimmie Allen, Ronald Cramblett, La Vonne and Gerry Chamberlain and Mrs. Othilde Mathis.

Everything's great
Everything's fine
When we don't have to wait
For a Long Distance line

Will you help their calls get through this evening?

Evening is about the only time most service men have to call. Then there is a rush on Long Distance lines from camps, naval stations and air bases.

You can help by leaving the lines from seven to ten for the service men.

For Victory—Buy United States War Bonds

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY
120 North 8th Street Telephone 3101

YOUTH REVIVAL

Hear
Evangelist Bruce Yorke
Unusual Ministry

•

Assembly of God Church

746 Oak Street

Beginning Sunday Night
Services 7:45 Each Night Except Monday
A. Harold Persing, Pastor

2395

It's a Swansdown

in a pure wool
by Farnsworth

Swansdown designs the perfect coat for overall duty under summer suns. All-wool in heavenly colors, with eye-catching detail, this is a coat you'll wear everywhere with smart assurance.

The Pointe