

Rainbow Girls Present Program

TULELAKE—Harriet Coulson was installed as worthy advisor of the Tulelake Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, in a colorful ceremony Monday evening. Serving with Miss Coulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coulson, will be Dorothy Thomas, associate worthy advisor; Charity, Jean Scott; Hope, Eleanor Kandra; Faith, Betty Benight; recorder, Bernice Hartley; treasurer, Jean Wolfe; chaplain, Mary Robertson; drill leader, Pat Kirksey. Bow stations: Love, Norma Leta Puckett; Religion, Marjorie Maudlin; Nature, Jerry Lou Wilson; Mortality, Doris Porterfield; Fidelity, Barbara Faust; Patriotism, Dorothy Loosley; Service, Patsy Warriner; Confidential Observer, Phyllis Rowan; outer observer, Phyllis Victorine; musician, Miss Jean Reid.

Masses of white phlox and of white lilacs with numerous tall lighted white tapers formed a beautiful background for the ritual.

Installing officers were past worthy advisor, Joyce Turnbaugh; installing marshal, Fannie Adams; installing chaplain, Frances Ryan; installing recorder, Carolyn Ryckman; musician, Mrs. Carl Gentry.

The incoming worthy advisor and associate worthy advisor received their Rainbow Bibles with shower effect of white lilies and white sweet peas before the altar. As Mrs. Carl Gentry played "Aloha" the worthy advisor was escorted to her station in the east and the assembly sang "Rainbow Dreams." At her station she was presented with an arm bouquet of red roses, symbolic of the color station, Love. Following her acceptance her parents were introduced to the assembly.

Several awards were presented, the twelve senior high school girls presenting the assembly with the Rainbow official seal and the Rainbow color emblem. The retiring worthy advisor, Joyce Turnbaugh, was recipient of a gift from the mother advisor, Mrs. C. C. Coulson, and the associate mother advisor, Mrs. George Fisher, presented Rainbow card cases to the senior girls.

Mrs. Coulson then presented service bars to Fannie Adams, Jean Scott, Harriet Coulson, Patsy Warriner, Dorothy Thomas, Carolyn Ryckman, Joan Smith, Lindsey Galloway, Joyce Turnbaugh and Eleanor Kandra for meritorious effort. Service pins went to a number of the younger members including Bernice Hartley, Pat Kirksey, Jean Wolfe, Dorothy Loosley and Mary Robertson.

A gift of appreciation from the new worthy advisor to Mrs. Carl Gentry for her helpfulness was acknowledged and the incoming officer then received a memento from the retiring worthy advisor, Joyce Turnbaugh. A surprise gift went to Mrs. Coulson from Joyce Turnbaugh while the assembly sang an original musical number directed by Mrs. Fisher. Mrs. Coulson then presented her gift to Mrs. Fisher for her generous help in assembly work.

Maxine Edwards Rowce, first worthy advisor of the Tulelake assembly when it was organized five years ago, was present and spoke briefly.

The session, an open meeting, was well attended by parents and friends of the girls. Refreshments were served following the installation.

Presenters Group

The students of Mrs. Jean Blake of Malin presented a piano recital at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Tofell the evening of May 18. Following is the program:

"Spanish Fiesta"..... Thompson
 "Long, Long Ago"..... Bayly
 Phyllis Johnson
 "Waltz in C Major"..... Bilbro
 "The Picnic"..... Bilbro
 George Rajnus
 "Home On the Range"..... Duet, George Rajnus, Mrs. Blake
 "Swiss Echo Song"..... Felton
 "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia"..... Bland
 Sarah O'Keefe
 "Dreams of Twilight"..... Stockley
 Duet, Sarah O'Keefe, Mrs. Blake
 "Sympathy"..... Friml
 Solo, Duffie Orr
 "My Boot"..... Merges
 "The Night Wind"..... Erb
 Jean Rajnus
 "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean"..... Duet, Carl Rajnus, Mrs. Blake
 "The Band Played On"..... Carl Rajnus
 "Valley Forge March"..... Goldman
 Duet, Carl Rajnus, Mrs. Blake
 "I'll Take You Home Again"..... Westendorf
 Jean Victorine
 "Swaying Daffodils"..... Duet, Jean Victorine, Mrs. Blake
 "It's Raining Violets"..... Solos, Mrs. Shogren
 "Kentucky Lullaby"..... Chopin
 Prelude in C Minor..... Chopin
 Theme From Tchaikowsky's Concerto
 Mrs. Juanita Fabonic
 "Two Guitars"..... Russian Folk Melody
 Duet, Mrs. Fabonic, Mrs. Blake

Celebrates

CANBY—A large crowd of little folks gathered at the home of Lois Ankin on Tuesday, May 23, to wish her a happy birthday and to help her celebrate the occasion with a huge cake trimmed with frosted animal crackers. This was Lois' eighth birthday anniversary and the afternoon was spent playing games, defense stamps going as prizes to the winners.

Invited guests were: Robert Pike, Ernest Hess, Phyllis Johns, Merylin Guss, Wanda Nichols, Marguerite Ohm, Ronald Loveness, Doyle Mullen, Bonell Richardson, Walter Norum, Robert Mead, Carolyn Beattie, Ella Ohm, Jennie Loveness, Robert Saunders, James Shure, Bonnie Addington, Gwen McKillip, Mona Cates, Billy Lein, Dean Parnell, Eugene Mullen, Donald Lemke, Wayne Booth, Walter Mohr, Christine Green, James Smalling, Nadine Cates, Christine Funk, Donald Sherer, Joy Niles, Donald Craig, Carol Guss, Neida Wilkins, Buddy Addington, Dick Caldwell and his cousin, Gary Morgan of Sacramento. Dolores Weir of Reading; Darlene Lincoln, Lois' cousin of Chico; Elinor Rae, John and Fredrick Ankin, Mrs. Eva Henning and Mrs. Carolyn Loveness, Lois' teachers.

Auxiliary

The Townsend auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Viola Hermann, 328 Iowa street, on May 17 for 1 o'clock potluck luncheon. Mrs. Eva Webster was presented with birthday gifts. A business meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer followed by the flag salute. The quilt being made by the club will be worked on at the meeting May 31 at the home of Mrs. Adah Larson, 618 Willow.

Bingo was played by the guests, Eva Myers, Eva Webster, Della E. Arnold, Roena Fugill, Adah Larson, Matilda Crapp, Bernice McCracken and Viola Hermann.

F. E. Sverdsen, Hans Norland, Ole Solberg and the host, Mr. Jordanger.

Sons of Norway

A group of Sons of Norway members and friends were guests of Agnar Jordanger at Shady Pine on Wednesday evening, May 17. Coincidental with observance of the Norwegian independence day, was the surprise visit to Klamath Falls of a noted war correspondent, Mrs. Lita Lindback. She was enroute to Eugene having lectured at Roseburg Tuesday evening. Mrs. Lindback is an instructor in Norwegian culture at the University of Oregon under the army specialized training program.

Mrs. Lindback is also correspondent for a Norwegian newspaper in Brooklyn, N.Y. Her book, "A Thousand Norwegian Ships," has recently been published. She hopes to return to Norway as soon as she is permitted. Mrs. Lindback was in Paris at the time Norway was invaded.

Dinner was served to the following: Mrs. Lindback, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Berg, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Raithe, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Beach and Leroy, Mr. and Mrs. Sverre Munson, Mary Ann and Paul,

TULELAKE HONORS

Harriet Coulson, left, and Dorothy Thomas, are valedictorian and salutatorian of Tulelake high school. Commencement will take place June 8. Both girls are active in school and social affairs of the community in which they live. —Kennell-Ellis.

TO WED IN JUNE

Elaine Gertrude Gastelum of Corona, California, daughter of Mrs. Rita Stephenson of Ontario, will become the bride of John Howard Athey, SC 2/c, Camp Elliott, San Diego, son of Mrs. Florence Athey, 1211 California avenue, Klamath Falls. The wedding will take place sometime in June.

Family Featured At Aloha Meeting

Five members of the same family occupying seats of honor in the east, or filling officers' chairs on the chapter floor, was the unusual situation at the regular meeting of Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, held Thursday evening in the Masonic temple, Klamath avenue. Mrs. Cora Sanderson of Union, Oregon, who served as worthy matron of Aloha chapter in 1911, was seated at the right of Worthy Matron Mrs. Arthur R. Dickson. Mrs. Sanderson's granddaughter, Mrs. Ernel Hosley, worthy matron of Cascade Crest chapter, Chiloquin, sat at her right, and her son-in-law, Mr. Earl Templar, worthy patron of Aloha chapter, was seated at the left of the worthy matron. A daughter, Mrs. Earl Templar, is secretary of Aloha chapter, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Dorothy Templar Diment, is Electa.

Shower Given

A shower for Mrs. Jack Barton was given by Elaine McClellan assisted by Mrs. James Cornutt at the McClellan home on High street Tuesday of last week.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Jack Barton, Mrs. Boyd Bruner, Mrs. Ada Brown, Mrs. Mary Gebhart, Mrs. J. A. Burke, Donna Burke, Mrs. J. S. McClellan, Mrs. Verne McClellan, Patricia McClellan, Mrs. James Robison, Mrs. Marion Crossfield, Mrs. Arnold Colohan, Mrs. Percy Dixon, Donna Dixon, Mrs. Harold Dixon, Mrs. Victor Bark, Mrs. Elmer Rowden, Mrs. Sylvia Stroud, Mrs. Verle Brewbaker, Ann Stevenson, Mrs. Kinney, Mrs. Zetta Sullivan, Mrs. Zella High, Zella Ann Sullivan, Mrs. Frances Johnson, Linda Cornutt and the hostesses.

Mrs. George Casper presided during the program hour, presenting a clever skit entitled "Spring Hats—Exclusive Millinery Shoppe," a farce revealing the follies of fashion and tricks of trade. Taking part in this feature were Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. Ted Huey, Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, Mrs. E. E. Metler, and Mrs. Dorothy Templar Diment. The program included singing, modeling parades, and other fun-provoking antics. Hostess committee for the evening was Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickson, who served punch and cookies.

Mrs. C. T. Bryson, Nequassa chapter, No. 43, Franklin, North Carolina, was an out-of-state visitor. Chapter will meet the fourth Tuesday in June, and this will be the last meeting before summer vacation.

Honor Students

TULELAKE—Both honor students of the Tulelake high school senior class, Harriet Coulson and Dorothy Thomas who will deliver the valedictory and salutatory addresses for commencement June 8 have taken an active part in extra curricular activities during the four years they have been in high school. Miss Coulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coulson who graduated with a 2.97 average for four years academic work has been chosen valedictorian and Miss Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas with an average of 2.09 will be salutatorian.

Both girls hold life memberships in the California Scholarship Federation. Both have assisted on the school annual, White and Gold and Miss Thomas has served on the editorial staff of the Honker, school paper. They are members of the Girls' Service organization.

Miss Thomas is secretary of the student body and president of the Girls' Service organization. The salutatorian also served as vice president of her class during her junior year.

Work in the Cadette group is kept up by each, Miss Thomas serving as a sergeant and Miss Coulson as a private. They were installed Monday night, May 22, in the principal offices of the Tulelake assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Harriet as worthy advisor and Dorothy as worthy associate advisor.

Harriet will enter Stanford next fall and Dorothy plans a degree course at some college yet to be decided upon.

Photo Finishing

Developing - Printing
 Enlarging
UNDERWOOD'S
 PHOTO SERVICE
 211 Underwood Bldg.

Stingerettes

The Stingerette club held a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Walter Fuller, 2252 Vine, Wednesday, at 12:30 o'clock with Mrs. A. Myers co-hostess. Attending were Mrs. Merrill Kiouss and two daughters Mrs. Nate Gale and son, Mrs. J. J. Pex, Mrs. V. C. Phillips, Mrs. M. R. Messer, Mrs. Harry Sackett, Mrs. A. B. Guherie, Mrs. John Farrow, Mrs. James Fuller, son and daughter, Elsie McGilvray and Gladys Hunt.

It was decided to hold the galloping tea each week, and non-members may be invited. A circulating gift exchange is also to be started beginning with the president. The June meeting will be with Mrs. Hunt on Shasta

Hostess at Party

Elaine McClellan entertained with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday in honor of Mrs. L. E. Holzhauser of Poe Valley. Mrs. Ralph Taylor, the former Elizabeth Burton, delighted with three violin solos. Games were played with honors going to Mrs. Jack Barton, Mrs. Cornutt and Mrs. Robert Phillips.

After gifts were given the honor guest, refreshments were served to Mrs. Marion Crossfield, Mrs. Victor Bark, Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mrs. James Cornutt, Linda Cornutt, Mrs. Jack Barton, Mrs. B. L. Holzhauser, Mrs. C. L. Webber, Mrs. John Hope, Mrs. Helen Webber, Mrs. Bob Phillips, Jackie Phillips, Mrs. Grace Patterson, Mrs. Frank Crossfield, Mrs. James

Members of Prosperity Rebekah lodge who attended the state assembly in Portland, report a large attendance. Kate Hogue's recommended appointment as district deputy president was confirmed, and Alma Cofer was elected conductor of the assembly for the coming year. Kate Hogue and Lucille Helfer received the degree of chivalry. Those from Klamath Falls who attended were Kate Hogue, Charlotte Martin, Elizabeth Ramsby, Jennie Hurn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Munsell, Addie Sandell, Alma Cofer and Lucille Helfer.

"Over 21"

The years are becoming to clever women. They add even more to their charm and beauty. They learn to look for clothes that are all line and subtle color. See our cool, flattering Summer collection.

LaPointez

FOUR MONTHS

Little Jule Lyn Bratton is the four-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bratton. This picture was taken when she was only two months old. Her mother is the former Bernice Larson and they are making their home with James Bratton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bratton, 2141 White, while Jule Lyn's father serves as AMM 1/c with the U. S. navy. —Kennell-Ellis.