BURNING ISSUE
AUSTIN, Tex.—A friend congratulated former Gov. Dan Moody on being elected temporary chairman of the state democratic convention, and gave him an over-enthusiastic slap on the back. Moody gulped, swallowed a short cigar he was chewing. He hastily retreated to a drug store for a soda.

HOLMAN MUM
WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—Senator Holman (R-Ore.) returned to the senate today but refused to discuss last Friday's primary election in which he was defeated for renomination as Oregon's republican senatorial candidate. English term for bingo games is "housey-housey."

HISTORIC CHURCH
PENDLETON, May 24 (AP)—Worshippers again will be able to use the historic All Saints church, consecrated at Weston, Ore., in 1877 but idle since 1923.

It has been moved 12 miles from Milton, placed on a new foundation and re-named St. James church. Classified Ads Bring Results
