All male members of the East Side grange are urged to make special effort to be in front of grange hall as early Saturday morning as possible, dressed to help build the concrete sidewalk. Men who are carpenters should bring their tools, and a question arises as to just what to bring, Raymond Fisher, chairman of the construction committee should be contacted if he will supply the information. Fisher said that if the men don't out in sufficient number, the job could be completed one day so that it would not be necessary to work on Sunday. However, because of the nature of the work, what remains unfinished will have to be done Sunday. The ladies are also urged to be present at around 11 o'clock with their covered dishes of good things to eat so that the job will be supplied with a warm meal at noon. Inasmuch as this project is one of the more worthwhile undertakings of the community, it is believed every member will be ready and willing to cooperate.

The grange meeting held Saturday evening, Mrs. Cora Pollette was appointed to represent the East Side grange at the state grange meeting to be held June 12 to 16 at Grants, Ore. Leola Lee, whose home is in that city, was also invited to represent the local grange if she is not away from school.

Mrs. Louise Miller has been appointed to fill the chair as treasurer in charge of the program each meeting night. She is the place vacated by Leola Lee, who leaves after school is Mrs. Miller had charge of program last meeting night. Name proved very entertaining.

Mrs. Sadie Keller, who recently returned from spending the winter in southern California, been ill while visiting with her daughter, Elsie Green in Grants. She was taken to hospital for a few days but learned that lately she is better and has been removed to her green home. Mrs. Lillian Lawson has made an outstanding improvement in his dwelling property lately. Aside from putting a new foundation under the building he has covered the old boards with asbestos shingles and laid cement sidewalks around the building. He also screened in his porch that runs around two sides of the house, stained the roof, concreted up his well and built some new fence. The place is the new Green home and previously owned by Glen Gunderson. Blumer McCrary has been doing the work assisted by Claud Lawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Snider left last Friday morning on the stage for Sacramento to visit Snider's grandmother, Mrs. Coon, age 89, whose health has been poorly of late. They returned Monday.

It is believed that the heavy frost last Monday night played havoc with the otherwise good prospective fruit crop. The alfalfa was frozen black and if not severely damaged, will get quite a setback. Cherries, apricots, and plums were believed to be the hardest hit.

The Home Economics club of the East Side grange met at the hall last Thursday for the regular meeting, with Mrs. Mary Snider as hostess. Six members were present and good progress was made on the quilt. Ice cream, cake and coffee was served for refreshments. Mrs. Lillian Reid is the next hostess and all members are urged to be present as there are some important matters to discuss, it was announced.

The Happy Hour club met this week with Mrs. Lillian Reid. There was a good attendance and members reported a good time. Mrs. Sarah Johnston was an invited guest.

Pat Hallinan of Adel, stockman, who owns a ranch about 10 miles south of Adel, and who has recently made the purchase of the Ralph Renner ranch down on the lake back of the Bird Reed place, which at present is leased to the Partin brothers, is also buying the Herman Marks' residence here, having moved in last Sunday. He had just arrived with a pickup load of furnishings when he received a telephone call from Adel that his ranch house had burned up since his departure earlier in the day. Everything was burned except what he had brought with him, and it was understood that his insurance on the furnishings and the house had just recently expired.

The cause of the fire is not definitely known. An oil stove was left burning low in the room of a son, who was left home not feeling so well.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallinan are moving here to be close to their newly acquired ranch and for school advantages for their children.

Word was received last Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Odie that their son, Sgt. Jesse Lighte has been awarded the Purple Heart. He is still located in the Admiralty Islands and back in the thick of the fray.

R. E. Daniels and family of Lake City, were over for the weekend visiting with their son, Leroy and family, accompanied by Arno Benner, a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay Johnston arrived last Sunday evening to spend a week here visiting relatives. Gay, although he is a member of a fishing club in Vallejo, wasted no time after arriving in arranging a fishing trip.

Eldon E. Woodcock, brother of Mrs. Mary Miller, who lives in Roseburg, Ore., has recently been suffering from a disease known as block-heart. The ailment is supposedly to have been caused from the nature of his work as a blacksmith. Woodcock is feeling better now, but was cautioned by his physician to be very careful and not do any heavy work. He has been in the blacksmith business for around 30 years, but sold out last winter. He is now doing a little gardening for himself for the first time since he has been married. He was formerly sheriff in Lakeview for two terms, during prohibition.

Eleanor Hamilton, who for the last two years has been teaching the State Line school, left last Wednesday morning for her home in Burlington, Calif. She is not coming back next fall and will stop to see about a teaching job at Willows, Calif.

On the Oregon side at Kelly Creek grade school, Leola Lee, who has also taught two years, is locating in a school closer to her home in Grants Pass. Her position has been filled by Mrs. Erma Sanders, who has been teaching at Davis Creek the last

TULELAKE YOUTH PROBLEM STUDIED

TULELAKE—Law enforcement officers and proprietors of liquor dispensing establishments, cognizant of the need for closer cooperation in the attempt to control juvenile delinquency, met here last weekend to formulate plans for a program designed to curb a growing problem in this area.

Charles Larson, Siskiyou county juvenile officer, stated that county statistics show a jump of 45 per cent in the number of juvenile cases brought to the attention of the courts since 1942 when five out of 100 children appeared before judges. Twenty-five juveniles from the Tulelake area appeared last year.

Local officers, in spite of concerted efforts and vigilance, have not been able to cope with the growing threat.

Charles O. Larsen, probation officer of Yreka, represented the county juvenile court and Dewey Egan, the state board of equalization. Present also were John Corter, Tulelake, deputy sheriff of Siskiyou county and Frank G. Rhodes, Tulelake chief of police.

Proprietors of establishments where liquor is sold included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Drake, Mrs. Gloria Johanson, William Hodges, James Horne, Sam Mackey, E. H. Ricketts and William Seigler. The meeting here was one of several held recently in Siskiyou county.

Dairy

Bill Coke and son have recently moved into their home in Dairy which they purchased from Charles Inman some time ago.

Friends are very glad to learn that John A. Jones is able to sit up after being quite ill for some time at his home in Dairy. Jo Ann Steyskal of Malin is staying with her grandmother, Mrs. George Lewis of Pine Flat, for the coming school vacation. Mrs. Ada Moore of Los Angeles, who is visiting relatives and old friends in Klamath Falls for some time, spent the weekend visiting in the Fred Schmoie home of North Dairy. Mrs. Moore is enjoying a visit with her old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schmoie, of 3950 Homedale road.

Relative plan on bringing Mike Rueck home some time this coming week from the hospital in Klamath Falls. Mike is recovering from a second operation recently performed. Mrs. Jim Smith was taken to Klamath Falls last week where she received medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fulton, son John, and twin daughters, Mary and Marion, arrived here Saturday, May 20 from The Dalles to visit Mrs. Fulton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, and brother and family. Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Jones and daughter Nora Lee of Dairy.

Graduating from the Bonanza high school class of 1944 on May 17, were Nadine Schmoie, Lila Jean Parker, Chloe Bradley, from this vicinity. Everyone wishes the class a bright and prosperous future.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schmoie of Klamath Falls called on old friends and relatives in this vicinity on Sunday, May 21. They spent the night in the Virgil Schmoie home.

Frank Ramsey was a Klamath Falls visitor during the week receiving medical attention. Little Beverly Cantrall is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Byrd, in Nevada.

Pvt. Everett R. (Dick) Post, army air base, Pyote, Tex., recently made a flying visit with his father, E. C. Post. Dick is a voice operator in flight control. This is a new department which controls the traffic of the base's planes. He is not a stranger to Modoc county, having been employed during his high school vacations as buckaroo on the Abyssinia ranch, when that property was operated by Liskey brothers. Loveness Logging company has temporarily discontinued railroad logging and is operating both crews at truck logging. One side operating on Caldwell's ranch, the other on Red river timber near Loveness Logging company camp. Part of the equipment has been moved to railhead, preparatory to logging in that area in the next few weeks. That will be both truck and railroad operations, and will market some of California's finest ponderosa pine.

Mrs. J. W. Harr of Adin has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Bessie Martin, this last week.

Potato Cooking Book Available

"Potatoes in Popular Ways," a new pamphlet on Klamath's foremost home-grown food, is now available at the office of the home demonstration agent, Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen. The folder gives a detailed summary of the nutritional value of the potato, tips on the selection, storage care and cooking of the vegetable, as well as recipes for soups, salads, methods of baking, boiling, frying and roasting to retain perishable vitamins. There are also some new ideas for using left-over potatoes in appetizing, well-disguised ways.
