NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Spring Fever Dept. . . This columnist can hear with no serious increases in blood pressure, that the ice is out in the Maine lakes and the landlocked salmon and toge are striking furiously; that in Wisconsin big pike are almost jumping into the boats; even that anglers at Peconic bay are hauling in weakfish by the dozen and a big run of blues is reported heading north. . . But this note from Dave up at Freedom village is almost too much to endure.

JUST FISHIN' "Today I went fishing," Dave writes. "I dug some worms and started in at the village dam with the intention to fish down to the outlet. After 15 minutes, I felt a heavy jerk and then a few more, so I pulled in a 12-inch rainbow. No kidding, right in the brook directly behind the store. . . The bugs are beginning to bite badly, but now I was determined that nothing would deter me. It really was beautiful down by the stream; the apple blossoms are all out and the brook is just high enough. Everything was perfect. . . In the course of my excitement I lit a cigarette. It smelled funny, or at least I thought it smelled something burning. It was only my new $1.19 sweat shirt. Just then I slipped and darn near went all the way in; I did manage to put the fire in my clothing out, though. . . The pungent smell of burning wool snuffed out the aroma of apple blossoms, but still I fished on. . . Every time I got discouraged, the 12-inch wonder would jump around in the basket and I would sing aloud (the worst thing one can do around a trout stream) . . . Down by Sim's I got another bite and another beautiful trout broke the water and played around before I stuck him in my basket—12 1/2 inches. . . The time is here; the fish are biting; the weather is great; tomorrow for breakfast I shall have a little rainbow trout. . . Spring only comes once a year; why don't you come, too, for a few outins?"

Wild Horse Band Cut to Handful

MEDFORD, May 22 (AP)—A band of wild horses that plagued cattlemen and forest service officials for nearly 50 years in the Little Applegate district has dwindled from a one-time high of 100 to a handful. Karl Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River National forest, says the range outlaws apparently have been killed, but he doesn't know the killers. A big round-up attempt in 1939 fizzled out when 3000 onlookers stampeded the horses as they headed for a corral chute.

Tigers Take Senators in Double Tilt

Yankees Beat Browns Two Times in New York; Cards Breeze Along in Top Spot

By TED MEIER Associated Press Sports Writer The Detroit Tigers nudged the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals out of the major league limelight yesterday. The Bengals swept a doubleheader from Washington to run their winning streak to six straight and climb into the American league first division. Dizzy Trout and Hal Newhouser turned in two fine pitching performances to whip the Senators, 2 to 1 and 7 to 1, at Washington in the latest development of their road winning streak that started in Philadelphia last Wednesday night, when an error let Trout beat Bobo Newsum, of the A's, in a 2-1 struggle. Trout has pitched two of the six games with Rufus Gentry, Johnny Gorsica, Stubby Overmire and Newhouser also going the route in the other games. Meanwhile the Yankees twice beat the St. Louis Browns at Yankee stadium, before 59,161 (54,725 paid), largest crowd of the season. The Yanks took the opener, 4 to 3, in 12 innings when George Caster forced home the winning run by walking Johnny Lindell with the bases loaded. The nightcap was comparatively easy for the Bronx Bombers, 8 to 1. The Cardinals, breezing along in the National league top spot, walloped the New York Giants at St. Louis, 10 to 3, in the first game, but had to be content with a split when the Giants took the nightcap, 7 to 5. Giants Manager Mel Ott hit his first homer away from the Polo Grounds in two years. Charley Grimm's Chicago Cubs surprised by blasting the Boston Braves, 15 to 1 and 14 to 5 at Wrigley field. Al Javery, Braves starting pitcher, was banished in the third inning of the second game for disputing Umpire Jocko Conlan's calling of balls behind the plate. The Boston Red Sox wound up their home stand by whipping the Chicago White Sox twice, 4 to 3 and 9 to 2, to sweep a four-game series. The double setback dumped the Sox into the cellar. Cincinnati shoved Brooklyn deeper into seventh place in the National loop by winning a doubleheader, 5 to 3 and 6 to 5. Gee Walker's single with two out won the nightcap, which went 10 innings. Cleveland made it three straight over Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics by taking the first game of a twin bill, 5 to 4, in 11 innings, but dropped the nightcap, 3 to 2, on Steve Gromek's wild pitch in the eighth. George Kell of the A's scored from second on the errant throw. In the opener, Bobo Newsum fanned 12 batters, but still was the losing pitcher. Frank Colman's pinch triple in the eighth gave Pittsburgh a 4 to 3 triumph over the Phillies in the first game of their twin bill at Pittsburgh. The Phils were ahead, 9 to 4, in the second game when it was called after the eighth inning because of the Sunday curfew law. The last inning will be played the next time the Phils visit Pittsburgh. Until then the game does not count in the standings.

Henry Armstrong To Battle Perry In Outdoor Go

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—"Old Hammerin' Henry" Armstrong, whose "perpetual motion" tactics have slowed down somewhat with the years, takes on Aaron Perry, 18-year-old Washington hopeful with a dynamite punch, tonight in Washington's first outdoor bout of the season. Armstrong, recent victor over Ralph Zanelli in Boston in a fight billed as the "welterweight duration championship," of Massachusetts rates about a 2-1 favorite over the local "Cinderella Kid." "Hammerin' Henry" in his latest comeback attempt, has been none too impressive, but even so he seems too wise in ring technique for Perry. The local negro has a terrific punch in either hand, but lacks speed, footwork, polish and other ring attributes that come only from experience.

Solons Win 1st Series In 2 Years

Sacs Take Final Game of Seattle Go; Ducks, Padres Split; Oaks Top Angels

By The Associated Press The Sacramento Solons, by taking the final game of yesterday's doubleheader with Seattle, won their first series with a Coast league club in two years. Seattle won the first game, 3 to 2, and the Solons took the nightcap by a 2 to 1 score, giving the Sacramento club four out of seven games of the series. Portland and San Diego split, the Beavers taking the first game 16 to 1 and San Diego coming back for a 2 to 0 victory in the final. Oakland walloped Los Angeles handily, 10 to 6, in the first game, but had to go 10 innings to win a 6 to 5 decision in the nightcap. At San Francisco the Seals and Hollywood Stars staged a twin exhibition of daffy baseball playing while splitting a doubleheader. The Stars won the first, 2 to 1, and San Francisco took the final, 5 to 4. The winning Hollywood run in the third inning of the opener with dropped fly just behind the infield. An intended sacrifice rolled up Pitcher Ray Harrell's sleeve and he threw wild to first when he finally recovered the ball. Harrell, covering first on the next batter, dropped the bat and the winning run came in. Dino Restelli, who goes to the army this week, got on in the second game when hit in the elbow by a pitch after Bernie Uhalt had walked. Alex Weldon, Star pitcher, covered first when the next batter grounded into the infield. Uhalt streaked for home and Weldon was late with his throw. The ball got past Catcher Jim Hill, who retrieved it and walked out to first base vicinity for a conference. Restelli trotted across the unprotected plate. Uhalt contributed another one to the day's comedy in the first game when Hill dropped his foul fly and then dropped his fair pop up. He didn't run either time. All in all, it was a big day for errors in all except the swiftest between Portland and San Diego. Sacramento and Seattle registered 7 miscues, Los Angeles and Oakland a like number, and the Seals and Stars had 10.

Paavo Katonen, Pacific coast light heavyweight wrestling champion, will meet George Wagner, the Vancouver Flash, on the local mat Friday in a catch weight bout with no title at stake. The opening match will see the return to Klamath of Ernie Piluso. Piluso, who has many friends in the basin area, has been wrestling around the Portland country where he is employed as a supervisor in the shipyards. Somehow he managed to wrangle a vacation and arranged this trip to Klamath to wrestle for Mack Lillard and the local fans. Piluso will meet Harold "Buck" Davidson, who formerly appeared on the local mat as Johnny Soos. Davidson is an ex-marine with plenty of punch in the mat game.
