

Spring Recital Given May 18th

By ALICE B. MICHELS.

I had the pleasure of attending the annual spring presentation of the voice pupils of Mrs. A. J. Voye, Thursday, May 18, at the First Presbyterian church which was filled to capacity with music lovers.

The master of ceremonies, Conrad Schultz, who was presented in concert last year, introduced each student, the first being Shirley Marander, 14, who sang "The Golden Key" and "Little Bit-O-Heaven," both by Bond, with a sweetness and earnestness that pleased the audience immensely.

Mrs. Robert Ross, the second performer, possessed a rich mellow quality in her voice, as she presented "In the Garden of My Heart," by Ball; and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," by Bland.

Dorothy Beazley, a Klamath Union high school student, sang "Open the Gates of the Temple," by Knapp, and "Absent," by Metcalf, with a deep resonant voice. Here is another voice to watch.

"My Laddie," by Thayer, and "Giannina Mia," by Friml, were rendered sweetly and with feeling by Marjorie McCollum, another high school student.

The guest artist of the evening was lovely young Nancy Swem, Medford, student of Sebastian Apollo. She presented to us the "Dondo Capriccioso," by Mendelssohn, with beautiful piano technique.

Miss Swem has had several years of Bach technique, and although her note range was great, there was little arm movement, thus she appeared to be playing with great ease. At the request of the audience, she played as her encore, "Nola."

Mrs. Jerome Henry, who is familiar to all of the "annual" guests, had shown great improvement in the power and smooth quality of her voice.

Mrs. Ernest Luchona, an intricate and forceful selection. Her second encore was the "Music Box," by Ernest Luchona, an intricate and forceful selection. Her second encore was the "Music Box," by Ernest Luchona, an intricate and forceful selection.

Patricia O'Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hopkins of Hillsdale, is returning this weekend from Lewis and Clark college in Portland. Both have completed their freshman year and are expected in Klamath Falls Sunday.

Conrad Schultz was making his last appearance before going into the armed forces. He sang the "Song of the Flea," by Mouskowsky. His ability to laugh naturally and dramatize the story of the flea, was outstanding. Even the two eight-year-olds who were with me, laughed delightedly at the antics and troubles of the flea.

Conrad gave us "The Road to Mandalay." For his encore, Conrad gave us "Take You Home Again" and "Take You Home Again." Mrs. Rollin Cantrall, long a favorite with Klamath Falls audiences, charmed with her "Mad Scene," from the opera "Lucia," by Donizetti.

Marie Obenchain was, as always, the very able accompanist for the entire group.

Spring Party

Last Saturday evening, in a setting of spring flowers, the Sojourners entertained husbands and friends with their annual spring dinner party at the Willard hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Finnigan were chairmen of the affair, assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Greer Glascoe, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, Captain and Mrs. J. Mitchell of Camp Tulelake, Lt. and Mrs. J. M. Babcock, Ensign and Mrs. M. L. Carey, and Ensign and Mrs. W. R. Kershaw.

Covers were placed for 112 members and guests. During the evening the Sacred Heart Academy Glee club sang four beautiful selections; Captain Ben Hartman entertained with sleight-of-hand magic, and several servicemen from Camp Tulelake obliged with vocal solos and instrumental music.

Sojourners met Wednesday at the Willard for their regular meeting with Mrs. Glenn Jones, president. Mrs. M. L. Carey and Mrs. W. R. Kershaw were hostesses for the afternoon. Six tables of cards were in play after the no-hostess luncheon, with Mrs. K. M. Moty, Mrs. Ben Gibson and Mrs. A. W. Elliott receiving honors.

Two new members, Mrs. I. R. Libony and Mrs. Steven Kasper were welcomed into the club. Mrs. Newton DePrez of Medford was a guest.

Mrs. Wilbur Shannon was named historian of the club. Election of officers to preside for the coming six months was held, with Mrs. Matthew Finnigan selected as president, Mrs. Lloyd Young, vice president, Mrs. J. M. McManus, secretary, and Mrs. Evan Campbell, treasurer.

Sojourners have furnished cookies for the Commandos during May and Mrs. Glenn Jones has been named cookie chairman for the Commandos.

Installation of officers will be held at the next meeting at the Willard on June 14. Tea will be served by the out-going officers.

A group of Klamath Union high school girls who have assisted at the chamber of commerce during the past school year, were complimented with a dinner party given at the Pelican Monday evening when the chamber officials entertained.

The evening was also highlighted with presentation of a birthday cake to Judith Brown, assistant secretary.

Guests included Marjorie Ongman, Dannie Hall, Beverly Metter, Virginia Leslie, Jeraldine Conrady, Inez Dutton, Peggy Rakestraw, Esther Lawler, Judith Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley and Charles R. Stark.

Nancy Warren invited a group of playmates to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren on California avenue, for the pleasure of Aurora Provençal who leaves in June for San Pedro to reside. The affair was held Saturday afternoon, today.

Guests included Aurora, Shirley, Faus, Shirley Mattoon, Sharon Hipke, Sara Stewart and the hostess, Nancy Warren.

A wedding of interest in Klamath Falls took place in La Grande at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 6, in the First Methodist church when Frances Lucile Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clark of that city, became the bride of William F. Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lamb of Spring Lake.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Irvin S. Motz before an altar banked with calla lilies and white snapdragons. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with princess lines, long sleeves and lace yoke, a Mary Stuart cap trimmed with orange blossoms from which fell a finger tip length veil. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

FARM PARTY FOR CAROL STEBBINS

When Carol Stebbins celebrated her twelfth birthday on Wednesday, May 24, each guest received a straw hat and bandana handkerchief to lend the farm party touch. Farm games were played and later the guests enjoyed refreshments. Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Stebbins of the Lakeview highway. Seated in the foreground, Frances Ziemienczuk, Carol Stebbins and Sylvia Keady. Back, left to right, Nancy Masten, Mary Louis Enman, Beth Lee Bunch and Shirley Hubble. Invited but not in the picture were Geraldine McKendree, Ethelmae Kishner, Jean Clisler, Catherine Wisecarver, Aletha Scholer and Mary Green.

Roosevelt PTA

The Roosevelt P.T.A. had the last meeting of the year on Tuesday afternoon, May 16.

The sixth grade entertained with musical selections. The girls in the upper grades presented tumbling acts. Lowell Kaup, principal, introduced the speaker, A. L. Gralapp, who spoke of the school finance problem for the state of Oregon giving a better understanding of this problem. Committees of the P.T.A. gave their reports for the year. Mr. Kaup suggested a few different projects that the P.T.A. might consider for the next year.

At the end of the meeting Mrs. B. C. Johnston installed the new officers for next year. Mrs. Peter Rozendal was presented with a past president's pin. She thanked those helping her with her duties this year. The meeting was then adjourned for tea for which the teachers were the hostesses for the afternoon.

The table was lovely with lace table cloth, with a centerpiece of sweet peas and tulips; the new president, Mrs. E. A. Geary and the past president, Mrs. Peter Rozendal poured.

A number of informal affairs have been given during the past week for the pleasure of Clara Mielke of Beverly Hills, California, who is spending 10 days as the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw.

Glee Club Sings

A large and appreciative audience heard the Sacred Heart Academy Glee club concert Tuesday evening in the school auditorium.

The girls made a lovely picture in their gay formal attire with a blue nautical background with the many silver stars shining overhead.

All of the numbers were beautifully rendered, the perfect harmony, tone shading and precision denoting the system work and cooperation of the Glee club members and the director, Sister Lavinia.

Songs by the triple trio were especially pleasing, and Miss Patricia O'Leary and Miss Virginia Koch were well received. Two interesting instrumental numbers gave variety to the program. Peggy Pruitt played piano solo and Dean Abbott played a violin solo, accompanied by his sister Elaine Abbott.

Mrs. Harry Johnson, (Mrs. Mary Sloan), is expected here for the summer from the University of Oregon next winter. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sloan of Park street.

The junior queen, year and her attendants, together with this year's court will constitute Ivy court. Beauty IS YOUR DUTY

By RITA WHISENANT Licensed Cosmetologist

BARE arms, low necks, backless jumpers and short evening gowns... the "bare" look is more and more becoming the "new" look as summer comes on. And for the first time in many years, lots of precious skin that remained modestly hidden is now out in the open.

THAT'S all very well when you can get out into the sun quickly and get your suntan early and thoroughly... but for you busy gals who have to wait for weekends or a snatch of sun now and then, Richard Hudnut offers an excellent beauty trick for getting "into" the lovely, luscious tan you'll display later on.

IT'S all done with the famous DuBarry Foundation Lotion and Powder Lotion combination... the one to condition, the other to camouflage. Take a look at the skin on your chest... the part that used to come just below the high necklines we wore.

THAT'S where you start with a thorough scrubbing to whisk off dead, dried-out skin... then smooth on this creamy DuBarry Foundation Lotion to soften the skin and make it silky. Then, with cotton, smooth on DuBarry Powder Lotion over your arms, back (you may need help) and chest until it is as even as your skin itself.

IT doesn't rub off on clothes or Navy "Blues" when you're dancing. And you can change color to match the tan you acquire with time and sun. Foundation Lotion, $1.25. Powder Lotion, $1.00.

—RITA.
